COLLEGE OF EDUCATION MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the College of Education Community is to collaboratively transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators advancing professional practices. We are committed to diversity, educational equity, and social justice, exemplified through reflective teaching, life-long learning, innovative research and on-going service. Our practices demonstrate a commitment to student-centered education, diversity, collaboration, professionalism, and shared governance. (Adopted by COE Governance Community, October, 1997).

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course addresses the needs of school teachers faced with the growing diversity that exists in today's classrooms. As such, it will focus on bilingual sociolinguistic/sociocultural competence and implications for learning and instruction, application of effective alternative instructional practices, cultural aspects of English learners, as well as effective and appropriate English language development (ELD) techniques and successful bilingual, multilingual education for language minority students.

In this class prospective teachers gain knowledge and understanding pertaining to similarities and differences between, contributions of, exchanges between, and the varying perspectives of the populations referenced in the Non-Discrimination Policy of the State of California.

AUTHORIZATION TO TEACH ENGLISH LEARNERS

Beginning fall of 2002, CSUSM an early adopter of the new AB 2042 program standards, intends to prepare new teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the Multiple Subject Program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing this program receive the Preliminary Multiple Subject Credential with authorization to teach English learners (note: formerly called CLAD).

STANDARD ALIGNMENT

The course objectives, assignments, and assessments have been aligned with the CTC standards for Multiple Subjects Credential. Please be sure to incorporate artifacts from this class into your final comprehensive portfolio. Look for the violet standards embedded in your assignments and class work. The following standards are addressed in this class:

Standard 3: Relationship between Theory and Practice

Standard 4: Pedagogical Thought and Reflective Practice

Standard 5: Equity, Diversity, and Access to the Core Curriculum

Standard 7.a.b: Preparation to Teach Reading-Language Arts

Standard 8: Pedagogical Preparation for Subject-Specific Content Instruction

Standard 11.c : Preparation to use Educational Ideas and Research

Standard 13: Preparation to Teach English Learners

TEACHER PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION (TPE) COMPETENCIES

This course is designed to help teachers seeking the Multiple Subjects Credential to develop the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to assist schools and districts in implementing effective programs for all students. The successful candidate will be able to merge theory and practice in order to realize a comprehensive and extensive educational program for all students. Look for the green TPEs embedded in your assignments and class work. The following TPE's are addressed in this course:

Primary Emphasis

TPE 1: Specific Pedagogical Skills for Subject Matter Instruction

TPE 4: Making Content Accessible

TPE 5: Student engagement

TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

Secondary Emphasis:

TPE 3: Interpretation and Use of Assessments

TPE 6: Developmentally Appropriate Teaching Practices

TPE 11: Social Environment

TPE 14: Educational Technology

TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION ATTENDANCE POLICY

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the Professor. Individual Professors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the Professor as soon as possible. (adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997). NOTE: This means that if you miss three (3) classes you cannot receive a passing grade for the class!

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

NOTE: THE PROFESSOR RESERVES THE RIGHT TO CHANGE, ADD TO, OR DELETE ANY MATERIAL FROM THE COURSE.

Academic Honesty

I expect that each student will do his/her own work, and contribute equally to group projects and processes. Plagiarism or cheating is unacceptable under any circumstance. If you are in doubt about whether your work is paraphrased or plagiarized see the Plagiarism Prevention for Students website http://courses.csusm.edu/sthompson/plagiarism/about_site.html. If there are questions about academic honesty, please consult the University catalog.

Appeals

Every student has the right to appeal grades, or appeal for redress of grievances incurred in the context of any class. Disputes may be resolved informally with the professor, or through the formal grades appeal process. For the latter, consult Dr. P. Kelly, Associate Dean.

Ability

Every student has the right to equitable educational consideration and appropriate accommodation. Students having differing ability (mobility, sight, hearing, documented learning challenges, first language/English as a second language) are requested to contact the professor at the earliest opportunity. Every effort will be made to accommodate special needs. Students are reminded of the availability of Disabled Student Services, the Writing Center, technology assistance in the computer labs, and other student support services available as part of reasonable accommodation for special needs students.

