1	TO:	Linda Holt Academic Senate
2	FROM	Academic Support Task Force

- 2 FROM: Academic Support Task Force
- 3 DATE: September  $28^{th}$ , 2005
- 4

Task Force Charge: To determine what type of support structure is needed to engage academic departments in meaningful assessment strategies for the PEP process as well as other program planning and development efforts. The task force should meet to discuss what types of support are necessary across the different types of academic units and assign cash value to this support. This information should be submitted to the Executive

- 10 Committee of the Senate within six weeks of the first task force meeting.
- 11 12

13 Make-up of Task Force:

- 14 Gabriela Sonntag, Chair of Program Assessment Committee
- 15 Regina Eisenbach, CoBA
- 16 Linda Shaw, Sociology
- 17 Denise Garcia, Biological Sciences
- 18 Bettina Huber, Director of Analytic Studies
- 19 Marie Thomas, WASC Educational Effectiveness Committee.

21 The Taskforce met on two occasions and exchanged ideas via email. Faculty input was

- 22 invited via the discussion board on the Academic Senate website. Additionally Bettina
- 23 Huber conducted a survey of practice on other CSU campuses relating to funding for
- 24 program reviews and assessment.
- 25 As the campus moves forward with the WASC review and in consideration of the CSU
- 26 Accountability Reporting process, including the review of educational effectiveness
- 27 indicators, we foresee heightened focus on the program review process and especially on
- the assessment of student learning. The campus must acknowledge the serious
- 29 investments that these entail and provide sufficient resources to faculty in the programs
- 30 under review, as it is the faculty that takes on the greatest share of the task.
- 31
- 32 The CSU survey shows that funding is generally available for external reviewers (12
- 33 campuses routinely fund it; another 4 sometimes provide funding). Program reviews, per 34 se, are not generally funded although 4 campuses do receive some funds (partial funding

35 for attendance at assessment conferences, reimbursements for one-time expenses such as

- 36 software purchases, small stipends for summer work).
- 37 We urge the university to set aside funding for assessment giving a priority to those
- 38 departments undergoing program review. The survey of sister campuses found that 18 of
- 39 them provide at least some funding for assessment.

40	a.	Funds ($10,000 per program) to support the initial development of
41		assessment plans. The department will submit a proposal that explains
42		how the monies will be used: course releases, departmental retreats,
43		attendance at conferences, etc. Flexibility is important to allow for
44		variations in need.
45	b.	Additional funding in future years ($2000) to support the implementation
46		of specific assessment projects. Examples may include a survey
47		development and implementation, alternative assessment tools, exit
48		interviews, etc.
49	с.	Several campuses have used lottery funds to underwrite assessment
50		initiatives.
51	Creating a fa	culty learning community on assessment is an innovative idea seen on
52	0	npuses. The programs undergoing review can work together, attend
53	assessment co	nferences, and provide support. The faculty member would receive a small

54 55 stipend to participate.

Resolution on Academic Department Assessment Support

- 56 57
- 58 WHEREAS, The campus is moving forward with the WASC review, and in
- 59 consideration of the CSU Accountability Reporting process, including the review of
- 60 educational effectiveness indicators, we foresee heightened focus on the program review
- 61 process and especially on the assessment of student learning; and
- 62 WHEREAS, The campus must acknowledge the serious investments that these entail and
- 63 provide sufficient resources to faculty in the programs under review, as it is the faculty
- 64 that takes on the greatest share of the task; and
- 65 WHEREAS, A survey of other CSU campuses found that 18 of them provide at least 66 some funding for assessment; now, therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That the Academic Senate endorse the report of the Academic Department
   Assessment Support Task Force; and be it further
- RESOLVED, That, the Academic Senate endorse the recommendation in the report, that the university set aside funding for assessment giving a priority to those programs undergoing program review. To include:
- 72a) funds (up to $10,000 per program) may be requested to support the initial73development of assessment plans with the department submitting a74proposal on how the monies will be used;
- b) funds in future years (up to an additional $2000) may be requested to support the implementation of specific assessment projects;
- c) a stipend to be provided for one faculty member from each of the programs undergoing review to participate in a learning community to work together; and
- a course release for the chair of the Program Assessment Committee following standard practice for Academic Senate Committee chairs.

47	II.	PRE	AMI	3LE
48
49				cument sets forth general standards and criteria for retention, tenure, and promotion
50				ime faculty in the College of Arts and Sciences. The provisions of this document
51				nded to be implemented in conformity with University-wide RTP policies, and may
52		be	comp	plemented and refined by disciplinary documents that further specify standards,
53		crit	teria,	and expectations of performance.
54
55	III.	GUI	DIN	G PRINCIPLES
56
57		A.	GE	NERAL GUIDING PRINCIPLES
58
59			1.	All standards and criteria should reflect the University Mission, Vision and
60				Values Statement and advance the goals embodied in that statement, including the
61				following:
62
63				• That students be "taught by active scholars and artists."
64
65				• That student learning be enhanced through "sustained excellence in
66				teaching, research, and community partnerships."
67
68				• That "individual and cultural diversity, and multiple perspectives" be
69				promoted and endorsed.
70
71				• That the education of students include dedication to the values of intellectual
72				engagement, community, integrity, innovation, and inclusiveness.
73
74			2.	The three performance areas that shall be evaluated, scholarshipresearch/creative
75				activity, instructionteaching, and service, are integral faculty activities. While
76				recognizing instruction teaching as a central institutional mission, the College and
77				disciplinary standards and criteria should recognize the diversity of each faculty
78				member's contribution to the University. While the College affirms the university-
79				wide requirement of sustained high quality performance in all areas, it encourages
80				flexibility in the relative emphasis placed on each of the three performance areas.
81				The College respects and allows diversity of contribution in individual attainment
82				of the expected level of overall performance.
83
84			3.	The evaluation of faculty performance in the areas of instructionteaching,
85				scholarshipresearch/creative activity, and service must be done in the context of
86				the University's level of development. Methods of performance assessment for
87				scholarshipresearch/creative activity, instructionteaching, and service shall be

