The successful candidate will be able to merge theory and practice in order to realize a comprehensive and extensive educational program for all students. You will be required to formally address the following TPEs in this course:

TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

- Understanding and applying theories, principles, and instructional practices for English Language Development
- Understanding how to adapt instructional practices to provide access to the state-adopted student content standards
- Drawing upon student backgrounds and language abilities to provide differentiated instruction

TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity

- Valuing socially equitable teaching, learning, and schooling in a variety of organizational settings
- Incorporating pluralism and divergent perspectives on educating diverse students
- Democratizing public education to achieve social justice and equity

College of Education Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. (Adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997).

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations

Students with disabilities who require reasonable accommodations must be approved for services by providing appropriate and recent documentation to the Office of Disabled Student Services (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 5205, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

Course Requirements

1. Attendance, Professional Disposition, and Class Participation 30 points or 30%

First is the expectation that you will attend all class sessions and participate actively in class activities, group and individual sharing, and discussions. Professional, credentialed educators are evaluated on “performance of non-instructional duties and responsibilities” by their administrators. Punctuality, attendance, collaboration with colleagues, and professionalism fall under this category. Your Professional Disposition is related to how you conduct yourself in class and at a school site. Please see the description below and the CSUSM College of Education’s Mission Statement for guidelines.

CSUSM College of Education Professional Dispositions

The California State University San Marcos College of Education fosters the development of the following professional dispositions among our candidates. Candidates increasingly reflect these dispositions in their work with students, families, and communities.

- Social Justice and Equity: Candidates appreciate the languages, communities, and experiences learners bring to the classroom. Candidates advocate for and support marginalized communities and individuals.
- Collaboration: Candidates learn and practice the skills of collaboration in their coursework and use them in their professional interactions with students, colleagues, parents, caregivers and those in the wider community.
- Critical Thinking: Candidates analyze various professional contexts, resulting in more informed decision making about professional practice.
- Professional Ethics: Candidates learn to make and act on well-reasoned, principled judgments.
- Reflective Teaching and Learning: Candidates critically review their professional practice and the impact it has on student success.
- Life-Long Learning: Candidates are committed to actively seeking new knowledge, skills and experiences throughout their career.

2. SDAIE Lesson Observation

15 points or 15%

For this assignment you will (Part 1) observe an ELD or SDAIE lesson at a school site. You will collect and document evidence of any instructional modifications made during the lesson to provide comprehensible input, build background knowledge, scaffold instruction, address content & language standards and objectives, build vocabulary, adapt the materials/curriculum, and provide student interaction for English learners in the class. (Part 2) In your write-up explain your observations and discuss how (if necessary) you would modify the lesson and/or activities observed in light of the information and knowledge gained in the course.

Your lesson observation should address TPEs 7 and 15 (see rubric).

Please structure your write-up as follows:

- (1) use provided checklist during your observation and attach to your write-up
- (2) identify program (bilingual, sheltered inst., structured immersion, etc.), grade level, & content/subject
- (3) describe how teacher used SDAIE/SJ&E strategies during the lesson
- (4) describe how students were engaged and used second language/SJ&E in the lesson/activities
- (5) analyze if the lesson observed used effective SDAIE/SJ&E strategies, or reflect upon how you would modify the lesson/activities to better serve the needs of the ELLs-remember to use non-evaluative language in your analysis, i.e.: good, bad, poor, awesome, boring, etc.
- (6) proofread: tone, spelling, grammar & punctuation; length 3-5 pages maximum
- (7) submit SDAIE observation write-up to WebCT6 and also bring a hard copy to class

IMPORTANT: Late work will be marked down.

3. Multicultural Resources/Literature Lesson Plan

20 points or 20%

With a partner, you will have the opportunity to collect multicultural resources (books, websites, text sets, etc.), and develop a content standards based lesson plan based on the resources rooted in concepts of social justice and equity for elementary school students. You will address at least 2 ELD levels and include SDAIE strategies to meet the needs of the learners through differentiated instruction.

This assignment must address TPEs 7 & 15.

The following questions should help guide your selection of multicultural resources:

- Does this resource provide English learners access to the core curriculum & ELD language objectives?
- Does this resource help scaffold instruction to attain the content standard in an equitable classroom?
- Does this resource promote social justice and equity?
- Does this resource help your students see themselves & feel as if they are part of the culture of the school?
- How well do all the resources relate/connect to the multicultural theme, content standards, and one another?
- Provide your rationale for your selections. Did you choose purposefully? Do your selections reflect current issues of the day? Add any news stories, reports or articles that prove this.

Please structure your assignment as follows:

Part 1: Lesson Plan 10 points

1. With your partner, choose 5 multicultural resources/literature pieces that address appropriate proficiency and content area knowledge for the students' levels of ELD. The 5 resources should be related to a specific theme, topic, or subject/content standard. You need to incorporate at least one or two of the resources as materials in your lesson and use the rest as supplementary materials to further extend, expand, enrich, or follow-up your lesson.
2. If appropriate, at least two of the resources must be bilingual (English and another language to provide primary language support).
3. With your partner, write a lesson plan that clearly delineates how every student will be a successful learner by providing universal access to diverse students (e.g., differentiation for gifted, English learners (at least 2 ELD levels), special needs, non-readers, emergent/reluctant readers). Please use grouping strategies for use of language through student interaction. Make sure you incorporate content standards, language objectives, and SDAIE strategies.