If you require reasonable accommodations please contact Disabled Student Services in order to make the necessary arrangements. This organization is located in Craven Hall, Room 5025a, and can be reached at (760) 750-4905 or (760) 750-4909 (TDD users).

GENERAL COURSE OBJECTIVES

- 1) You will have opportunities to become familiar with basic terms, philosophies, problems, issues, history, and practices related to the education of language minority persons in California and the US.
- 2) You will have opportunities to demonstrate understanding of the most important goals of bilingual/multicultural education.
- 3) You will have opportunities to explain the theoretical framework upon which bilingual education is founded.
- 4) You will have opportunities to demonstrate understanding of existing student identification, assessment, and language redesignation requirements for the state of California.
- 5) You will have opportunities to explain the connections between bilingual education, English as a second language, SDAIE and other pertinent methodologies.
- 6) You will demonstrate several models of multicultural education and their implications for curriculum, instruction, and educational policy.
- 7) You will have opportunities to explain the meaning of culture, differentiated index, the necessity for cultural convergence in schools, and other research-based related notions of multicultural education.

- 8) You will learn to develop and understand each individual student, create a more just and humane learning environment, and help students in their growth and development as human beings.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

REQUIRED TEXTS

Crawford, J. (1999). Bilingual education: History, politics, theory and practice (4th Edition). Los Angeles, CA: Evaluation, Dissemination and Assessment Center, CSULA

Echevarria, J. & Graves, A. (2003). Sheltered content instruction: Teaching English- language learners with diverse abilities. Boston: Allyn & Bacon.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

In this class, all students begin with 100 points. Points will be deducted from your total, based on the quality of the work you turn in for each assignment.

In addition, all students are expected to participate in class activities and demonstrate reflective learning. It is important that students are well prepared for course sessions by completing the readings and assignments scheduled before class meetings. Unless otherwise negotiated with the instructor, all assignments are to be submitted to WebCT Assignments on the due date. Assignments not submitted on due date will lose 10% of earned credit per day. Assignments should be typed and double-spaced. Hard copies of assignments will be student or peer evaluated and turned in at the end of the semester in a final learning portfolio due Friday March 12.

The following grading scale will be used with the points students have remaining at the end of class:

93-100%.....A
90-92%.....A-

88-89%.....	B+
83-87%.....	B
80-82%.....	B-
75-79%.....	C+
72-75.....	C
70-71.....	C-
60-69%.....	D
59% and below.....	F

Note: Students are reminded that the College requires completion of this course with a C+ or higher.

All assignments are due on the dates indicated below (also indicated on the course weekly activity listing). On the due date, credit for completion will be recorded. At the end of the course, your learning portfolios with each assignment and self-assessments (and/or peer-assessments) will be turned in to me. You are responsible for keeping your work organized and ready for final presentation and evaluation. Please manage your time and plan accordingly. Assignments must be word processed/ typewritten, double-spaced, with standard margins, unless completed in class. It is expected that all assignments will reflect university level composition.

ASSIGNMENTS, DUE DATES, AND BEGINNING POINT VALUES

1. Attendance, Disposition, and Class Participation

20 points

Standard 4: Pedagogical Thought and Reflective Practice

Primary Emphasis

TPE 5: Student engagement

Secondary Emphasis:

TPE 11: Social Environment

TPE 14: Educational Technology

First is the expectation that you will attend all class sessions and participate actively in class activities, group and individual sharing, and discussions. Remember, if you miss three class sessions (or more), you will automatically lose between 30 and 40 points, dropping your grade to the C range, based on the COE attendance policy. Attendance on WebCT will be taken as well as "in class" attendance. Your regular participation in this forum is as important as your physical attendance in class.

2. Discussion Board Interactive Journal Entries/ Responses (4 @ 5 pts each) (Due: See course assignment listing) 20 points

Standard 3: Relationship between Theory and Practice

Standard 4: Pedagogical Thought and Reflective Practice

May include all Primary and Secondary TPE Emphasis (see complete listing in Assignment 5)

Interactive electronic discussions are a way for learning communities to entertain and respond to your questions, reflections, insights, or concerns regarding course content. They also facilitate relationships between students and professors. Your peers or course professor will respond to your entries with clarifying questions to further your thinking process. Try to begin your next entry, by answering these questions.