88 89 90 91		clearly specified and uniformly applied to all faculty. Activities assessed in one area of performance shall not be duplicated in any other area of performance evaluation.
92 93 94 95	4.	As specified in the CBA, faculty have the right to clearly articulated performance expectations at all levels and stages of the RTP process. The RTP process should be simultaneously evaluative and developmental and be carried out in a cooperative, collaborative environment.
96 97 98 99 100 101 102 103	5.	Retention, tenure, and promotion decisions are made on the basis of evaluation of individual performance, and ultimate responsibility for meeting all standards and criteria rests with the candidate. Sound advice and counsel by tenured faculty can significantly contribute to the achievement of the highest level of individual performance and should be available. Candidates may choose whether to avail themselves of such advice and counsel.
104 105	B. ST	ANDARDS APPLIED IN DIFFERENT TYPES OF DECISIONS
106 107 108 109 110	1.	It is expected that candidates for retention at the rank of assistant professor will show increasing effectiveness in each area of performance and demonstrate consistent progress toward meeting the tenure requirements in the areas of instructionteaching, scholarshipresearch/creative activity, and service.
111 112 113 114 115	2.	Promotion to the rank of associate professor requires an established record of effectiveness in instructionteaching , scholarlyresearch /creative achievements, and involvement in service activities that enhance the institution and the profession.
115 116 117 118 119 120	3.	Promotion to the rank of professor requires evidence of continued commitment to and effectiveness in instructionteaching , service to the University and/or the profession, and evidence of substantial achievement in scholarlyresearch /creative activities.
121 122 123 124 125 126 127 128	4.	The granting of tenure at any rank recognizes accomplishments and services performed during the probationary years. Further, the granting of tenure is an expression of confidence that the faculty member has both the commitment to and the potential for continued development and accomplishment throughout his/her career. Tenure should ordinarily not be granted to individuals whose record does not meet the standards required to earn promotion to the rank at which the tenure will be granted.
129 130	IV. STAND	ARDS AND CRITERIA
131 132 133	A. IN	STRUCTION TEACHING

134 135 136 137 138 139 140 141 142 143 144 145	1.	The central, although not exclusive, mission of the faculty is to enable students to comprehend and to utilize knowledge through scholarly intellectual activity that is both challenging and encouraging. Quality instructionteaching requires continual crafting and dedication. Toward that end faculty are expected to learn about pedagogy, to carefully consider how to teach as well as what to teach. Faculty members are expected to strengthen continually their teaching skills continually and to demonstrate overall effectiveness in scholarly instruction at the undergraduate and/or graduate level. Toward this end, faculty are encouraged in every way to cultivate and maintain useful, innovative, and stimulating instructional techniques, in consultation with mentoring peers and to be mindful of the conclusions and recommendations of evaluating entities.
146	2.	Probationary and tenured faculty are expected to set clear expectations of success
147	2.	and to instruct with the assumption that all students can learn. Faculty should
148		involve students actively in the learning process and employ various instructional
149		techniques. Faculty should adapt their instructional methods to reach and to
150		encourage the participation of all segments of a diversethe student body. Faculty
151		should emphasize practices known to be effective at increasing substantially the

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY SAN MARCOS

1. Definition of the Proposed Degree Major Program<sup>1</sup>

- a. Name of the campus submitting the request, the full and exact designation (degree terminology) for the proposed degree major program, and academic year of intended implementation.
- b. Name of the department, departments, division or other unit of the campus which would offer the proposed degree major program. Identify the unit which will have primary responsibility.
- c. Name, title, and rank of the individual(s) primarily responsible for drafting the proposed degree major program.
- d. Objectives of the proposed degree major program.<sup>2</sup>
- e. Total number of units required for the major. List of all courses, by catalog number, title and units of credit, to be specifically required for a major under the proposed degree program. Identify those new courses which are 1) needed to initiate the program and 2) needed during the first two years after implementation. Include proposed catalog description of all new courses.
- f. List elective courses, by catalog number, title, and units of credit, which can be used to satisfy requirements for the major. Identify those new courses which are 1) needed to initiate the program and 2) needed during the first two years after implementation. Include proposed catalog description of all new courses.
- g. If any formal options, concentration, or special emphases are planned under the proposed major, explain fully.
- h. Course prerequisites and other criteria for admissions of students to the proposed degree major program, and for their continuation in it.
- i. Explanation of special characteristics of the proposed degree major program, e.g., in terminology, units of credit required, types of course work, etc.<sup>3</sup>
- j. For undergraduate programs, provisions for articulation of the proposed major with community college programs.<sup>4</sup>
- k. Provision for meeting accreditation requirements, where applicable, and anticipated date of accreditation request.

2. Need for the Proposed Degree Major Program

&lt;sup>2</sup> Instructions to Program Proposer: Objectives should be expressed as overarching student learning outcomes that the program is intended to produce: what the graduates should know and be able to do. Make reference to the more detailed presentation provided in the table required in section 6a. Use 1d to address how the program is aligned with the University Mission, Vision and Values.

http://www.calstate.edu/AcadAff/agreements.shtml. See Enrollment Management Services for assistance in completing this section.

