COAS 300.4.5 RETENTION, TENURE, AND PROMOTION STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES

	Ratified: 11/18/91
1 2	I. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS AND ABBREVIATIONS
2	1. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS AND ADDREVIATIONS
4	The College of Arts and Sciences (CoAS) uses the same definitions, terms, and
5	abbreviations as defined in the University RTP document.
6	A. In the standards and procedures described by this document, "is" is informative,
7	"shall" is mandatory, "may" is permissive, "should" is conditional, and "will" is
8	intentional.
9
10	B. The following terms, important to understanding faculty policies and procedures
11	for retention, tenure, and promotion, are herein defined.
12
13	 Candidate - a faculty unit employee being evaluated for retention, tenure, or
14	promotion.
15
16
17	2 Dissipling a program with full time tanyor treak faculty positions
18 19	3. Discipline - a program with full-time tenure track faculty positions (including joint appointments) and those designated as Interdisciplinary.
20	(menuting joint appointments) and those designated as interdisciplinary.
20	4. Evaluation an assessment of a faculty member's performance. An
22	evaluation shall not include a recommendation for action.
23
24	5. Peer Review Committee - the committee of full-time faculty unit employees
25	whose purpose is to review and make recommendations on faculty unit
26	employees who are being considered for retention, tenure, and promotion.
27
28	6. Probationary Faculty - a full-time faculty unit employee appointed on a term
29	contract who is on a tenure track.
30
31	7. Promotion the advancement of a probationary or tenured faculty unit
32	employee who holds academic rank to a higher academic rank.
33 34	8 Pasammandation a position on the personnal action for which the faculty
34 35	8. Recommendation - a position on the personnel action for which the faculty unit employee is being considered. A recommendation shall state in writing
36	the reasons for the recommendation.
37	the reasons for the recommendation.
38	9. Retention - the decision to renew a contract at the probationary status.
39
40
41

42				11. Tenure - the right to continued permanent employment at the campus as a
43				faculty unit employee except when such employment is voluntarily
44				terminated or is terminated by the employer pursuant to the MOU or law.
45
46
47	II.	PRE	AMB	BLE
48
49		Thi	s doc	cument sets forth general standards and criteria for retention, tenure, and promotion
50				me faculty in the College of Arts and Sciences. The provisions of this document
51				ided to be implemented in conformity with University-wide RTP policies, and may
52		be complemented and refined by disciplinary documents that further specify standards,
53				and expectations of performance.
54		•110
55	Ш	GUI	DIN	G PRINCIPLES
56		001
57		A	GEI	NERAL GUIDING PRINCIPLES
58			0Li
59			1.	All standards and criteria should reflect the University Mission, Vision and
60			1.	Values Statement and advance the goals embodied in that statement, including the
61				following:
62				ionowing.
63				• That students be "taught by active scholars and artists."
64				That statemes be "taught by derive senorars and artists.
65				• That student learning be enhanced through "sustained excellence in
66				teaching, research, and community partnerships."
67				eaching, research, and community partnersinps.
68				• That "individual and cultural diversity, and multiple perspectives" be
69				promoted and endorsed.
70				promoted and endorsed.
70				• That the education of students include dedication to the values of intellectual
72				engagement, community, integrity, innovation, and inclusiveness.
73				engagement, community, integrity, innovation, and metusiveness.
73 74			2	The three performance areas that shall be evaluated, scholarshipresearch/creative
75			2.	activity, instructionteaching, and service, are integral faculty activities. While
76				recognizing instructionteaching as a central institutional mission, the College and
70 77				disciplinary standards and criteria should recognize the diversity of each faculty
77 78				member's contribution to the University. While the College affirms the university-
78 79
				wide requirement of sustained high quality performance in all areas, it encourages
80 81				flexibility in the relative emphasis placed on each of the three performance areas.
				The College respects and allows diversity of contribution in individual attainment
82				of the expected level of overall performance.
83 84			2	The evolution of feaulty performance in the grass of instruction teaching
84 85			3.	The evaluation of faculty performance in the areas of instructionteaching ,
85 86				scholarship research /creative activity, and service must be done in the context of
86 87				the University's level of development. Methods of performance assessment for
87				scholarshipresearch/creative activity, instructionteaching, and service shall be

