COURSE DESCRIPTION

An orientation to careers in K-12 education. Focuses on teaching and schooling from multiple perspectives, with an emphasis on current thinking and practices in public education in the U.S. Subjects from the sociological, philosophical, and historical foundations of education are addressed. Readings from the lives of teachers and interactions with local educators will assist students to understand the richness and the complexities of teaching as a career. Emphasizes the importance of education for all children in a diverse society. Intended for individuals interested in becoming teachers to understand the nature of formal education in the United States and to assess teaching as a career. Participation in forty-five (45) hours of supervised fieldwork assignments in K-12 classrooms settings. Course is intended for students who are considering applying to the Integrated Credential Program.

Mauerman: This course serves as an orientation to careers in elementary, middle and high school education as well as careers in Special Education. Upon completion of this course, potential teacher candidates will understand the nature of formalized education in the United States and will be able to assess his or her interest in teaching as a career. Major topics include:

- Understanding the roles of schools in society.
- Exploring philosophies and contemporary issues in education.
- Assessing the roles of teachers in schools.
- Understanding the qualifications and credentialing process for California teachers.
- Understanding and appreciating the student as an individual.
- Understanding factors affecting student achievement.
- Understanding critical issues in curriculum and instruction.
- Understanding infusion of special education in general education practices.
- Understanding the laws that influence teaching responsibilities.

This course is required for all credential candidates. All students must complete forty-five (45) hours of supervised fieldwork in K-12 classrooms.

Authorization to Teach English Learners

This credential program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the credential program, as well as additional coursework. Candidates successfully completing this program receive a credential with authorization to teach English learners. (Approved by CCTC in SB 2042 Program Standards, August 02)

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations

Candidates with disabilities who require reasonable accommodations must be approved for services by providing appropriate and recent documentation to the Office of Disable Student Services (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 4300, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Candidates authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

All University Writing Requirement

In keeping with the All-University Writing Requirement, all 3 unit courses must have a writing component of at least 2,500 words. This will be met through written assignments.

CSUSM Academic Honesty Policy

“Students will be expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty and integrity, as outlined in the Student Academic Honesty Policy. All written work and oral presentation assignments must be original work. All ideas/materials that are borrowed from other sources must have appropriate references to the original sources. Any quoted material should give credit to the source and be punctuated with quotation marks.

Students are responsible for honest completion of their work including examinations. There will be no tolerance for infractions. If you believe there has been an infraction by someone in the class, please bring it to the instructor’s attention. The instructor reserves the right to discipline any student for academic dishonesty in accordance with the general rules and regulations of the university. Disciplinary action may include the lowering of grades and/or the assignment of a failing grade for an exam, assignment, or the class as a whole.”

Incidents of Academic Dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students. Sanctions at the University level may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

As an educator, it is expected that each candidate will do his/her own work, and contribute equally to group projects and processes. Plagiarism or cheating is unacceptable under any circumstances. If you are in doubt about whether your work is paraphrased or plagiarized see the Plagiarism Prevention for Students website <http://library.csusm.edu/plagiarism/index.html>. If there are questions about academic honesty, please consult the University catalog.

Electronic Communication Protocol

Electronic correspondence is a part of your professional interactions. If you need to contact the instructor, e-mail is often the easiest way to do so. It is my intention to respond to all received e-mails in a timely manner. Please be reminded that e-mail and on-line discussions are a very specific form of communication, with their own nuances and etiquette. For instance, electronic messages sent in all upper case (or lower case) letters, major typos, or slang, often communicate more than the sender originally intended. With that said, please be mindful of all e-mail and on-line discussion messages you send to your colleagues, to faculty members in the School of Education, or to persons within the greater educational community. All electronic messages should be crafted with professionalism and care.

Things to consider:

- Would I say in person what this electronic message specifically says?
- How could this message be misconstrued?
- Does this message represent my highest self?
- Am I sending this electronic message to avoid a face-to-face conversation?

In addition, if there is ever a concern with an electronic message sent to you, please talk with the author in person in order to correct any confusion.

School of Education Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the School of Education, all candidates are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, candidates must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the candidate have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. (Adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997).