- List of other California State University campuses currently offering or projecting a. the proposed degree major program; list of neighboring institutions, public or private, currently offering the proposed degree major program.
- b. Differences between the proposed program and programs listed in a. above.
- C. List of other curricula currently offered by the campus which are closely related to the proposed program. Enrollment figures during the past three years in specified courses or programs closely related to the proposed degree major program. If a formal minor, option or concentration is offered in the proposed subject area, indicate the number of students enrolled.<sup>5</sup>
- d. Results of a formal survey in the geographical area to be served indicating demand for individuals who have earned the proposed degree and evidence of serious student interest in majoring in the proposed program. Justify any discrepancies between national/statewide/professional manpower surveys and local findings.6
- е. For graduate programs, the number of declared undergraduate majors and the degree production over the preceding three years for the corresponding baccalaureate program.<sup>7</sup>
- f. Professional uses of the proposed degree major program.
- The expected number of majors in the year of initiation and three years and five g. years thereafter. The expected number of graduates in the year of initiation and three years and five years thereafter.<sup>8</sup>

3. Existing Support Resources for the Proposed Degree Major Program

- Faculty members, with rank, appointment status, highest degree earned, date а. and field of highest degree, and professional experience (including publications if the proposal is for a graduate degree), who would teach in the proposed program.
- b. Space and facilities that would be used in support of the proposed program. Show how this space is currently used and what alternate arrangements, if any, will be made for the current occupants.
- Library resources to support the program, specified by subject areas, volume С. count, periodical holdings, etc.<sup>9</sup>
- d. Equipment and other specialized materials currently available.<sup>10</sup>

&lt;sup>10</sup> Instructions to Program Proposer: See Instructional and Information Technology Services (IITS) for a report addressing information technology and academic computing resources available to support the program. Programs currently possessing additional equipment and specialized material not addressed in the IITS report should include these here.

4. Additional Support Resources Required

- a. Complete Table I, enrollment and faculty positions should be shown for all discipline categories which will increase because of the new program and for all discipline categories which will decrease because of the new program. If faculty positions are to be transferred into the new program from other areas, the reductions in faculty positions should be shown in the appropriate discipline category.<sup>11</sup>
- b. Any special characteristics of the additional faculty or staff support positions needed to implement the proposed program.<sup>12</sup>
- c. The amount of additional lecture and/or laboratory space required to initiate and sustain the program over the next five years. Indicate any additional special facilities that will be required. If the space is under construction, what is the projected occupancy date? If the space is planned, indicate campuswide priority of the facility, capital outlay program priority, and projected date of occupancy.<sup>13</sup>
- d. Additional library resources needed. Indicate the commitment of the campus to purchase or borrow through inter-library loan these additional resources.<sup>14</sup>
- e. Additional equipment or specialized materials that will be 1) needed to implement the program and 2) needed during the first two years after initiation. Indicate source of funds and priority to secure these resource needs.<sup>15</sup>

5. Abstract of the Proposal and Proposed Catalog Description<sup>16</sup>

6. Additional CSUSM New Program Requirements

- a. Complete Table II, indicating the courses in which the student learning outcomes are addressed.<sup>17</sup>
- b. Provide an initial assessment plan for the program. The data collected via this assessment plan will be the basis of the first program review (generally scheduled five years after program implementation).<sup>18</sup>
- c. (For undergraduate degrees) Attach a sample schedule showing how a student beginning as a first-time freshman at CSUSM could fulfill all graduation requirements in four years.<sup>19</sup>

- d. Attach a proposed course offering plan for the first three years of program implementation. Where possible, indicate likely faculty teaching assignments.
- e. Summarize the responses in items 4b-4e by completing the Table III below.<sup>20</sup>

COBA ## RETENTION, TENURE, AND PROMOTION (RTP) STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES

Revised and Ratified: 10/14/2005

I. ADHERENCE TO THE UNIVERSITY RTP POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- A. The College of Business Administration (CoBA) uses the same definitions, terms, and abbreviations as defined in the University RTP document.
- B. Provisions of this document are to be implemented in conformity with University RTP policies and procedures; the CSU Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), Articles 13, 14, 15; and the University Policy on Ethical Conduct. The candidate should note, particularly, University procedures that provide guidance on the working personnel action file (WPAF) and describe the responsibilities of the candidate in the review process.
- C. The CSUSM RTP document specifies a role of departments and chairs in the retention, tenure, and promotion policy in accordance with the CBA. In its present form, CoBA is organized into departments with designated department chairs who have administrative and program responsibilities. Thus, the College of Business Faculty have agreed that the standards set forth in this CoBA Retention, Tenure and Promotion Document provide the following:
- 19 1. The academic unit reviewing the candidate's file will be a department 20 specific Peer Review Committee.
- 22 2. Whereas the CSUSM RTP document states that departments may specify 23 standards for retention, tenure and promotions, CoBA Faculty designate the standards set forth in 24 this document as the standard for all departments within CoBA until such time as departments 25 wish to create separate standards.
- 3. Department chairs may make separate recommendations. Such recommendations shall be forwarded to subsequent levels of review. If the chair makes a separate recommendation, he/she shall not participate as a member of the peer committee (see University RTP policy; CBA Articles 15.19, 15.34).
- 31 32 II. GUIDING PRIN
- 33