88 89		clearly specified and uniformly applied to all faculty. Activities assessed in one area of performance shall not be duplicated in any other area of performance
90		evaluation.
91 92 93 94 95		4. As specified in the CBA, faculty have the right to clearly articulated performance expectations at all levels and stages of the RTP process. The RTP process should be simultaneously evaluative and developmental and be carried out in a cooperative, collaborative environment.
96 97 98 99 100 101 102 103		5. Retention, tenure, and promotion decisions are made on the basis of evaluation of individual performance, and ultimate responsibility for meeting all standards and criteria rests with the candidate. Sound advice and counsel by tenured faculty can significantly contribute to the achievement of the highest level of individual performance and should be available. Candidates may choose whether to avail themselves of such advice and counsel.
104 105	B.	STANDARDS APPLIED IN DIFFERENT TYPES OF DECISIONS
106 107 108 109 110		1. It is expected that candidates for retention at the rank of assistant professor will show increasing effectiveness in each area of performance and demonstrate consistent progress toward meeting the tenure requirements in the areas of instructionteaching, scholarshipresearch/creative activity, and service.
111 112 113 114 115		2. Promotion to the rank of associate professor requires an established record of effectiveness in instructionteaching, scholarlyresearch/creative achievements, and involvement in service activities that enhance the institution and the profession.
116 117 118 119		3. Promotion to the rank of professor requires evidence of continued commitment to and effectiveness in instructionteaching , service to the University and/or the profession, and evidence of substantial achievement in scholarlyresearch /creative activities.
120 121 122 123 124 125 126 127 128		4. The granting of tenure at any rank recognizes accomplishments and services performed during the probationary years. Further, the granting of tenure is an expression of confidence that the faculty member has both the commitment to and the potential for continued development and accomplishment throughout his/her career. Tenure should ordinarily not be granted to individuals whose record does not meet the standards required to earn promotion to the rank at which the tenure will be granted.
129 130	IV. STAN	IDARDS AND CRITERIA
131 132		INSTRUCTIONTEACHING
132

134 135 136 137 138 139 140 141 142 143 144 145	1.	The central, although not exclusive, mission of the faculty is to enable students to comprehend and to utilize knowledge through scholarly intellectual activity that is both challenging and encouraging. Quality instructionteaching requires continual crafting and dedication. Toward that end faculty are expected to learn about pedagogy, to carefully consider how to teach as well as what to teach. Faculty members are expected to strengthen continually their teaching skills continually and to demonstrate overall effectiveness in-scholarly instruction at the undergraduate and/or graduate level. Toward this end, faculty are encouraged in every way to cultivate and maintain useful, innovative, and stimulating instructional techniques, in consultation with mentoring peers and to be mindful of the conclusions and recommendations of evaluating entities.
146	2.	Probationary and tenured faculty are expected to set clear expectations of success
147		and to instruct with the assumption that all students can learn. Faculty should
148		involve students actively in the learning process and employ various instructional
149		techniques. Faculty should adapt their instructional methods to reach and to
150		encourage the participation of all segments of a diversethe student body. Faculty
151		should emphasize practices known to be effective at increasing substantially the
152		participation of women, underrepresented groups, and the disabled in the learning
153		process.
154	2
155	3.	Instructional Teaching activities include, but are not limited to:
156		1
157		classroom teaching
158 159		laboratory teaching
159
161		• studio teaching
162		studio touching
163		• conducting seminars
164
165		• supervision of field work, independent research, and library research
166
167		• training and supervision of teaching and graduate assistants
168
169		• individual consultation with students concerning course related matters.
170
171	4.	While the elements of instructionteaching may vary among disciplines and
172		candidates, the evaluations of instructionalteaching performance should will
173		consider the scholarly content and currency of courses, classroom performance,
174		the incorporation of writing and critical thinking, efforts undertaken to improve
175		instructionteaching, the quality of advising, availability during office hours,
176		interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary activities, participation in course or
177		curriculum development, and pedagogical innovations.
178

