COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores cultural and linguistic diversity as critical variables in achieving educational equity for all students. Major units include intensive theoretical and practical articulation of culture and cultural pluralism; educational issues of race, class, gender, language, ethnicity, and exceptionality; social, structural, programmatic and curricular issues; and effective teaching for diverse populations. This course is intended for students having an interest in diversity and educational issues and is a prerequisite for all teacher credential and graduate program candidates in education. Highly refined oral and written communication, information literacy, and appropriate use of technology are required of professional educators, therefore they are stressed as methods for completing course requirements.

Mission Statement of the College of Education at CSUSM

The mission of the College of Education Community is to transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators advancing professional practice. We are committed to the democratic principles of educational equity and social justice for all learners, exemplified through reflective teaching, learning, and service. We value diversity, collaboration, professionalism, and shared governance.

Authorization to Teach English Learners

As of fall 2002, CSUSM is an early adopter for the new AB 2042 program standards. This program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the Multiple Subject Program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing this program receive the Preliminary Multiple Subject Credential with authorization to teach English learners (my note: formerly called CLAD).

College of Education Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. (adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997). NOTE: This means that if you miss three (3) classes you cannot receive a passing grade for the class!

Assessment

Your performance in class will be assessed along the following criteria. There are 1000 points possible:

1. Attendance and Class Participation (100 points) –First is the expectation that you will attend all class sessions and participate actively in class discussions. If you miss three classes, you will be dropped from the class.

2. Personal Background (150 points)- Assignment #1: Examining your own culture. Write a narrative essay about your own life (6-8 pages), describing the experiences that have shaped your views of race, culture, and issues of diversity. Reflect on your own experiences in terms of your cultural reference, your family background, your interactions with others unlike yourself, and other factors determined by your own circumstances and your upbringing. In this assignment, you will explore within yourself, and commit to written form, (1) your identity as a learner, (2) how this affects your potential as a teacher, (3) and your identity as a member of a particular cultural/racial/ethnic group. Include SPECIFIC examples of events and situations that you feel shaped your views on these issues. Be sure to situate your examples in the context of assumptions about schooling and education. To the extent possible, relate your experiences to the theory and praxis in readings, class discussions and activities. Be prepared to discuss your assignment within a larger class dialogue (Meets TPE 8, 11, 13). DUE: Week 5 (Sept. 30).
3. Family Background (150 points)- Assignment #2: By researching and studying one's own background it is possible to gain an appreciation about ways in which we share many similarities and differences. In this assignment you are to construct a family 'tree' that includes as much information as you can gather about your family background including religious affiliation, ethnicity, culture, language(s), country of origin, education/occupation and any other information you think is of interest and value. The format you use to illustrate the information is up to you. It can be as formal as a genealogical tree or informal as a narrative. Of course the depth of this report is somewhat limited by time constraints, personal resources and any information you may have collected prior to this assignment. Please indicate these limitations in your report (Meets TPE 8, 11, 13). DUE: Week 8 (Oct. 23).
4. Discussion Board (300 points)- Ongoing: Students are required to participate in the class Bulletin Board (asynchronous). Your discussions should be introspective addressing issues, experiences, ideas, discussions, readings, current events, related to the class. A minimum of one substantial entry per week is expected.
5. Final Presentation (300 points)- Weeks 15 & 16: Each group will select a topic of their choosing on Multicultural Education with a focus on Child Welfare or Foster Care preferred and prepare a 1-hour PowerPoint presentation for the class. Presentations will be done on the last two weeks of class.