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- A. The performance areas that shall be evaluated include teaching, scholarship, and service. While there will be diversity in the contributions of faculty members to the University, CoBA recognizes that teaching, scholarship and service are all central to the institution, therefore, faculty members must submit a curriculum vita and narrative statements describing the summary of teaching, research and service for the review period. The faculty member must meet the minimum standards in each of the three areas
- B. Retention, tenure, and promotion decisions are made on the basis of the evaluation of individual performance. Candidates are responsible for 1) becoming familiar with

- 44 the standards; 2) understanding the standards; 3) engaging in activities that meet the standards and 45 4) effectively communicating how they have met the standards. Sound advice and counsel by 46 tenured faculty can significantly contribute to the achievement of the highest level of individual 47 performance. Candidates are encouraged to avail themselves of such advice and counsel. 48 49 C. Activities counted and assessed in one area of performance shall not be duplicated in any other area of performance evaluation. 50 51 52 Candidates for retention will show effectiveness in each area of performance and D. 53 demonstrate progress toward meeting the tenure requirements in the areas of teaching, scholarship 54 and service. 55 56 E. Candidates for the rank of associate professor require an established record of effectiveness in teaching, nationally recognized scholarship and service to the University. 57 58 59 F. Candidates for the rank of professor require, in addition to continued effectiveness, 60 an established record of initiative and leadership in teaching, scholarship, and service to the University, the profession and the community. Promotion to the rank of professor will be based on 61 62 the record of the individual since he/she was promoted to the rank of associate professor. 63 64 G. The granting of tenure at any rank recognizes accomplishments and services 65 performed by the faculty member during his/her career. The record must show sustained and continuous activities and accomplishments. The granting of tenure is an expression of confidence 66 that the faculty member has both the commitment to and the potential for continued development 67 68 and accomplishment throughout his/her career. Tenure will be granted only to individuals whose 69 record meets the standards required to earn promotion to the rank at which the tenure will be 70 granted. 71 The recommending of early tenure (prior to the  $6^{th}$  year in rank) is considered an 72 H. 73 exception. An individual should have a minimum of three years of service at CSUSM. A positive 74 recommendation requires that the candidate's record clearly exceeds the articulated standards for 75 the granting tenure and that the record demonstrates a sustained level of accomplishment at CSUSM in all areas. 76 77 78 I. Faculty who are hired at an advanced rank without tenure may apply for tenure after 79 two years of service at CSUSM (i.e., in Fall of their third year at CSUSM). A positive recommendation requires that the candidate's record at CSUSM clearly demonstrates a continued 80 81 level of accomplishment in all areas and, together with the candidate's previous record, satisfies the articulated standards for the granting of tenure at the Faculty member's rank. 82 83 84 III. STANDARDS AND CRITERIA FOR TEACHING 85 86 A. For retention, tenure, and promotion, College faculty members are expected to demonstrate effective teaching. "Effective teaching" is instructional activity in support of the 87 88 College Mission and is demonstrated by information in the teaching portfolio section of the WPAF. 89 90 B. "Teaching" includes instructional activity such as the following:

140	At the Assistant Professor level, evidence of effective teaching that meets
141	standards includes but is not limited to: student evaluations that are typical of CoBA Assistant
142	Professors for the types of courses taught and grades given, syllabi that articulate course objectives
143	and requirements, assignments that help students accomplish the course objectives, and evaluation
144	criteria that reflect how successfully students accomplish the course objectives. While not
145	required, evidence of teaching effectiveness may include documentation of course, curriculum, or
146	program development.
147
148	2. Promotion from Associate Professor to Professor
149
150	As more experienced faculty, Associate Professors being considered for
151	promotion to Professor are held to a higher standard than described in the preceding section.
152	Accordingly, to be rated meets standards , a candidate at the Associate Professor level is expected to
153	provide evidence of course, curriculum, or program development activities in addition to
154	documentation of teaching performance that is typical of experienced CoBA faculty for the types of
155	courses taught. (Also see Section II. F.)
156
157	3. Retention
158
159	Candidates for retention are to include the required items for courses taught
160	and additional optional materials in their teaching portfolio to show evidence of efforts and
161	effectiveness in teaching. As a formative evaluation, candidates will be evaluated on their activities
162	to enhance and improve teaching effectiveness.

174	over the entire period of the review.
174	over the entite period of the review.
176	1. It is essential to the University's Mission that each faculty member
170	demonstrate continued commitment, dedication, and growth as a scholar. Faculty seeking
177	promotion are expected to provide evidence of a continual record of quality scholarship. In all
178	cases, scholarship results in dissemination of that knowledge or understanding beyond the
180	classroom.
180
181	2. Scholarship must be in the field of Business/Management or a related
182	discipline and may be basic, applied, integrative, and/or pedagogical.

 234 from Assistant to Associate. Only publications since the last promotion shall be considered for this 235 promotion. (Also see Section II. F.)
 236

3. Retention: Candidates for retention may include documentation from Category C (in addition to A and B) to show effectiveness in performance and demonstrate progress toward meeting the tenure requirements in the area of scholarship.

4. Tenure: Candidates for tenure who are not requesting a promotion in rank must meet the scholarship standards for their current rank as specified in Sections IV C 1 and 2, and have demonstrated a continual record of quality scholarship.