179	5.	As outlined in the university RTP policy, the candidate must include a reflective
180		statement on their teaching. In addition, tThe following items may be included in
181		the reflective statement: a self evaluation, a statement of teaching philosophy,
182		reflections on student evaluations, discussion of the type of classes taught,;
183		discussion of collaboration in teaching, or a discussion of learning goals, and
184		activities, and methods for assessment.
185
186	5 6.	Evidence of instructional teaching performance in the supplemental fileWPAF
187	_	shallould include, but is not limited to, the following: -peer evaluations; student
188		evaluations for a minimum of two classes annually; a list of courses taught;
189		samples of instructional teaching materials, such as syllabi, examinations,
190		assignments, handouts, and other assessment tools , and handouts ; and descriptions
191		of new courses developed; and certificates of recognition for instruction.
192		Additionally, the supplemental file may include:
192		Additionally, the supplemental me may mendee.
194		• Selected, representative course materials, such as assignments, examinations,
195		handouts.
196		nundouts.
190		• Information about the direction/supervision of independent study/research
197		projects, graduate theses, etc. Limit of one (1) paragraph regarding each.
198		projects, graduate meses, etc. Emit of one (1) paragraph regarding each.
200		• Statements from colleagues who have observed the candidate in the classroom
200		or who have systematically reviewed the candidate's course materials.
201 202		of who have systematically reviewed the candidate's course materials.
202 203		Information concerning the condidate's nonformation of a faculty advisor (a c
203 204		• Information concerning the candidate's performance as a faculty advisor (e.g.,
204 205		notes/letters from students, letters from faculty who are in a position to judge the condidate's performance as an advisor). The outhors of such documents
203 206		the candidate's performance as an advisor). The authors of such documents must be identified by name ($M \cap H \cap CPA$ 15.16b)
208		must be identified by name (M.O.U. CBA 15.16b).
207 208		Information concorring honors or recognition related to instruction teaching
		• Information concerning honors or recognition related to instructionteaching
209 210		(e.g., distinguished teaching awards).
210		An audiotone on videotone of a nonnegentative class session
		• An audiotape or videotape of a representative class session.
212		Statements from alumni addressing the condidate's quality of teaching/advising
213		• Statements from alumni addressing the candidate's quality of teaching/advising.
214		The authors of these documents must be identified by name ($\underline{M.O.UCBA}$
215		15.16b)
216
217		• Examples of graded student work showing excellent, average, and poor work,
218		along with the professor's comments as to why they were so graded.
219		Any additional information not included in the normative (a.g., decomposition of
220		• Any additional information not included in the narrative (e.g., documentation of
221		professional development related to pedagogy).
222
223	€ / .	Limitations that may be relevant for the faculty's effectiveness in
224		instructionteaching (e.g., limited library and laboratory resources, limited

225 226 227 228		availability of audiovisual, computing, and other nonprint materials, and the need to teach courses outside one's area of expertise) shall be taken into account when evaluating performance in this area.
229	B.	RESEARCH/CREATIVE ACTIVITY
230 231 232 233 234 235 236		1. It is essential to the University's mission that each faculty member demonstrate continued commitment, dedication, and growth as a scholar and/or creative artist. In all cases, scholarshipresearch/creative activity results in an original contribution to knowledge or understanding in the field and includes the dissemination of that knowledge beyond the classroom.
237 238 239 240 241 242 243 244		2. Research/creative activity may be basic, applied, integrative, and/or related to instructionteaching. The relative weights given to scholarlyresearch/creative contributions in each of these areas may vary across disciplines. Similarly, the nature of the expected scholarlyresearch/creative contributions will vary across disciplines. Each discipline shall clearly specify in its personnel document those activities that are appropriate indicators of scholarship/creative activity for its faculty.
245		3. Research/creative activity includes, but is not limited to:
246 247		• publications in refereed journals
248 249		• publications in refereed conference proceedings
250 251		• published book chapters, books, music, scripts, poetry
252
253 254		• scholarly editing and/or reviewing
255		translating into other languages or media
256 257		• artistic presentations, performances, recitals, or exhibits
258		ansite presentations, performances, rectails, or exhibits
259		• films, videos, or other media projects
260 261		• research published on digital media
262		• research published on digital media
263		• presentations at professional meetings
264
265 266		• pedagogic research and exposition, or materials development
260 267		• demonstration of creative work for peer review
268
269 270		applied research
270

