School of Education Mission Statement

The mission of the School of Education Community is to collaboratively transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators and advancing professional practices. We are committed to diversity, educational equity, and social justice, exemplified through reflective teaching, life-long learning, innovative research and on-going service. Our practices demonstrate a commitment to student-centered education, diversity, collaboration, professionalism, and shared governance. (Adopted by COE Governance Community, October, 1997).

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores the theoretical, empirical, pedagogical and sociocultural issues inherent in schooling contexts where multiple languages and cultures exist. Topics include the examination of home, community and school cultures; issues of bilingualism; and instructional contexts which relate to literacy and learning. It explores the relationships between the school context and the implicit and explicit theoretical foundations that support instruction for students who are first and second language learners, and the implications of such instruction.

Course Objectives

The purpose of this course is to:

- Explore home, community and school cultures.
- Research issues of bilingualism and multilingualism.
- Understand and develop instructional contexts which relate to literacy and learning.

This course has an on-line component. The following class sessions will take place on-line on Cougar Courses: Sessions 3 (Sept. 15), 8 (Oct. 20), and 12 (Nov. 17)

This course is aligned to the following standard for the California Teachers of English Learners (CTEL) Certificate Program leading to CLAD certification:

Standard 6: Assessment of English Learners

The program provides candidates with opportunities to develop conceptual research-based understanding of standards-based assessment of English learners' academic progress. Coursework requires candidates to analyze the role, purposes, and features of various formative and summative assessments and to evaluate the benefits and limitations of specific formal and informal assessments for use with English Learners, including evaluating assessment instruments and methods for cultural and linguistic bias. Coursework also requires candidates to learn how to differentiate and scaffold assessments for and to provide feedback to English Learners. The program also requires candidates to interpret and use the results of assessments to help English learners achieve success in standards-based language curriculum and in content area instruction.

This course is also aligned with the following California Standards of Program Quality and Effectiveness for the Teacher Preparation Programs for Preliminary Multiple and Single Subject Teaching Credentials for the “Add On” Level I Education Specialist Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe credential candidates without AB 2042 or CLAD authorization:

Standard 7a: Multiple Subject Reading, Writing, and Related Language Instruction in English

The professional preparation program provides substantive, research-based instruction that effectively prepares each candidate for a Multiple Subject (MS) Teaching Credential to deliver a comprehensive program of systematic instruction in reading, writing and related language arts aligned with the state adopted English Language Arts Academic Content Standards for Students and the Reading/Language Arts Framework. The program provides candidates with systematic and explicit instruction in teaching basic reading skills, including comprehension strategies, for all students, including students with varied reading levels and language backgrounds. The Multiple Subject preparation program includes a significant practical experience component in reading, writing, and language arts that is connected to the content of coursework and that takes place throughout the program during each candidate's field experience(s), internship(s), and/or student teaching assignment(s). The preparation program provides each candidate for a Multiple Subject Teaching Credential with experience in a classroom where beginning reading is taught. The program places all candidates in field experience sites and student teaching assignments with teachers whose instructional approaches and methods in reading are consistent with a comprehensive, systematic program, and who collaborate with institutional supervisors and instructors.

Standard 13: Preparation to Teach English Learners

In the professional teacher preparation program all candidates have multiple systematic opportunities to acquire the knowledge, skills and abilities to deliver comprehensive instruction to English learners. Candidates learn about state and federal legal requirements for the placement and instruction of English learners. Candidates demonstrate knowledge and application of pedagogical theories, principles and practices for English Language Development leading to comprehensive literacy in English, and for the development of academic language, comprehension and knowledge in the subjects of the core curriculum. Candidates learn how to implement an instructional program that facilitates English language acquisition and development, including receptive and productive language skills, and that logically progresses to the grade level reading/language arts program for English speakers. Candidates acquire and demonstrate the ability to utilize assessment information to diagnose students' language abilities, and to develop lessons that promote students' access to and achievement in the state-adopted academic content standards. Candidates learn how cognitive, pedagogical and individual factors affect student's language acquisition.

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Outcomes and Standards

The context and scope of this course are aligned with CTEL Standards as articulated by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC), and as approved by the faculty of the School of Education. Further consideration has been given to the alignment of standards for multicultural education as articulated by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), and the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS).

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations

Students with disabilities who require reasonable accommodations must be approved for services by providing appropriate and recent documentation to the Office of Disable Student Services (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 4300, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

CSUSM Academic Honesty Policy

“Students will be expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty and integrity, as outlined in the Student Academic Honesty Policy. All written work and oral presentation assignments must be original work. All ideas/materials that are borrowed from other sources must have appropriate references to the original sources. Any quoted material should give credit to the source and be punctuated with quotation marks.