These 2 to 3 paragraph responses will be maintained about every other week and may include the following:

- Summaries, descriptions, or reactions to the topics discussed in class or from readings reflecting understanding of key concepts. Both comments from professor and other students may be reflected on the discussion board.
- Meta-reflections and/or analysis of key concepts, particularly in terms of the connections that can be made between class discussions and teaching English language learners, with specific examples from student teaching experiences, school observations, or other personal experiences in diverse settings. It is critical that direct connections are made with teaching experiences in the form of anecdotes, case studies, or narratives.
- Entries will be graded according to comprehensiveness, insightful connections, and “deep understanding” of the issues. The class discussion board should address instructional concerns, school structures, teaching strategies, and school environments related to social justice and equity in diverse settings. In addition to grading each entry, I will personally respond to 6 random entries per due date.

You are responsible for (1) self-assessments for each of your entries and (2) providing a printed version of each one of your entries/responses in your final learning portfolio (Due October 24).

3. Lesson Transformation (DUE: See course assignment listing, please WebCT submit your work on date indicated) 10 points

Standard 5: Equity, Diversity, and Access to the Core Curriculum

Standard 8: Pedagogical Preparation for Subject-Specific Content Instruction

Primary Emphasis

TPE 1: Specific Pedagogical Skills for Subject Matter Instruction

TPE 4: Making Content Accessible

TPE 5: Student engagement

TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

Secondary Emphasis:

TPE 6: Developmentally Appropriate Teaching Practices

TPE 11: Social Environment

- For this assignment you will write a 1 page case study describing the classroom you are assigned to for your student teaching. If this assignment does not have students who are English language learners, focus on learners who are culturally and/or linguistically diverse, and/or students who have physical disabilities, or create a fictional classroom with a diverse student body.
- You will then go on-line to find find a generic lesson plan designed for students in this grade level (use Google or another search engine).
- Finally, based on your readings, class discussions, and learnings modify, adapt, and change this lesson plan making it accessible to the English language learners in your actual or created environment.

You are responsible for (1) peer reviewing another colleague's assignment (to be traded on 10/17) and (2) providing a SIGNED peer review of your assignment, as well as (3) the original lesson plan and (4) your actual assignment as part of your final learning portfolio (Due Oct 24).

4. Multicultural/ Multilingual Research Reviews (2 @ 10pts each) (Due: See course assignment listing)
15 points

Standard 11.c : Preparation to use Educational Ideas and Research

Primary Emphasis

TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

Secondary Emphasis:

TPE 14: Educational Technology

TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity

- For this assignment you are to go to the CSUSM Library website, find and select a journal article published in the last 5 years on Multicultural, Bilingual, or Multilingual Elementary Education. I will model this exercise in class.
- You will read each article and provide a one page summary of each including a one paragraph reaction to the piece.
- Refer to the APA website for correct electronic reference listing at <http://www.apastyle.org/electsource.html>.
- You will be expected to present a 5 minute quick-talk on one of your articles during the course of the semester.
- 5 points are allotted for each written review and 5 points are for your presentation.
- Following each presentation, your peers will assess your presentation quality and provide verbal feedback. I will provide immediate feedback as well.
- You will be selected randomly to present your articles beginning Monday September 15. Please be prepared.