This Course:

Participation in an on line course requires one to keep up with the course assignments and discussions every week.

With respect to due dates and participation, you are required to submit your work within two weeks that an assignment is open to students. After two weeks, all assignments will be cut off and become unavailable to students.

Specifically, once an assignment is cut off, you will not be allowed to submit that assignment into the Cougar Course. Be sure to keep track of cut off dates for all your assignments. The cut off dates are listed in the Assignments links, Discussion forum links, Quizzes link, etc. The syllabus also lists the dates that assignments are due, which are also the dates that assignments are open to students. It is prudent to PRINT OUT the course schedule pages and post these near your workspace. Again, you have two weeks to complete an assignment after the due date.

Credential Program Recommendations

As one of several evaluation methods, EDUC 350 course instructors are asked for feedback concerning hopeful credential candidates who are applying for programs at Cal State San Marcos. Keep in mind that your professionalism and hard work in this class not only affects your course grade, but also indicates your readiness and suitability to enter a credential program.

Field Work

In addition to in-class work, assigned readings and projects, students are required to participate in 40 hours (5 classroom visits) of supervised fieldwork assignments in a variety of public school settings. Details about the fieldwork are found on the SOE Forms webpage: <http://www.csusm.edu/education/FormsPolicies/index.html> Written documentation of these hours is required to receive a grade in EDUC 350. Cal State San Marcos students are expected to adhere to professional standards in their dress and behavior in the field at all times. Complaints from the field regarding inappropriate activity may result in failure of this course.

Special Note: Because this course requires a field service component, a personal background check may be required, depending upon the school site chosen.

A recommendation is obtained from the classroom teacher where most of the fieldwork is conducted, also known as a Field Experience Recommendation, is a requirement for admission to the Cal State San Marcos Teacher Credentialing programs. This and other forms are found again on the Forms page in the SOE: <http://www.csusm.edu/education/FormsPolicies/index.html>

Use of Technology

Candidates are expected to demonstrate competency in the use of various forms of technology (i.e. word processing, electronic mail, Moodle, use of the Internet, and/or multimedia presentations). Specific requirements for course assignments with regard to technology are at the discretion of the instructor. Keep a digital copy of all assignments for use in your teaching portfolio. All assignments will be submitted online, and some will be submitted in hard copy as well. Details will be given in class.

Teacher Performance Expectation (TPE) Competencies

A primary goal of EDUC 350 is to begin the process of developing teacher candidates to become professional educators. The following TPE of the California Commission for Teacher Credentialing is expected to be met during this course:

TPE 12: Professional, Legal and Ethical Obligations

Candidates are aware of their own personal values and biases and recognize ways in which these values and biases affect the teaching and learning of students. They resist racism and acts of intolerance. Candidates appropriately manage their professional time spent in teaching responsibilities to ensure that academic goals are met.

Candidates for a Teaching Credential understand and honor legal and professional obligations to protect the privacy, health, and safety of students, families, and other school professionals. They are aware of and act in accordance with ethical considerations and they model ethical behaviors for students. Candidates understand and honor all laws relating to professional misconduct and moral fitness.

Teaching Performance Assessment for Developing as a Professional Educator

The successful completion of the personal philosophy assignment is a requirement for completion of this course and is a component of partially meeting the TPE described above. This statement will be used for assessment both in the course and at completion of the College of Education program. Retain an electronic copy of your statement for submission for your portfolio at the completion of your teacher education program.

Class Discussions and Participation

Students will engage in student-centered learning each class via the discussion forum. Discussion forums 1-12 are graded, the last three forums are ungraded but required since they focus on the presentations created by your classmates. In considering your participation in the discussion forums ask yourself the following:

- Do you participate in discussion forums productively, sharing my knowledge and understandings?
- Do I interact productively with my peers, taking on a variety of roles (leader, follower, etc.)?
- Do I contribute appropriately to group work—do I “do my share”?
- Do I accept others’ opinions?
- Am I supportive of others’ ideas?
- Do I support your peers during their presentations in the discussion forums?

