A Conversation with Gary Rhoades

General Secretary of the American Association of University Professors

Wednesday, October 28, 2009

5 p.m., Arts 111, CSUSM

"I think it is clear that...the corporate model is a rejection not just of the mechanisms of shared governance, but also of its very principles. It is a rejection of the need for and benefit of the deliberation, chaos, and compromise of shared governance exercises. It is also a rejection of the faculty's basic responsibility for a range of educational and curricular decisions, and of their right to share co-equally in decisions about academic programs and quality."

- Gary Rhoades, Democracy and Capitalism, Academic Style: Governance in Contemporary Higher Education

Sponsored by the California Faculty Association, CSUSM Chapter

Individuals with disabilities, who would like to attend this event, please contact Alex at (760) 750-4991 regarding any special accommodation needs. It is requested that individuals requiring auxiliary aids such as sign language interpreters and alternative format materials notify the event sponsor at least seven working days in advance. Every reasonable effort will be made to provide reasonable accommodations in an effective and timely manner.

1 SAC - Student Absence from Class for University Events and Religious Observances
2 Policy & Procedure
3 Approved by SAC—October 1, 2009

4
5 Definition: Provides a means for students to request reasonable accommodations from instructors for 6 official university events and religious observances.

7
8 Authority: Academic Affairs

9
10 Scope: The Student Absence from Class for University Events and Religious Observances Policy applies to 11 students who are members of teams, organizations, or classes officially recognized by the university. The 12 policy provides a means for students to notify their instructors of potential conflicts between class dates and 13 required events, and for instructors to convey to students and sponsoring organizations any concerns about 14 the student's completion of course requirements.

15
16 Policy: CSUSM provides a fair opportunity for students to attend required courses in a manner that allows
17 them to participate in the requirements of their sponsored activities and religious beliefs.

18
19 Procedures:

20
21 I. Absence for Official University Events and Activities:

22 A. Official university events and activities such as fine arts performances, forensics, and other
23 academic competitions supported by the university require participation by students as official
24 members of groups. Responsibilities shall be as follows:

- 25 1. Sponsoring Departments or Programs: A sponsor of an official university event or 26 activity shall provide each student participant with a memorandum regarding specific 27 absences from classes. The memorandum shall be given to the student's instructors within the 28 first week of classes. If scheduling changes occur, the sponsor shall provide the student with 29 a revised memorandum to be given to instructors.
- 30 2. Student Participants: Within the first week of classes, a student who expects to be part 31 of an official athletic vent shall notify the instructors of affected courses. At that time, the 32 student shall request accommodation for any missed examinations or other assignments. If 33 scheduling changes occur, the student shall immediately notify the instructors.
- 34 3. Instructors: When possible, the instructor shall reasonably accommodate the student's 35 required absence from class. An instructor who believes that the anticipated absences would 36 preclude successful completion of the course or would seriously affect the student's grade
37 shall inform the student by the end of the second week of classes.

38
39 II. Absence for Religious Observances:

40 A. By the end of the first week of classes, students should notify instructors of affected courses
41 of planned absences for religious observances. Instructors shall reasonably accommodate students
42 who notify them in advance of planned absences for religious observances.