5. Literature-based Social Justice Thematic Unit (Due: See course assignment listing)
25 points

Standard 7.a.b: Preparation to Teach Reading-Language Arts

Standard 13: Preparation to Teach English Learners

Primary Emphasis

TPE 1: Specific Pedagogical Skills for Subject Matter Instruction

TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

Secondary Emphasis:

TPE 3: Interpretation and Use of Assessments

TPE 6: Developmentally Appropriate Teaching Practices

TPE 11: Social Environment

TPE 14: Educational Technology

TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity

Part I: Critical Assessment Task (CATs) (12 pts)

- In groups of 3-4 (NO EXCEPTIONS), you will have the opportunity to develop a literature-based social justice and equity thematic unit that will include appropriate literature selections reflecting multicultural perspectives for students in grades K-2, 3-6, or 7-8.
- Choose six powerful children's multicultural selections that should be the center of curriculum focused on social justice and equity issues for different times throughout a specified time of the year.
- This plan should include an outline of how the multicultural books will be used throughout the specified time of the year and a justification (explanation) of the selections made.
- At least three of the books must be bilingual (English and another language) with a brief discussion of how "primary language support" will be incorporated into the unit.
- Using the books as your foundation, write four detailed reading and writing lesson plans that will clearly delineate how every child will be successful by providing universal access to diverse students (e.g., gifted, English learners, special needs, non-readers, poor).
- Applying the SDAIE criteria discussed, include SDAIE activities in your comprehensive lesson plans.
- Ask yourselves the following questions about each one of your original lesson plans:
 - Does the lesson use visuals, manipulatives, realia, drama, or other techniques that would facilitate understanding?
 - Does the lesson take into consideration the varying English proficiencies of language minority students?
 - Do the lesson strategies incorporate group collaboration, cooperative learning activities, peer assistance, or other work-group techniques?
 - Does the lesson incorporate the language and culture of language minority students?
 - Is the curriculum reflected in the lesson challenging and not watered-down?
 - Does the lesson include the 7-Intelligences and/or multiple modalities?
 - Are the community/parents of English learners included in the unit of study?

The format of the literature-based social justice and equity thematic unit should include:

1. Focus of the unit and brief summary of each book.
2. Grade level this unit is appropriate for.
3. Outline/plan of how the books will be used throughout the specified time of the year.
4. Reading and writing lesson plan that will identify standards being covered.
5. Identify Assessment strategies: How you will determine students learned what you intended (how you will assess them)?
6. Primary language support component of the unit plan.
7. Appropriate accommodations and support for the wide variety of students in CA classrooms (be specific).
8. A list of your books on the WebCT for your colleagues future use.

Part II: Roundtable Discussion and Presentation Sessions (30 minutes each group) (8 pts)

Panel roundtables will be set up to provide space for each group to present/display their literature selections and/or units and Powerpoint lesson demonstrations (CATs). Other class members will listen/ participate to the discussions.

Note: Dr. Alice Quiocho has developed an excellent website with a bibliography of children's literature and multicultural books that could be a great resource for you (<http://www.csusm.edu/Quiocho>).

Part III: Self and Group Assessment (5 pts)

As part of this assignment you will describe your role as an individual working as a group member including personal and group responsibilities. You will determine whether points should be deducted based on the quality of this culminating experience.

Begin a class meeting within the first 5 minutes of class ONLINE in CHAT ROOM #1. Everyone must be in attendance or I will assume you are absent. 2. Complete your Discussion Board Interactive Journal Entries. 3. Use Google http://www.google.com or another search engine to find a SDAIE oriented website. Write a one page 'review' of this website based on your current readings and class presentations. Rate the site on a scale of 1 to 5, five being the highest score. Justify your rating. Submit your work on WebCT course mail before the end of class time. 4. Go to the ELLs with Special Needs Eric Website at http://cal.org/resources/digest/0108ortiz.html and answer the following questions: Who are ELLs with special needs? How are they identified? How is instruction different for these learners? What are the assessment implications? What role does scaffolding play for these learners (see my article for hints)? What are your chances of having ELLs with special needs in your classrooms? Bring responses to class following Monday.

Everyone must be in attendance or I will assume you are absent. 2. Complete your Discussion Board Interactive Journal Entries. 3. Please use this session to work in groups on your final assignment. Delegate tasks early on so the bulk of the work does not fall on one person's shoulders. Some ideas for role designation are: literature expert(s) to choose literature, a reading lesson plan expert; a writing lesson plan expert; a SDAIE/ primary language support/ accommodations expert to ensure your lesson will adequately serve ELLs; a standards/ assessment expert to make sure these items are appropriate; etc...