Course Requirements

Teacher education is a professional preparation program. It is expected that students will come to class prepared to discuss the readings, submit required assignments, and participate in class activities. Students are expected to adhere to academic honesty and integrity, standards of dependability, confidentiality and writing achievement. Because it is important for teachers to be able to effectively communicate their ideas to students, parents, colleagues, and administrators, writing that is original, clear and error-free is a priority for the College of Education. It is expected that work will be turned in on time. Please discuss individual issues with the instructor. Points will be deducted if assignments are submitted late (10% penalty per day late; no credit will be awarded if the assignment is one week late).

Additional Requirements – Special Education Inclusion

Consistent with the intent to offer a seamless teaching credential in the College of Education, this course will introduce the collaborative infusion of special education competencies that reflect inclusive educational practices. Students will demonstrate knowledge of laws and dispositions that relate to special education through a variety of activities such as the viewing and analysis of the video F.A.T. City, reading and analysis of special education law, and Creating an Inclusive School.

Course Assignments and Grading Standards

1. Reading logs 10 points

The reading log provides an opportunity to reflect on learning about teaching through the assigned readings for each week. In the reading log, do not summarize. Instead, respond to the readings: agree, disagree, note specific ideas, etc. Entries should be 1 paragraph in length.

Individual submissions are not graded; rather, their timely submission is noted and points are assigned on the basis of having completed the assignment for the semester. No credit will be given for late submissions. In extraordinary circumstances, if you do not have access to Cougar Course for a timely submission, you may email the log entry to me by Friday at noon at gvaladez@csusm.edu. Later, when you have Cougar Course access, you will resubmit. Also, keep the syllabus schedule as the entries are not assigned in a chronological order.

2. Interview of a teacher 5 points

Details are below in expanded assignment section of syllabus The written report is due via the Cougar Course site on Mar 1

3. Inclusion paper (The Outsider) 5 points

Many students with special needs come to view themselves as outsiders because they are labeled as different from the typical student. Following the procedures written below you will write a reflective essay about inclusion.

4. Classroom observation reports 10 points

Using the classroom observation instrument provided in class, complete 45 hours of classroom observations in your field sites.

5. Contemporary issues research 5 points

Choose one issue that interests you and your teaching presentation partners (from the topics given to you by the instructor) to create and upload for your classmates. Research the issue and prepare an online presentation to share in class. The report should describe and analyze the issue. Presentations to the class will be spaced out over the last three modules of the course: Modules 13-15. When you present you will also provide a one-page summary and a resource list for your classmates. Each presenter must submit the one-page summary to the Cougar Course site to receive credit for this assignment. You will be provided directions for how to submit and present your projects online in the Cougar course shell.

6. Critiques of presentations 3 points

You will write critiques of all the presentations presented in this course. As a reviewer, you will answer the questions provided you in the Cougar Course. In all, you will write three reports that critique all the presentations separately. The reports are worth one point each.

7. Personal philosophy of schooling, learning and teaching 10 points

Students write a 4-5 page paper describing your philosophy of schooling, learning and teaching. Details are below and in the Cougar Course container/shell (Moodle).

8. Quizzes 18 points

Each student is to complete 9 quizzes in this course. Each quiz is worth two points and will be graded electronically.

9. Forums 8 points

You will be graded for your participation in the online forums. To complete your forum you will type in your response to the question or activity posted in the Discussion forum section of each module. Be sure to type at least a paragraph in order to receive credit. A paragraph is 3 to 5 sentences.. Thoughtfulness, appropriateness and relevance are important in your postings as your comments will be read by your classmates and the instructor.

10. Video Response Grids 12 points

You will complete four video response grids (forms) for this course. After viewing a video in one of the course shell modules, you will complete a response grid. The grid templates are provided in each of the module where you will view a video. To complete these grids you will first view the assigned video, then download the response form, complete the form by answering the questions on the form, and then upload the finished grid on the assignment portal provided in the module. You can type directly into the response grid templates. Instructions for completing the response grids are located in the Cougar course shell. The following is a list of the response grids and the point value for each you will complete in this course:

- First Year Teacher response grid - 4 pts.
- Feather in the Storm video response grid - 2 pts.
- Stories of Practice grid - 2 pts.
- Fat City video response grid - 2 pts.