V. STANDARDS AND CRITERIA FOR SERVICE ACTIVITIES

247 For retention, tenure and promotion, College faculty members are expected to A. 248 demonstrate a record of effective service contributions, both internally and externally. Service activities will be evaluated based on the quality of the service and its relevance to the College and 249 University Missions. Each faculty member is expected to participate in service activities; however, 250 251 the appropriate mix and magnitude of service will vary with the faculty member's rank. Assistant professors are expected to participate primarily in internal service activities whereas Associate and 252 Full professors are expected to participate in both internal and external activities and in leadership 253 roles. Attendance at meetings is expected but attendance alone is not sufficient to demonstrate 254 significant contribution. 255

256 257 B. Service activities may include, but are not limited to the following: 258 259 1. Internal Service Activities 260 261 a. additional focus on the critical study of the history of media and/or the applied use of media in presenting history to the public. Historians have always used various forms of media to communicate information about the past and they have always taken advantage of advances in media technology to teach the public about its history. Currently, new media technology is revolutionizing how history is taught and how the stories of the past are conveyed to the public. The CSUSM program will offer students opportunities to

- explore media as they have changed over time, beginning with the earliest oral and visual forms of
- 37 historical communication through the rise of modern electronic media and computer technology.
- 38 Students pursuing the Master of Arts in History will be required to take courses that develop their skills in
- 39 critically analyzing media as they relate to history and acquire skills in new media and/or technology to
- 40 convey historical information to the public.

42 This program is designed to provide students with a practical degree that prepares them for a variety of 43 post-graduate careers including: community college and post-credential teaching (enhanced by training in

44 history and the new media classroom); public history (including museumship, historical societies, and

- 45 electronic archives); media and journalism; doctoral education; urban planning; local, state, and city
- 46 governmental jobs; public service; and a number of other possibilities both in the public and private 47 sectors. The degree is designed to offer students the opportunity to practice their skills in the workplace. 48 Some students may elect to pursue the option of an internship in a public or private agency where their

- 49 training in historical content and media/technology can be practically applied. Additionally, the program,
- 50 in an effort to serve students who are interested in educational careers in history at the college level,
- 51 offers a curriculum that will allow them to explore pedagogical issues associated with history teaching
- 52 and to gain actual experience teaching history in college classrooms.
- 53

- 54 During their course of study, students will be required to master historiography, the philosophy of history,
- 55 specific historical topics, and acquire technical skills. All Master of Arts Degree candidates will take one
- 56 course in the critical study of the history of media and one course in applied media and history in which
- 57 they will produce a media-based project. This will consist of an applied media project from History 502,
- a seminar paper representative of one's best work, and either a thesis or media project which may
- 59 include, but is not limited to, web-based presentations of historical research or digital video presentations 60 of historical topics.

- 62 The Department of History at California State University, San Marcos is ideally situated to offer an
- 63 advanced degree in History. Located in Southern California with access to the Los Angeles and San
- 64 Diego areas, the Department of History can draw on the region's resources in the film and television
- 65 industries as well as the well-established computer and software industries connected with multi-media
- 66 production. The faculty of the Department of History offer a wide coverage of world areas and periods
- 67 including Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America, the Middle East, the United States, and
- 68 Comparative/World History. Additionally, the department houses faculty who have expertise in critical
- 69 historical media studies and in applying new media technology to preserving history and delivering
- 70 historical content. Building on these strengths, the Department of History at California State University,
- San Marcos is able to offer this unique degree that blends the benefits of the traditional history Master's program with an applied dimension in new technologies that are revolutionizing the communication of

75 Admission Requirements

All applicants to the M.A. in History program must meet both the admission requirements of the Department of History and the University requirements for graduate study. Applicants to the Master Program in History must have completed a Bachelor's degree from an accredited university in history or in an allied field with at least four upper-division courses in history. Furthermore, applicants must have completed History 301 (Historical Methods and Writing) or the equivalent before beginning graduate work. Applicants must have either met the CSUSM requirements for Computer Competency or the equivalent at another institution. Additional requirements for admission to the program are as follows:

- Overall minimum grade point average of 3.0 with a minimum grade point average of 3.0 in the undergraduate major.
- The General Test for the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). While the minimum acceptable score may vary year by year, it is unlikely that an applicant will be admitted with a score of less than 500 on the verbal section of the exam.
- TOEFL/TWE if appropriate with a minimum TOEFL score of 550 and of 4.5 on the TWE.
- Two sets of official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended with official verification of graduation.
- At minimum, three letters of recommendation that assess academic accomplishments and potential for graduate study.
- A 750-word statement of research intent describing historical fields of study including mention of interest and/or experience in media and technology, relevant educational background, and post-graduate career/educational objectives.
- One formal academic writing sample, as recent as possible. Preferably, this should be a sample from previous college or university coursework and should not be written simply for the purpose of admission.

 spaces will significantly limit spring admissions.

125 Degree Requirements

Students must complete 30 units of graduate study, 24 of which must be at the graduate level. Generally, none of the 30 units of course work applied to the Master of Arts degree in History may have been applied toward a previous academic degree, however, in some cases up to 6 graduate history units not earned at CSUSM may be applied by petition. (Only coursework done as a post-baccalaureate student will be considered for application toward the graduate degree.) All students are required to complete thecore sequence of graduate courses (History 601, History 501, History 502, History 620). Additionally, all 132 core sequence of graduate courses (History 601, History 501, History 502, History 620). Additionally, all 133 students are required to complete two semesters of thesis research and presentation (History 620: Directed) 134 Thesis Research, Writing, and Media Presentation). Students who do not complete their thesis project in 135 the first two semesters may register for additional semesters of History 620 but only two semesters (6 136 units) may count toward conferral of the degree. The remainder of the units will consist of 500 or 600

137 level courses in history but the department will allow up to two 400 level courses (6 units) to count towards the degree. Additionally, students may apply no more than 6 units of History 510 (Experiential Learning in Public History) or 6 units of History 699 (Advanced Independent Study in Historical Issues)

140 toward the degree, although they may register for additional semesters of these courses. 141

All the requirements for the degree are to be finished within five years after matriculation into the graduate program. Authorized leaves of absence do not extend the time limit for completion of the degree.