271			• grant activity (funded grants, proposals)
272
273			computer software development
274
275			• documented, active participation in specialized colloquia, seminars, symposia,
276			or conferences
277
278			• fellowships, awards, or honors
279
280			• evidence of research or creative activity evidence in progress
280			• Evidence of research of creative activity evidence in progress
281			references of a book insural article management or conference non-
			• refereeing of a book, journal article, monograph, or conference papers
283		4
284		4.	Measurement of scholarly/creative achievements should always include
285			evaluation by professional persons in a position to assess the quality of the
286			contribution to the field. Professional evaluation includes, but is not limited to,
287			acceptance of a scholarly or creative work by an editorial board or jury. In all
288			cases, quality of scholarly/creative achievements should be evaluated.
289
290		5.	In the development of its Standards, each discipline shall take into account those
291			inherent limitations of the developmental stage of the University that may be
292			relevant for its faculty's scholarly/creative achievements.
293
293 294	C.	SER	RVICE
294	C.	SER	RVICE
294 295	C.
294 295 296	C.	SER 1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both
294 295 296 297	C.		The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In
294 295 296 297 298	C.		The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be
294 295 296 297 298 299	C.		The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such
294 295 296 297 298 299 300	C.		The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301	C.		The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302	C.		The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance.
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 303	C.		The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance.
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance.
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered contributed to the service rendered contributed to
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered contributed to the University's mission, and the appropriateness of the service to the faculty
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered contributed to the University's mission, and the appropriateness of the service to the faculty member's rank.
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 —	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service to the faculty member's rank. Evaluation of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered,
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service to the faculty member's rank. Evaluation of service shall include evaluation of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered contributed to the University's mission.
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 —	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service to the faculty member's rank. Evaluation of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered,
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311	C.	1.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service to the faculty member's rank. Evaluation of service shall include evaluation of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered contributed to the University's mission.
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311 312	C.	1. 2. 3.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service to the faculty member's rank. Evaluation of service shall include evaluation of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the guality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered contributed to the University's mission.
294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311 312 313	C.	1. 2. 3.	The College views activities that enhance the institution and the profession, both locally and nationally, as integral components of faculty service responsibility. In a growing institution such as CSUSM, service endeavors can prove to be immense and deserve to be evaluated with consideration for the demands of such undertakings. Not only should the contributions' value be considered, but so also should the effect of the level of service contribution on other scholarly and instructional areas of performance. While the magnitude of service rendered may vary, in each instance the evaluation of service must be guided by the quality of that service and its relevance to the University's mission. of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service to the faculty member's rank. Evaluation of service shall include evaluation of the quality of service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, and the appropriateness of the university's mission, and the appropriateness of the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, and the appropriateness of the service rendered, the appropriateness of the service rendered, the extent to which the service rendered, the extent to the University's mission, and the appropriateness of the service to the faculty member's rank.

316	• membership and offices held on committees, governing bodies, and task
317	forces at the Department/ Program, College, and University level.
318	. membership and offices held on committees, editorial bounds, metassional
319	• membership and offices held on committees, editorial boards, professional
320	advisory boards, external review teams, governing bodies, and task forces at
321	the local, national, and international level.
322	oon av laantskin to oon muunity, on oon in stigns
323	consultantship to community organizations
324	a materianal computantshing of a compiler nature
325 326	• professional consultantships of a service nature
320 327	• correction as foculty advisor to student organizations
328	• service as faculty advisor to student organizations
329	• mentoring of faculty and/or students
330	• mentoring of faculty and/of students
331	• advising a student group
332	• advising a student group
333	• administrative activities such as scheduling, program coordination, or other
334	special assignments
335	special assignments
336	• offices held and participation in professional organizations
337	• offices field and participation in professional organizations
338	• lectures, presentations, performances or displays given to community groups,
339	or schools
340
341	• organizing regional or national conferences, workshops, or seminars
342
343	• service award, fellowship or honor
344
345	• editing of a journal, book, or monograph
346
347	• refereeing of a book, journal article, monograph, conference
348
349	• op-ed pieces, letters to the editor, radio and TV interviews
350
351	45. Documentation of service may include, but shall not be limited to:
352
353	• a list/description of service to the community, university, college, department,
354	or discipline
355
356	• evaluation by fellow committee members regarding quality of service provided
357
358	 documents, reports or other evidence of committee service
359
360	• letters from appropriate organizers, officers, panel chairs, editors or similar
361	officials of regional or national organizations/publications with which the

362	candidate was involved as an officer, speaker, panelist, external reviewer,
363	referee, consultant, visiting lecturer, etc.
364
365	• letters from community members who are in a position to comment on the
366	candidate's contributions, such as those who invited the candidate to speak or
367	worked with the candidate on a project
368
369	 meeting agendas or programs
370
371	• programs or fliers describing the event and/or listing the participants
372
373	• awards made for the service (e.g., certificates, plaques)
374
375	 newspaper clippings
376
377	• videotapes
378
379	• audiotapes
380
381

APP Resolution on Qualifications of Originators of Course and Program Proposals

Whereas, The curriculum is within the purview of the faculty; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that any changes to, deletions, or additions to curriculum must have a faculty member as originator.