11. Module activities 14 points

Students will complete nine module activities in this course. The directions for completing each of these activities are located in the Cougar Course container. Follow the directions provided in the pertinent modules for each of these required activities. The following is a list of the module activities and the point value for each you will complete in this course:

- Miss Nelson taxonomy grid - 2 pts.
- Miss Nelson/Viola Swamp final report form - 2 pts.
- Web link scavenger hunt - 2 pts.
- Brainstorming activity - 2 pts.
- Best Practices grid - 2 pts.
- Synectics analogies grid - 2 pts.
- CTA Bullying Resource review-2 pts.

12. Participation Score 5 points

Students will earn a participation score in this course. This grade is based upon your ability to maintain the course schedule, how well you participate in the discussion forums, and the quality of your reflections and written responses.

Grading Scale

Grades will be determined by the total number of points earned (100 points possible). NOTE that an A is earned from 93-100, not 90-100.:

		A	100-93	A-	92-90
B+	89-87	B	86-83	B-	82-80
C+	79-77	C	76-73	C-	72-70

Assignment- Expanded Detail

Assignment #1: Reading Logs

Assignment #2: Interview of a Teacher

In this assignment, you will interview a teacher and write a 3–4 page summary of what you learned from him or her. Your purpose is to render a sketch so that your reader may be able to envision the teacher as a person with a distinct philosophy and experience.

Gathering information:

Interview a current or retired teacher who has had at least 3 years of full–time experience in elementary, middle, or secondary school classrooms. Required questions are:

1. Why did the teacher choose to enter teaching? How attractive was the profession to prospective teachers at that time? What were the other career paths available; were any others seriously considered? Does the teacher have any regrets about becoming a teacher?
2. What professional education did the teacher have? How helpful was it in learning to teach? At what point did the teacher feel comfortable as a teacher?
3. What were/are the teacher's goals for the education of students? Have these goals changed over the years?
4. What career moves (school buildings, grade level, special students, subject matter, etc.) has the teacher made? To what extent were those moves voluntary? For current teachers, are further moves desired? If this is true, what are they, and why?
5. What have been the major joys and frustrations of teaching? What would help increase the joys and minimize the frustrations? On what issues does the teacher feel strongly about making changes in the way that schooling occurs now?
6. How did/does the teacher learn about his/her students' lives and needs? How similar are the backgrounds of the teacher and his/her students? What have been the teacher's experiences with "culture shock" in working with students from different backgrounds?
7. What are some favorite memories from the teacher's classroom? Does the teacher tend to remember individual students or activities, or are the memories more general?
8. What does the teacher think of current "hot issues" in education such as the California High School Exit Exam and the No Child Left Behind Act? How does the teacher take action to address new reforms that impact his/her classroom?
9. What is the teacher's metaphor for "teaching" or "teacher"? What are the main features of the teacher's approach toward teaching? What has the teacher learned from being a teacher?

Analysis:

After collecting your information, think about what you have learned about this teacher. Focus on a few themes that best characterize what you have heard. Do not try to be all-inclusive. Protect your teacher's confidentiality by using a pseudonym and masking identifying details.

In your analysis, incorporate what you have been learning about becoming and being a teacher. How does your teacher fit within the material addressed in your readings and in class?

What issues are raised through your interview?

What are the implications of your interview as you think about becoming a teacher?

Be certain to include at least one reference to the readings/discussions we have in class.

Criteria for evaluation:

Exemplary papers are characterized by:

Completeness of description of the teacher's experiences and views

Explanation of how the teacher interview relates to your thinking about teaching

Integration of coursework (readings + discussions) into the analysis

Correct grammar, syntax, and spelling

Assignment #3: Inclusion paper (The Outsider)

5 points

Many students with special needs come to view themselves as outsiders because they are labeled and stigmatized as different from the typical student. But most of us have experienced some sense of being an outsider during our K-12 years. After reading chapters 1-3 in Creating an Inclusive School and at least two of the Voices of Inclusion in the Villa Thousand text, write a reflective essay (2 to 3 pages, double spaced) wherein you comment on your own (or a friend's) school experience that caused you to feel like an outsider. Reasons could include differences due to gender, religion, looks, beliefs/interests, family situation, academic ability, etc. Make at least 1 specific connection to the VT text. Consider the following questions:

What personal characteristics fostered your or your friend's feeling of being different?