188 Advancement to Candidacy

185

187

190 All students must select a main thesis advisor from the tenure-track history faculty based on areas of 191 interest and planned thesis or media project. Students should consult regularly with their advisor 192 regarding course selection and research proposal. Students will also compose a committee of two 193 additional faculty members (at least one must be another member of the history faculty). A student must 194 request to be advanced to candidacy after completing 18 units. To be advanced to candidacy, the student must do the following:

- 195
- 196 197

198

- Form a thesis or media presentation committee and submit to the committee approval form with copies to committee members and the history graduate coordinator.
- Submit a thesis or media presentation proposal (750 words excluding working bibliography) to ٠ 200 committee members that states the topic, a working thesis, the nature of the project, and establishes that the project can be successfully completed.
  - Receive approval on the proposal from all committee members.

203 204 Thesis or Media Project Requirement 205

206 Students may opt either to complete the degree with a thesis or a media project. A thesis is comprised of 207 a primary source-based research paper that makes an original and substantial contribution to historical 208 scholarship. The thesis will also demonstrate an appropriate grasp of the secondary materials related to 209 the topic under investigation.

211 Alternatively, students may submit a media project that applies new media techniques to the delivery of a 212 primary source-based research project. In this instance, students will prepare a New Media presentation

- 213 (i.e. a substantial website project, a video or film project, a digitized database, or an archival project) that

214 will be accompanied by a written analysis that discusses the media project and demonstrates how the 215 project both exhibits the appropriate grasp of related secondary materials as well as makes an original, primary source-based contribution. 216 218 I. #### TITLE OF DEGREE PROGRAM: Master of Arts in History

Enter a brief summary of the purpose of this proposal,

The purpose of this proposal is to seek approval for a Master of Arts in History to begin in Fall 2006. The Department of History has designed a program which will address a variety of student needs and demands. Both surveys of potential students and employers have demonstrated strong interest in our planned degree. Additionally, our degree is planned to require an applied component and encourage students to develop skills in new media technology to research, preserve, and deliver historical content to the public. This would be the first program of its nature west of the Mississippi and the third in the nation to offer an advanced history degree with a technological component.

Does this proposal impact other disciplines? X Yes No

This proposal may slightly impact the departments of Communication and Visual and Performing Arts in that our students may want to take electives in those fields. However, our program is focused on History and only brings in new media technology as a tool to preserve and convey history. We will draw on department strengths in offering this applied component and the new hire that is slated in the blueprint for this program.

If yes, obtain signature(s). Any objections should be stated in writing and attached to this form.

California State University San Marcos Resolution to endorse the SDSU Senate Resolution Concerning the Recent CSU Board of Trustees Decision to Augment Compensation for Top Administrators

WHEREAS, The CSU Board of Trustees has recently authorized compensation increases for the top administrators within the CSU out of proportion to the raises given to the faculty and staff of the CSU; and

WHEREAS, The announcement of these large administrative compensation increases coincided with the announcement of a substantial raise in student fees; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Academic Senate of Cal State San Marcos endorses the attached SDSU Senate resolution concerning the recent CSU Board of Trustees Decision to Augment Compensation for Top Administrators.

San Diego State University Senate

Resolution Concerning the Recent CSU Board of Trustees Decision to Augment Compensation for Top Administrators

Whereas, the CSU Board of Trustees has authorized compensation increases for the top administrators within the CSU including (a) a 13.5% raise in salary for each of the next five consecutive years (which amounts to a 49.5% increase, with projected inflation included), (b) a $60,000 per year housing allotment, and (c) a monthly automobile allowance of $1,000 for the presidents, the executive vice chancellor and chief financial officer, the vice chancellor of human resources and the general counsel;

Whereas the CSU Board of Trustees has authorized a 3.5% general salary increase for faculty for this year;

Whereas all parties agree that faculty salaries in the CSU lag 13.1% behind those at comparable institutions;

Whereas the well-being of the CSU depends upon the health of its faculty, much more so than upon a generously compensated top administration;

Whereas, to add injury to our students while further impeding the faculty, the CSU Board of Trustees plans to increase student fees 90% in order to close the salary gap for faculty in the CSU, a student fee increase beyond the 90% fee increases already sustained by our students over the past three-and-a-half years and one designed to pit the economic interests of our students against ours;

RESOLVED that the SDSU University Senate strongly urge the CSU Board of Trustees to offer average compensation increases to administrators that are equal in dollar amounts (and not in percentages) to no more than the average compensation increases offered to faculty members (again, in dollar amounts);

RESOLVED that the SDSU Senate strongly urge the CSU Board of Trustees to close any administrative salary gaps only after having closed the longstanding and unmitigated salary gaps for faculty members;

RESOLVED that the SDSU University Senate admonishes the CSU Board of Trustees that its proposed "plan" of closing the CPEC gap by raising student fees by an additional 90% is unacceptable, and that a moratorium on student fee/tax increases should be instituted in AY 2006/07; and

RESOLVED that the SDSU University Senate send copies of this resolution to Governor Schwarzenegger, members of the California Legislature, Assembly Speaker Nunez, Chancellor Reed, CSU Board of Trustees, CFA President John Travis, Presidents of all CFA Chapters, Chair of the CSU Academic Senate, and Chairs of all CSU Campus Academic Senates.

