Authorization to Teach English Learners. This credential program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the credential program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing this program receive a credential with authorization to teach English learners.

(approved by CCTC in SB 2042 Program Standards, August 02))

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations. Students are approved for services through the Disabled Student Services Office (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 5205, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

Attendance Policy. Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of EDMS 555, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate in all class activities. For every session of absence, students will lose 6 points. Attendance will be taken during the first 5 minutes of class. Three tardiness or “early exits” will be the equivalence of an absence. A passing grade will not be issued for students who do not attend 80% or more of the class sessions. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible.

Task Stream, TPE's, and Assignments

TPE Reflective Writing for Task Stream:

This course requires that you address the TPE's listed above for your Task Stream Electronic Portfolio. You will address these TPE's by completing course assignments. Completion of the course assignments includes submitting them in the appropriate format to your electronic portfolio. Assessment of your TPE's is directly related to the assessment of your course assignments. You will write summary reflections to be submitted, responded to, and archived via Task Stream.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

1. Interactive Journal & ELD Standards (20 points) (TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity)

A class journal will be maintained for each class session that needs to include the following:

- A written summary and/or description of the topics discussed in class that reflects understanding of the key concepts. Both comments from professor and other students should be reflected in the journal.
- Meta-reflections and/or analysis of key concepts, particularly in terms of the connections that can be made between class discussions and teaching English language learners, with specific examples from student teaching experiences, school observations, or other personal experiences in diverse settings. It is critical that direct connections are made with teaching experiences in the form of anecdotes, case studies, or narratives.

The class journal will be graded according to its comprehensiveness, insightful connections, and “deep understanding” of the issues. The class journal should address instructional concerns, school structures, teaching strategies, and school environments related to social justice and equity in diverse settings.

Ready to Post

Once you receive the comment on your assignment “Ready to Post,” you can place your interactive journal in your portfolio.

ELD Standards Requirement. For the 3rd session of class (6th class session) you will need to search the California Department of Education (CDE) website and download the ELD standards and print a copy for yourself. Please bring the standards to class. You will need to become familiarized with the ELD standards throughout the semester.

TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity

Teacher candidates will be able to identify issues of social justice and equity in the classroom and can apply appropriate instructional strategies to ensure equal outcomes for diverse students. They will be familiar with ideas, definitions, and major theorists in the fields of multicultural education, social reconstruction, and democratic education. Pluralism and divergent perspectives on educating students will be the foundation of designing effective lessons and instructional practices for diverse students. Candidates will understand when and how to collaborate with others, especially curriculum specialists, community leaders, and parents on preparing relevant and appropriate instructional activities, curricular units, and school structures that would provide equitable outcomes for students from different linguistic, cultural, and social economic backgrounds.

2. SDAIE Unit Adaptation (50 points) – TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

Applying the SDAIE criteria discussed in class, include SDAIE activities into an integrated comprehensive unit of study. The SDAIE unit must include at least three content areas, one of which needs to be literacy. (Further instructions will be given in class)

- Do the lessons use visuals, manipulatives, realia, drama, or other techniques that would facilitate understanding?
- Do the instructional strategies take into consideration the varying English proficiencies of language minority students?
- Do the lesson strategies incorporate group collaboration, cooperative learning activities, peer assistance, or other work-group techniques?
- Does the SDAIE Unit Plan incorporate the language and culture of language minority students?
- Does the unit reflect lessons that are challenging and appropriate?
- Does the unit plan include a culminating event?

- Are the community/parents of English learners included in the unit of study?
- Does the unit plan include an assessment component?
- Does the unit plan include a self-reflection component?

You may work in a group of 2-4 students. If you have any questions, please attend office hours or schedule a meeting.

SDAIE Presentation - Present a SDAIE component of your Unit Plan to the class. Each group will have up to 15 minutes to present a SDAIE portion of their Unit Plan.

Reflection - Please provide a 1-3 page reflection on what you learned from this assignment.

Multicultural Literature Mini-Book Activity - With up to 3 other team members, you will have the opportunity to develop a multicultural literacy mini-book activity that will address appropriate literature selections reflecting multicultural perspectives for students in grades K-2 or 3-6. Your multicultural mini-book activity should have the following components. (1) Choose six powerful children's multicultural selections that should be the center of the curriculum for different times throughout the year. (2) This plan should include a brief outline of how the multicultural books will be used throughout the year and a justification (explanation) of the selections made. (3) At least three of the books must be bilingual (English and another language) with a brief discussion of how "primary language support" will be incorporated into the literacy unit. (4) Write one detailed literacy lesson plan that will clearly delineate how every child will be successful by providing universal access to every student (e.g., gifted, English learners, special needs, non-readers, poor).

Further consideration in the formatting of the multicultural literature mini-book activity:

1. Focus of the activity and brief summary of each book.
2. Grade level appropriateness of the activity.
3. Outline/plan of how the books will be used throughout the year.
4. Reading and writing lessons that will identify standards being covered.
5. Identify Assessment strategies: how you will determine they learned what you intended (how you will assess them).
6. Primary language support component of the activity.

Poster Sessions - Tables will be set up to provide space for half the groups to present/display their Multicultural Literature Selection. Other class members will walk around and listen to the discussions on the different books selected.

Note: Dr. Alice Quioco has developed an excellent website with a bibliography of children's literature and multicultural books that could be a great resource for you (<http://www.csusm.edu/Quiocho>).

Reflection: Please provide 1-3 page reflection on what you learned from this assignment?

Lesson Observation - For this assignment you will observe a lesson for English learners during your observation day. You will collect and document evidence of any instructional modifications made to provide comprehensible academic input for the student(s). As part of your write-up, you are to discuss how you would change the lesson/activity in light of the information and knowledge gained in class discussions and readings.

Reflection: Please provide 1-3 page reflection on what you learned from this assignment?

Ready to Post

To be put into Electronic Portfolio when the comment “Ready to Post” is written on SDAIE unit plan.

TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

Candidates for a Teaching Credential know and can apply pedagogical theories, principles, and instructional practices for comprehensive instruction of English learners. They know and can apply theories, principles, and instructional practices for English Language Development leading to comprehensive literacy in English. They are familiar with the philosophy, design, goals, and characteristics of programs for English language development, including structured English immersion. They implement an instructional program that facilitates English language development, including reading, writing, listening and speaking skills, that logically progresses to the grade level reading/language arts program for English speakers. They draw upon information about students’ backgrounds and prior learning, including students’ assessed levels of literacy in English and their first languages, as well as their proficiency in English, to provide instruction differentiated to students’ language abilities. They understand how and when to collaborate with specialists and para-educators to support English language development. Based on appropriate assessment information, candidates select instructional materials and strategies, including activities in the area of visual and performing arts, to develop students’ abilities to comprehend and produce English. They use English that extends students’ current level of development yet is still comprehensible. They know how to analyze student errors in oral and written language in order to understand how to plan differentiated instruction. Candidates for a Teaching Credential know and apply pedagogical theories, principles and practices for the development of academic language, comprehension, and knowledge in the subjects of the core curriculum. They use systematic instructional strategies, including contextualizing key concepts, to make grade-appropriate or advanced curriculum content comprehensible to English learners. They allow students to express meaning in a variety of ways, including in their first language, and, if available, manage first language support such as para-educators, peers, and books. They use questioning strategies that model or represent familiar English grammatical constructions. They make learning strategies explicit. Candidates understand how cognitive, pedagogical, and individual factors affect students’ language acquisition. They take these factors into account in planning lessons for English language development and for academic content.