Students are responsible for honest completion of their work including examinations. There will be no tolerance for infractions. If you believe there has been an infraction by someone in the class, please bring it to the instructor’s attention. The instructor reserves the right to discipline any student for academic dishonesty in accordance with the general rules and regulations of the university. Disciplinary action may include the lowering of grades and/or the assignment of a failing grade for an exam, assignment, or the class as a whole. Incidents of Academic Dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students. Sanctions at the University level may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism

As an educator, it is expected that each student will do his/her own work, and contribute equally to group projects and processes. Plagiarism or cheating is unacceptable under any circumstances. If you are in doubt about whether your work is paraphrased or plagiarized see the Plagiarism Prevention for Students website <http://library.csusm.edu/plagiarism/index.html>. If there are questions about academic honesty, please consult the University catalog.

Appeals

Every student has the right to appeal grades, or appeal for redress of grievances incurred in the context of any class. Disputes may be resolved informally with the professor, or through the formal grades appeal process. For the latter, consult Dr. Prado-Olmos, Associate Dean.

Writing

In keeping with the All-University Writing Requirement, all 3 unit courses must have a writing component of at least 2,500 words (approximately 10 pages) which can be administered in a variety of ways.

Graduate Writing Requirements

The California State University maintains a Graduation Writing Assessment Requirement (GWAR) for master's students, to be completed before Advancement to Candidacy can be approved. A student may satisfy the graduate writing requirement in one of two ways: an acceptable standardized test score, or a paper that receives a passing score as described in the GWAR rubric. Toward the goal of providing opportunity for graduate students in the College of Education to satisfy the writing requirement, all papers in all graduate classes must adhere to the rules of style (for writing and format style) detailed in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th Ed. (2009). This is a required textbook for all CSUSM SoE graduate courses.

School of Education Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the School of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. (Adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

NOTE: I RESERVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE, ADD TO, OR DELETE ANY MATERIAL OR ASSIGNMENT FROM THE COURSE.

This course is structured as a graduate-level seminar. The success of a seminar is dependent upon each and every participant being prepared. My role will be to “facilitate” and to intervene as necessary to prompt a topic. I do not intend to lecture each week, or to be the focus of the class. You will work to develop your knowledge base through the readings, discussions and presentations.

Required Texts

Perez, B. (2004). Sociocultural Contexts of Language and Literacy, 2nd Edition. Mahwah, NJ: Lawrence Erlbaum Associates.

Zentella, A. (2005). Building on Strength: Language and Literacy in Latino Families and Communities. New York, NY: Teachers College Press.

Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th Ed. (2009)

Selected articles/internet resources will be made available on Cougar Courses

Grading Policy

All assignments are due on the dates indicated below. Assignments turned in late will not receive full credit. Please manage your time and plan accordingly. Assignments must be typewritten, double-spaced and with standard margins unless completed in class. Written assignments will be graded approximately 80% on content and context (detail, logic, synthesis of information, depth of analysis, etc.) and 20% on mechanics (grammar, syntax, spelling, format, uniformity of citations, etc.). All assignments should reflect graduate level composition and use APA 6th Ed. format.

The following grading scale will be used and has been modified to reflect this semester's furlough requirement:

93 – 100	A	77 – 79	C+
90 – 92	A-	73 – 76	C
87 – 89	B+	70 – 72	C-
83 – 86	B	60 – 69	D
80 – 82	B-	59 – 0	F

- 1. Attendance and Class Participation 15 points*
You are expected to attend all class sessions and participate actively in discussions and activities. In order to do so, you are expected to complete all required readings by the assigned date. According to the School of Education Attendance Policy, at a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Missing more than one class session will result in the reduction of your grade. Being consistently late and/or leaving class early can also lower your grade. This pertains also to online classes via Cougar Courses.
DUE: Ongoing (6 out of the 15 possible points for attendance and class participation are earned through Posting / Analysis / Discussion of Assigned Readings during online Cougar Courses Sessions 3, 8 and 12).
- 2. Reading Discussion Leader 10 points*
Individually or in pairs, students will lead a class discussion on two of the required readings. Students should summarize key findings and identify 2-3 critical questions from the readings to lead the discussion. All students will submit their questions at the beginning of the class in which they lead the discussion. The amount of time for each Reading Discussion Leader to facilitate class discussion will be limited. Reading Discussion Leaders should focus on developing questions which will address the critical issues of the reading that are directly applicable to the objectives of this course.
DUE: Throughout the semester – Sign-up List is available in class
- 3. Article Reports 10 points*
Individually or in pairs, students will lead a small group discussion on an article, book chapter, research report, etc. focusing on the sociocultural context of language, language use, and/or learning. Students can choose the aspects they wish to highlight for the discussion, as well as the format for presenting.
DUE: Sessions 9 and 10 – Sign-up List is available in class
- 4. Essay: What is English language development? 10 points*
For this assignment you will attempt to define language on both a theoretical and a personal level. This is an opportunity for you to express your personal feelings, but also to synthesize and discuss some of the readings that relate to language and literacy, as well as contexts at your school site. The following questions may help you focus your thoughts or you can pose and respond to your own questions about language:

- How would you define language?
- Can you define English language development?
- How is language development affected by the social context?
- What kinds of contexts affect language development?
- What are materials, methods and strategies used to support English proficiency?
- What is a language difference versus a disability?
- What is the relationship between language and self esteem?
- Is there thought without language? (Perspectives on Autism)

DUE: Session 2

5. Analysis and Application of An English Learner's Assessment Data 15 points

Identify one English Learner in your class (or at your school) for whom you will holistically examine their backgrounds, their schooling experiences (academic, social, linguistic), with a focus on assessment information on your student. Your write-up should include an analysis of the following information that you have gathered on your English Learner:

- Obtain background information on your English Learner. What do you know about your student's life, family, community, culture, peer group, schooling history, learning styles, disability information, and other relevant information to help you best address your student's educational needs.
- Obtain as much testing data on your English Learner as you can. Include standardized test scores – CST, CELDT, etc. as well as your in-class assessments. What is your analysis of the cultural and/or linguistic biases that may be present in the testing data you have obtained?
- Obtain explanations for the scoring of the standardized test data that you collected. What objectives were being tested? How are the scores reported? How are the scores used at your school site – by administrators and by teachers? Are the scores used to determine placement?
- Obtain information on how authentic and other in-class assessments are scored? For example if a reading inventory is used, what process was used? What was the rate of administration? What other types of formative and/or summative assessments were used? Running records? Checklists? Rubrics? What criteria was the English Learner assessed on? Were the assessments equitable in comparison to native-English speakers?
- What other information can you obtain that would help you analyze your English Learner's assessment data – other support the student receives? Special program(s) (i.e. intervention, Special Education, tutorial) the student is involved in? How long? Who referred him/her? Why? If the child is in a special program is there progress monitoring being conducted to assess student's progress and effectiveness of program? What data do you have regarding these program(s)?

DUE: Sessions 3 (Background Information) and 8

Successful completion of this assignment fulfills CTEL requirements for Standard 6. Students must post this assignment to their CTEL Portfolio as evidence they have met this standard.

- 6     Literature Review: Sociocultural Contexts of Language and Learning     40 points
If you are taking this course for CTEL certification, one of the themes you write about must address English learners with a focus on assessment issues
 Using the annotated bibliographies collected in EDUC 602 and the articles, book chapters, research reports presented in class, you will analyze the resources and identify themes. As themes emerge, you will begin to organize resources you will use in a Literature Review. Your Literature Review will focus on the sociocultural aspects of language and learning that we have discussed throughout the course. Complete an 8 to 10-page paper focusing the categories identified, dividing them into sections as you would in a literature review of a thesis or project using the rubric provided. Resources must be cited and referenced according to APA criteria. A scoring rubric will be developed in class. Prepare a final PowerPoint presentation to present to class highlighting your Literature Review.
- a) Themes identified with articles and ideas: DUE: Session 10 (5 points)*
  - b) Final draft of one section: DUE: Session 11 (5 points)*
  - c) Final Paper: DUE Session 15 (20 points)*
  - d) Final Presentation: DUE Session 15 (10 points)*

OR

Literature Review: Supporting English Learners With and Without Disabilities
40 points

Alternative Assignment Required for “Add On” Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe Education Specialist Credential Candidates without AB 2042 Preliminary Credentials or a CTEL Certificate

Using websites, articles, book chapters, research reports (see sample articles, sites, and books provided by the instructor) develop a menu of supports and services that enable English learners with and without disabilities to access the core curriculum in inclusive educational settings. Include in the review a) the use of expertise of specialists and support personnel (e.g., paraprofessionals) and b) school-base structures and organizations that support English learners and students eligible for Special Education. As categories of supports emerge, organize them as you would in a thesis’ Chapter 2: Literature Review. The final product is an 8 to 10-page paper organized by categories and written using APA-format conventions. Resources must be cited and referenced in APA format. A scoring rubric will be developed in class. Prepare a final PowerPoint presentation to present to class highlighting your Literature Review.

- a) Categories identified with articles and sources: DUE: Session 10 (5 points)*
- b) Final draft of one section: DUE: Session 11 (5 points)*
- c) Final Paper: DUE Session 15 (20 points)*
- d) Final Presentation: DUE Session 15 (10 points)*