How did you react and cope with the situation?

Did you share your experience with any teachers? Did any teachers assist you?

What could school staff, parents or friends have done to help?

In what ways did this experience change you? What did you "learn" from this experience?

How might this experience make you a more sensitive teacher?

Assignment # 7: Philosophy of Education paper

Write a 4-5-page paper (double-spaced) that explains, describes and defines your personal philosophy of schooling, learning and teaching. Follow the template below, and self-assess before you submit the paper in the Cougar Course assignment portal.

Paper Introduction

Name your philosophy (or combination of philosophies) as described by Grant & Gillette Ch 8.

Explain why you are attracted to this philosophical stance. Is it due to your own schooling and/or background, what you've seen in schools since your own school days, the influence of particular persons, texts, other experiences with children/youth, etc.?

Describe the level of schooling and subject field(s) you hope to teach.

Nature of schooling

Describe what you believe is the purpose of schooling in a democracy.

How will you as a teacher help achieve these purposes?

Give 1-2 examples of how this will look in your classroom/career.

Nature of the learner

Describe what you believe is the nature of the learner.
What are your thoughts about the students you will teach? What do they need from a teacher?
Give 1-2 examples of how this will look in your classroom.

Nature of the teaching/learning process

Describe what you believe is the nature of the teaching/learning process?
What do you believe counts as knowledge and how should it be presented?
How will you as a teacher use subject matter and other experiences to guide students toward meaningful learning activities?
Give 1-2 examples of how this will look in your classroom.

Teacher dispositions and actions

Describe what behavior (disposition/attitude & actions) you will exhibit in order to carry out your philosophical position.
Give 1-2 examples of how this will look in your career.

Conclusion

Recap your philosophy.
What are your outstanding questions/concerns/thoughts about becoming a teacher?

Criteria for Self- Assessment of Philosophy Paper

Be certain to self-assess using the following criteria. Submit the self-assessment with your final draft of your philosophy paper (at least one “beefy” paragraph). These are the criteria that will be used to evaluate your philosophy paper.

Exemplary papers have the following characteristics:

Ideas: The paper is clear and focused. It holds the reader’s attention. Relevant information and details enrich the central theme. Ideas are supported by research, practical knowledge and experience. Conclusions show insight.

Organization: The organizational structure enhances and showcases the central idea or theme of the paper. An inviting introduction draws the reader in; a satisfying conclusion leaves the reader with a sense of closure and resolution. Sequencing is logical and effective. Thoughtful transitions tie parts together. The paper flows so smoothly, the reader hardly thinks about it.

Connections: The paper includes multiple references to EDUC 350 class experiences (specific text selections, class discussions, fieldwork observations, assignments, current events, etc.).

Voice: The writer of this paper speaks directly to the reader in a manner that is individual, compelling, engaging, and has personality. NOT written in the second voice (you). Written in first or third person.

Sentence Fluency: The writing has an easy flow. Sentences enhance the meaning. Sentences vary in length and structure. The piece has purposeful and varied sentence beginnings.

Conventions: The writer demonstrates a good grasp of standard writing conventions. Spelling is generally correct. Punctuation is accurate. Grammar and usage are correct. Paragraphing tends to be sound. The piece needs very little additional editing.

SCHEDULE/COURSE OUTLINE

Due dates and attention to assignment completion: The due dates are listed in each module of the Cougar Course. Generally, students have two weeks to submit an assignment after the date it is assigned. Late assignments will result in a lower grade. Most reading and work are worth 2 to 4 points each. Late assignments can only earn half the points of any assignment at best. Keep to the deadlines posted and you will be fine. Keep in mind that the School of Education requires a grade of B or better for admission to any program.

The absolute deadline for any and all assignments for the entire course is May 9. No assignment can be accepted after this date.
