Authorization to Teach English Learners

This credential program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the credential program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing this program receive a credential with authorization to teach English learners. (approved by CCTC in SB 2042 Program Standards, August 02)

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations

Students are approved for services through the Disabled Student Services Office (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 5205, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

Attendance will be taken during the first 5 minutes of class. Three tardiness or “early exits” will be the equivalence of an absence. A passing grade will not be issued for students who do not attend 80% or more of the class sessions. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

Interactive Journal & ELD Standards (20 points)

A daily class journal will be maintained for each class session that needs to include the following:

- A written summary and/or description of the topics discussed in class that reflects understanding of the key concepts. Comments from the professor, other students and the course readings must be reflected in the journal.
- Meta-reflections and/or analysis of key concepts, particularly in terms of the connections that can be made between class discussions and teaching English language learners, with specific examples from student teaching experiences, school observations, or other personal experiences in diverse settings. It is critical that direct connections are made with teaching experiences in the form of anecdotes, case studies, or narratives.

The class journal will be graded according to its comprehensiveness, insightful connections, and “deep understanding” of the issues. The class journal should address instructional concerns, school structures, teaching strategies, and school environments related to social justice and equity in diverse settings.

ELD Standards Requirement

For the 3rd week of class (5th class session) you will need to search the CDE website and download the ELD standards (Grades 3-5 or 6-8) and print a copy for yourself. Please bring the standards to class. Work with your interactive email partner if you run into any trouble with this assignment.

SDAIE Unit Adaptation (20 points) – Critical Assessment Task (CATs)

Applying the SDAIE criteria discussed, include SDAIE activities into an integrated comprehensive unit of study.

- Does the lesson use visuals, manipulatives, realia, drama, or other techniques that would facilitate understanding?
- Does the lesson take into consideration the varying English proficiencies of language minority students?
- Do the lesson strategies incorporate group collaboration, cooperative learning activities, peer assistance, or other work-group techniques?
- Does the lesson incorporate the language and culture of language minority students?
- Is the curriculum reflected in the lesson challenging and not watered-down?
- Does the lesson include the 7-Intelligences and/or multiple modalities?
- Are the community/parents of English learners included in the unit of study?

You may work in a group of 2-4 students. During several class sessions, students will have the opportunity to work on their unit plan by applying what they have learned from the readings, class discussions, and their classroom experiences.

SDAIE Presentation (10 points) – Critical Assessment Task (CATs)

Present a SDAIE component of your Unit Plan to the class. Each group will have 20 minutes to present a SDAIE portion of their Unit Plan, and explain the process involved in creating their unit.

Multicultural Literature Mini-Book Activity (20 points) – Critical Assessment Task (CATs)

With another person, you will have the opportunity to develop a multicultural literacy unit that will address appropriate literature selections reflecting multicultural perspectives for students in grades K-2 or 3-6. Choose six powerful children’s multicultural selections that should be the center of the curriculum for different times throughout the year. This plan should include an outline of how the multicultural books will be used throughout the year and a justification (explanation) of the selections made. At least three of the books must be bilingual (English and another language) with a brief discussion of how “primary language support” will be incorporated into the literacy unit. Write one detailed reading and writing lesson plan that will clearly delineate how every child will be successful by providing universal access to diverse students (e.g., gifted, English learners, special needs, non-readers, poor readers).

The format of the multicultural literature mini book activity should include:

1. Focus of the unit and brief summary of each book
2. Grade level this unit is appropriate for
3. Outline/plan of how the books will be used throughout the year.
4. Reading and writing lesson plan that will identify standards being covered.
5. Identify Assessment strategies: how you will determine they learned what you intended (how you will assess them).
6. Primary language support component of the unit plan

Poster Sessions (20 minutes each)

Tables will be set up to provide space for the groups to present/display their Multicultural Literature Selection. Class members will walk around and listen to the discussions on the different books selected.

Note: Dr. Alice Quiocho has developed an excellent website with a bibliography of children’s literature and multicultural books that could be a great resource for you (<http://www.csusm.edu/Quiocho>).

Lesson Observation (10 points)

For this assignment you will follow an English learner or group of students during your teaching assignment. You will collect and document evidence of any instructional modifications made to provide comprehensible academic input for the student(s). As part of your write-up, you are to discuss how you would change the lesson/activity in light of the information and knowledge gained in the course. (Please note: If applicable, this lesson observation can be connected to the lesson observations that are being conducted for the 521/522 classes.)