- 1 5 December 2005
- 2 Dear Executive Committee and Academic Senators,
- 3

4 In March 2005, the Library and Academic technology Advisory Committee (LATAC)

- 5 was formally charged by the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate to
- 6 recommend a policy concerning intellectual property rights for faculty specific to the
- 7 CSUSM campus. The committee did so and proposed Intellectual Property Policy for
- 8 Faculty (LATAC 279-04) to the Academic Senate last spring. The Academic Senate then
- 9 passed the policy. The policy then went to the administration for comment. LATAC
- 10 reviewed those comments and suggestions and has revised the policy and now proposes a
- 11 revised policy, Intellectual Property Policy For Faculty On Copyright And Fair Use
- 12 (LATAC 279-05).
- 13
- One concern the administration expressed was whether an Intellectual Property Rights Policy should also include a section on patent rights. In LATAC 279-04, patent rights
- 15 Poncy should also include a section on patent rights. In LATAC 2/9-04, patent rights
- 16 were only addressed by way of definition. The administration said LATAC should clarify
- 17 whether 279-04 should cover copyright and/or patent policy. We have clarified our policy
- 18 to focus only on copyright policy and fair use, as this is what falls within our oversight
- 19 and advisory capacity. We also eliminated references to patent policy this does not fall
- 20 within our oversight and advisory capacity.
- 21

However, we would like to suggest that a special task force be charged with this task and that said taskforce be comprised of faculty representatives from disciplines that would be impacted by the policy such as biotechnology, business, math and computer science and

- 25 possibly others. Further having crafted this revised policy and its predecessor; we would
- 26 like to suggest to future taskforce members a couple of documents that might be helpful.
- 27 We found the CSU's Academic Senate proposed policy on intellectual property rights
- 28 (passed by Senate) as well as CSU San Bernardino's proposed IP policy and those of
- 29 CSU Chico to be quite helpful to us in drafting our policy and there are sections of or
- 30 related policies that also deal with patent rights. Please contact LATAC Co-chair Pamela
- 31 Stricker for links to these documents.
- 32
- 33 Respectfully,
- 34
- 35 LATAC Committee Members

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY FOR FACULTY ON COPYRIGHT AND FAIR USE<sup>1</sup>

LATAC

December 5, 2005

40 41

42 Historical Background

43

In March 2005, the Library and Academic Technology Advisory Committee (LATAC)
was charged by the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate to recommend a policy concerning intellectual property rights for faculty that is specific to the CSUSM campus.
In Spring 2005 the Academic Senate passed an earlier version of this policy. The President, Provost, and other administrators of CSUSM then commented on this document and raised some concerns. This document is the LATAC's response and

- 50 revisions to the Spring 2005 policy.
- 51

52 I Purpose

53

The purpose of this document is to state the CSUSM (hereafter referred to as the University) policy regarding ownership of intellectual property on copyright and fair use as it pertains to the University and its faculty. The policy applies only to copyright and fair use of intellectual property created as part of a faculty member's normal bargaining unit work or that employs substantial University resources (i.e., more than an office telephone or office computer for e-mail). Intellectual property created outside a faculty

60 member's normal bargaining unit work that does not employ substantial university

- 61 resources does not fall under the purview of this policy.
- 62

63 This policy acknowledges that issues of intellectual property on copyright and fair use are 64 complex and that individual circumstances may affect establishment of ownership. Three 65 factors have been identified by the Consortium for Educational Technology for 66 University Systems (C.E.T.U.S.) as important for determining ownership: creation, 67 control, and comparation. This policy provides a framework for assigning current in in

67 control, and compensation. This policy provides a framework for assigning ownership in

- situations where intellectual property rights on copyright and fair use would not reside solely with the creator. The Academic Senate of the CSU has created a comprehensive
- solely with the creator. The Academic Senate of the CSU has created a comprehensive policy statement on Intellectual Property Policy.<sup>2</sup> This policy is intended to be consistent
- 70 policy statement on intellectual Property Policy. This policy is intended to be consistent 71 with said policy and existing copyright law and collective bargaining provisions. This
- 72 policy shall be re-examined periodically and revised by the University as necessary.

<sup>2</sup>Intellectual Property, Fair Use, and the Unbundling of Ownership Rights, The Academic Senate of the CSU, Resolution AS-2605-03/AA/FA - March 6-7, 2003, accessed online at http://www.calstate.edu/AcadSen/Records/Resolutions/2002-2003/2605.shtml

76 a) Creator

77

The creator(s) is the author(s) who puts the intellectual property material into a fixed tangible medium of expression. The creator may also have originated the intellectual property material.

81

82 b) Intellectual Property

83

Intellectual property refers to materials that can be copyrighted, patented, or trademarked.
These materials include scholarly and literary works, creative and artistic works, software, data and databases; multimedia works, electronic media and communications, and as otherwise defined by federal law. Certain discoveries and inventions, including trade secrets and know-how, may not be patentable but may have material commercial value or potential as revenue producers. These accomplishments are subject to the same policy as any patentable invention.

91

92 c) Copyright

93

Copyright is a form of statutory protection granted to the creator of certain types of works fixed in a tangible medium of expression as an incentive for that creator and/or author to disseminate the work to the public. Copyright is applicable to computer software, 97 artwork, music, articles, books, and other literary works. Copyright protects the

98 expression of the idea but not the idea itself. Registration of a copyrightable work creates additional protection and is sometimes advisable. Registration is accomplished by 100 completing the necessary forms and filing them with the U.S. Copyright Office in101 Washington, D.C.

