COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Assignments / Due Dates / Points Possible

Note: The following is a concise explanation of tentative assignments for this course. If there is a strong possibility that the instructor needs to modify some of these assignments to meet the needs of the class, all students will be kept aware of any changes well in advance of any due date.

1. Profession Disposition: Attendance, Punctuality, & Class Participation 10 points

The purpose is for students to be well prepared for course sessions and participate in activities and assignments. These Personal Disposition points are awarded at the instructor's discretion. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. Notification of absence does not warrant an excuse.

Because this course is a prerequisite to professional certification in the COE, students are expected to demonstrate behavior consistent with a professional career and adhere to attendance policy.

2. Weekly Readings Discussions in Class 20 points

a. Weekly Readings: In order to have the type of class discussions that this course requires, it is crucial that students read the material before class. In order to receive participation points for the week, students must come prepared to class with a synthesis of key points of the week's reading and your personal thoughts/similar experiences of the featured case studies in the chapters.

Course: Cultural Diversity & Schooling, EDUC 364

b. Weekly Reflection Journal: After our weekly course sessions, you will be asked to write a reflection. Each reflection will be at least 150 words in length and will cover a variety of topics including; a reflection of your learning experiences, a response to a class readings/discussions, and/or critique of a film. You will also respond to at least 2 peer entries.

Journal entries due: Mondays (2 points each); late journals (1 point, only if completed by the following class meeting)

3. Personal History of Otherness

24 points

By researching and studying one's relationship to the eight categories of typical "otherness" in U.S. society, it is possible for us to gain an appreciation about ourselves as individuals and our many similarities and differences. In this assignment you are to write one page for each category about your relationship to "otherness" in terms of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, age, physical or mental ability, and language. Reflect on your own experiences in terms of your social context, your family background, and other factors determined by your own circumstances and upbringing. Rank the eight categories from most important to least important in regards to who you are as an individual. Be prepared to discuss your assignment within a larger class dialogue. More detailed directions and rubric for grading assignment will be given in class.

DUE February 18: Completed Draft with half page for all sections;

DUE April 1: Final Copy – one page for all sections

4. Group Reading Facilitation (Spring Textbook)

12 points

In small groups, students will lead a 20-30 minute discussion of a chapter from the Spring book. This discussion should promote critical thinking, varied perspectives and an attempt to connect the past to the present in our schools. Students will share additional resources found related to the chapter. Group provides a 1 page summary of the chapter highlights to the class. More detailed directions and rubric for grading assignment will be given in class.

DUE: 3/4, 3/11, or 3/18 (various dates - depending on the day your group facilitates the chapter)

5. School Diversity Assessment

24 points

In small groups, students will provide a research-based assessment of three or more schools from the same district and grade span. This will be a comparison of academic achievement, qualified staff, community resources, and parental involvement at the sites. The final project could be a PowerPoint, movie, poster, or some other type of creative way to present the information. More detailed directions, examples, and rubric for grading assignment will be given in class.

DUE: 4/15, 4/22, 4/29, or 5/6 (various dates - depending on the day your group presents the project to the class)

6. My Diversity Action Plan (Class final)

10 points

As a way to synthesize all of the information that has been learned in the semester, students will create a personal diversity action plan that will discuss how each future teacher will personally address the achievement gap and promote learning for all students. Plans will be shared in class, if time permits. More detailed directions and rubric for grading assignment will be given in class.

DUE: May 6th- Last day of class!