Part 2: Annotated Bibliography 10 points

This bibliography will be shared with the class. For each of your 5 MC resource/literature pieces, you will write a brief (one paragraph) annotated bibliography in the American Psychological Association (APA) format encompassing:

- a. Appropriate grade level
- b. Appropriate ELD proficiency level(s)
- c. Appropriate content area(s)
- d. Description of the story/text

Refer to the APA website for correct electronic reference listing at <http://www.apastyle.org/electsource.html>.

Note: Dr. Alice Quioco has developed an excellent website with a bibliography of children's literature and multicultural books that could be a great resource for you (<http://www.csusm.edu/Quiocho>).

4. Literature-based SDAIE Social Justice/Equity Thematic Unit 25 points or 25%

Critical Assessment Task (CAT)

For this assignment you will apply the SDAIE methodologies and principles discussed in class to create a SDAIE “unit plan” appropriate for English Language Learners at various proficiency levels (you must address at least 3 ELD levels). You may work in a group of 2-4 students to create the unit and calendar. Together you will design a 4 week interdisciplinary approach for an in depth content standards based thematic study of lessons/activities. Each group member will then write out his/her own SDAIE lesson plans as part of the “unit” for his/her content area. The “unit” is defined as a one week (5 day) development of lessons/activities, which includes one complete SDAIE lesson plan for Monday as stated below, followed by descriptions of activities, differentiated instruction, and assessments related to the main lesson for the following days of the week Tuesday-Friday (see below). Reminder: SDAIE strategies are used to teach English to second language learners through the use of content instruction. Our goal is to teach both, English & content.

Technical Assistance: we will dedicate part of our class sessions to work on the unit plan in your groups and apply what you have learned from the readings, class discussions, and SDAIE observation lesson. As part of your professional disposition grade for the class, you are expected to attend all working sessions and actively participate. Please, bring your Textbook, notes/drafts, standards, and resources in order to use class time effectively.

This assignment must address TPEs 7 and 15 (see rubric).

IMPORTANT: All work due on day of presentations.

Writing requirements for this class will be met as described in the assignments above. Every course at the university, including this one, must have a writing requirement of at least 2500 words. TPE reflection will count toward this requirement.

CSUSM Academic Honesty Policy

"Students will be expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty and integrity, as outlined in the Student Academic Honesty Policy. All written work and oral presentation assignments must be original work. All ideas/materials that are borrowed from other sources must have appropriate references to the original sources. Any quoted material should give credit to the source and be punctuated with quotation marks.

Students are responsible for honest completion of their work including examinations. There will be no tolerance for infractions. If you believe there has been an infraction by someone in the class, please bring it to the instructor's attention. The instructor reserves the right to discipline any student for academic dishonesty in accordance with the general rules and regulations of the university. Disciplinary action may include the lowering of grades and/or the assignment of a failing grade for an exam, assignment, or the class as a whole."

Incidents of Academic Dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students. Sanctions at the University level may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

As an educator, it is expected that each student will do his/her own work, and contribute equally to group projects and processes. Plagiarism or cheating is unacceptable under any circumstances. If you are in doubt about whether your work is paraphrased or plagiarized see the Plagiarism Prevention for Students website <http://library.csusm.edu/plagiarism/index.html>. If there are questions about academic honesty, please consult the University catalog.

Use of Technology:

Students are expected to demonstrate competency in the use of various forms of technology (i.e. word processing, electronic mail, WebCT6, use of the Internet, and/or multimedia presentations). Specific requirements for course assignments with regard to technology are at the discretion of the instructor. Keep a digital copy of all assignments for use in your teaching portfolio. All assignments will be submitted online, and some will be submitted in hard copy as well. Details will be given in class.

Electronic Communication Protocol:

Electronic correspondence is a part of your professional interactions. If you need to contact the instructor, e-mail is often the easiest way to do so. It is my intention to respond to all received e-mails in a timely manner. Please be reminded that e-mail and on-line discussions are a very specific form of communication, with their own nuances and etiquette. For instance, electronic messages sent in all upper case (or lower case) letters, major typos, or slang; often communicate more than the sender originally intended. With that said, please be mindful of all e-mail and on-line discussion messages you send to your colleagues, to faculty members in the College of Education, or to persons within the greater educational community. All electronic messages should be crafted with professionalism and care.

Things to consider:

- Would I say in person what this electronic message specifically says?
- How could this message be misconstrued?
- Does this message represent my highest self?
- Am I sending this electronic message to avoid a face-to-face conversation?

In addition, if there is ever a concern with an electronic message sent to you, please talk with the author in person in order to correct any confusion.