102

103 d) Fair Use

104

Fair use today is embodied in Section 107 of the U.S. Copyright Act, and it exemptslimited

107 uses of materials from infringement liabilities when that material is used for purposes of 108 teaching, research, and scholarship. The scope of the fair use right, depends on the four 109 statutory factors: 1) the purpose and character of the use, including whether such use is of 110 a commercial nature or is for nonprofit educational purposes; 2) the nature of the 111 copyrighted work; 3) the amount and substantiality of the portion used in relation to the 112 copyrighted work as a whole; and 4) the effect of the use upon the potential market for or

- 113 value of the copyrighted work.<sup>3</sup>
- 114

115

116 III General Policy on Intellectual Property Rights on Copyright and Fair Use 117 concerning Faculty

118

119 In accordance with collective bargaining agreements (faculty CBA article 39), our first 120 principle is that work produced by a faculty member at CSUSM in the course of normal 121 faculty bargaining unit work belongs to the faculty member unless the creation of the 122 work required extraordinary support from the University or an external organization. 123 Bargaining unit work includes, but is not limited to, scholarly papers, works of art, 124 syllabi, and course contents and material either in hard copy or electronic form (such as 125 WebCT). Exceptions to this principle include: (1) where the creator has been given a 126 specific assignment and University support to develop work beyond normal work 127 expectations, and (2) where the University and/or external organization has provided to 128 the creator extraordinary support or compensation. In these cases, copyright and fair use 129 rights may be solely owned by the University or an external organization or jointly 130 owned by the University and/or an external organization and the faculty member as 131 specified by agreement. Definitions and guidelines for these circumstances are described 132 below.

133

134 IV Specific Assignments and University Support

135 136 "Specific assignment" refers to work produced by a faculty member recruited by the 137 University to produce that particular work and for which resources and/or compensation 138 are provided under an express agreement. In these cases, the copyright may be owned by 139 the University or jointly owned by the University and the faculty member. In cases of 140 specific assignments, ownership of intellectual property rights on copyright and fair use 141 shall be determined before the work begins. A standard Intellectual Property Rights on 142 Copyright and Fair Use agreement form, which entitles the creator to exercise certain 143 rights without permission, (see section VI for more and Appendix A for the form). This 144 agreement will be completed and filed with the Provost before work begins.

146 V Extraordinary Support or Compensation from the University

147

The words "extraordinary support or compensation" refer to support provided for the creative efforts that represent resources beyond those available to members of the University community in the course of performing their normal work. The following are usually not considered products of extraordinary support or compensation: research, scholarship, and creative activities or works resulting from mini grants (such as departmental or Faculty Center research or travel grants) and/or sabbatical and difference in pay leaves.

155

156 Since "ordinary" and "extraordinary" support are general terms whose parameters are

157 subject to change over time, it is recommended that campus support organizations,

158 particularly the library and IITS, provide periodic reports with basic descriptions of what

159 would typically constitute ordinary and extraordinary levels of support from their units

160 for faculty to carry out their teaching and research.

- 161
- 162

All affected parties should consider the matter of copyright ownership before work begins or before extraordinary support is provided. They should also disclose potential products of the work before the negotiation of a contract and to complete and file an 166 Intellectual Property Rights Agreement form in order to avoid disputes over ownership ata later date.

168

169 VI University Ownership and Joint Ownership of Copyright

170

The copyright to administrative works created by faculty – ranging from committee minutes to curriculum studies – appropriately is owned by the University for its use in the advancement of its mission. Nevertheless, in the spirit of the "unbundling" of copyrights rights espoused here, the university may own the copyright, but the professor who created it should have appropriate rights to use the copyrighted expressions in other contexts,

176 particularly future projects of a similar nature, or to incorporate the material into

178

179 In cases where the University is the sole or joint owner of works created at CSUSM, the 180 individual designated by the University to negotiate intellectual property rights on

181 copyright and fair use with creators will discuss with the creator(s) of the work the

182 possibility of licensing certain rights to the creator, including, but not limited to, a

183 determination of the distribution of royalties and other compensation. As suggested by

- 184 C.E.T.U.S., examples may include:
- 186 •the right to make reproductions of the work to use in teaching, scholarship, and research;
- 187

•the right to make derivative works, such as translations, videotaped versions, film scripts, etc.

190

191 VII Extraordinary Support from an External Organization

In the case of work produced by faculty with extraordinary support from an external organization, the organization, the faculty member(s), and the University should consider the matter of copyright ownership before work begins or before extraordinary support is provided. They should also disclose potential products of the work before the negotiation of a contract and to complete and file an Intellectual Property Rights Agreement on Copyright and Fair Use form in order to avoid disputes over ownership at a later date.

199

200 VIII Group Work

201

In the case of work created jointly by a group of faculty, or faculty with students, all

203 parties should discuss the matter of copyright ownership before work begins or before extraordinary support is provided. They should also disclose potential products of the

- 205 work before the negotiation of a contract and to complete and file an Intellectual Property 206 Bights Agroament on Convright and Exis Use form in order to quoted disputes areas
- 206 Rights Agreement on Copyright and Fair Use form in order to avoid disputes over ownership at a later date.

IMPLEMENTATION
IX Procedures
The University will disclose this policy via a posting on the University Policies Web page and paper copies will be distributed to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs for further dissemination to the CSUSM constituents.
