SCHOOL OF EDUCATION MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the School of Education Community is to collaboratively transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators and advancing professional practices. We are committed to *diversity, *educational equity, and *social justice, exemplified through *reflective teaching, *life-long learning, *innovative research, and *ongoing service. Our practices demonstrate a commitment to *student-centered education, *diversity, *collaboration, *professionalism, and *shared governance. (adopted by SOE Governance Community October, 1997)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Required of all credential candidates. This course explores cultural and linguistic diversity as critical variables in achieving educational equity for all students. Major units include intensive theoretical and practical articulation of culture and cultural pluralism; educational issues of race, class, gender, language, ethnicity, sexual orientation and exceptionality; social, structural, programmatic and curricular issues; and effective teaching for diverse populations.

Strong oral and written communication skills, information literacy, and technology are required of professional educators; therefore, these components are emphasized as methods to be used in completing course requirements.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students completing EDUC 364 will be able to demonstrate the following:

- developing competencies in TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity (see below);
- understanding of various concepts of culture and cultural contact, and their applicability to learning and teaching;
- understanding of cultural diversity in the United States and California;
- general familiarity with culturally responsive pedagogy;
- understanding of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender students, teachers and families.

AUTHORIZATION TO TEACH ENGLISH LEARNERS

In 1992, the School of Education voted to infuse Cross-cultural, Language and Academic Development (CLAD) competencies across the curriculum. The CLAD competencies are attached to the syllabus and the competencies covered in this course are highlighted. As of 2002, the CLAD competencies are collectively referred to as an authorization to teach English Learners.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES REQUIRING REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Students with disabilities requiring reasonable accommodations must be approved for services through the Disabled Student Services Office (DSS). This office is located at Craven Hall 4300, and the contact numbers are 760-750-4905 (tel) and 760-750-4909 (TTY). Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor on or before the first week of class.

TEACHER PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION (TPE) COMPETENCIES

This course is designed to help teachers seeking the Multiple or Single Subject(s) Credential to develop the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to assist schools and districts in implementing an effective program for all students. The successful candidate will be able to merge theory and practice in order to realize a comprehensive and extensive educational program for all students. The course objectives, assignments, and assessments have been aligned with the CCTC standards for the Multiple and Single Subject(s) Credential. You can incorporate artifacts from this class into your final comprehensive portfolio.

The following TPE is addressed in this course: TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity. Teacher candidates will be able to identify issues of social justice and equity in the classroom and apply appropriate instructional strategies to ensure equal outcomes for diverse students. They will be familiar with ideas, definitions, and major theorists in the fields of multicultural education, social reconstruction, and democratic education. Pluralism and divergent perspectives on educating students will be the foundation of designing effective lessons and instructional practices for diverse students. Candidates will understand when and how to collaborate with others, especially curriculum specialists, community leaders, and parents on preparing relevant and appropriate instructional activities, curricular units, and school structures that would provide equitable outcomes for students from different linguistic, cultural, and social economic backgrounds.

California Teacher Performance Assessment (CalTPA)

Beginning July 1, 2008 all California credential candidates must successfully complete a state-approved system of teacher performance assessment (TPA), to be embedded in the credential program of preparation. At CSUSM this assessment system is called the CaITPA or the TPA for short.

To assist your successful completion of the TPA a series of informational seminars are offered over the course of the program. TPA related questions and logistical concerns are to be addressed during the seminars. Your attendance to TPA seminars will greatly contribute to your success on the assessment.

Additionally, SOE classes use common pedagogical language, lesson plans (lesson designs), and unit plans (unit designs) in order to support and ensure your success on the TPA and more importantly in your credential program.

The CalTPA Candidate Handbook, TPA seminar schedule, and other TPA support materials can be found on the SOE website provided at the website provided: http://www.csusm.edu/education/CalTPA/ProgramMaterialsTPA.html

ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Governance Community of the School Of Education adopted the following policy on 12/19/1997: Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the School of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible.

This course deals with complex material processed in a variety of ways. Structured interactions, group processes, oral presentations, guided discussion of readings, and self-disclosure exercises are the norm. Given the fast-paced and highly interactive nature of the course, and given that teaching and learning is difficult (if not impossible) without regular attendance and full engagement in class, the above School Policy is amplified as follows:

Your attendance and participation are basic to your learning and my evaluation of your learning in this class. You are expected to establish appropriate personal, academic and career priorities to facilitate said attendance and participation in this class.

*Your grade will be negatively affected by absences and positively affected by regular attendance. You will lose 10 points for each tardy or early departure, and 50 points for each absence, explained or unexplained. One absence may be made up with approval.

**Illness and emergency circumstances will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis.

These measures are intended to encourage responsibility for one's own learning in a democratic, collaborative and reciprocal-learning environment.

GRADING

Grading Scale: A=930-100, A=900-929, B=870-899, B=830-869, B= 800-829, C=770-799, C=730-769, C=700-729, D=670-699, D=630-669, D=600-629, F=599 or lower. Students taking EDUC 364 as a prerequisite for teacher credential and graduate programs are reminded that the SCHOOL OF EDUCATION requires completion of this course with a C+ or higher for these purposes.

Attendance & Participation: You are expected to read course materials prior to class meetings and participate in group and class discussions both on Moodle prior to class and in face-to-face class sessions.

Communication: You are expected to use Moodle/coursemail and the web on a regular basis. You must log in regularly to Moodle and obtain a university email address / user ID no later than during the first week of class so that I can add you to my Moodle/coursemail list. Essential and time-sensitive information may be conveyed via Moodle/coursemail, and you are responsible for obtaining this information from each other or from the professor.

Submission of Coursework: All work needs to be submitted on Moodle under the appropriate Assignment module. All regular / core assignments (i.e., all work EXCEPT Moodle tasks) also needs to be submitted in paper format to be graded. Any work submitted late receives no credit. (Individual exceptions due to emergencies or catastrophes only will be negotiated on an individual basis.)

Grading Emphasis: Each written assignment will be graded approximately 80% on content and writing (detail, logic, synthesis of information, depth of analysis, etc.), and up to 20% on mechanics (grammar, syntax, spelling, format, uniformity of citation, etc.). You are expected to write at or above the minimum competency level for writing. All citations need to use APA format, 6th edition, released in 2009.

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Professional Disposition and Behavior at All Times: Respect, professionalism, and when appropriate, charity, are necessary for a positive, healthy learning environment. All students are entitled to their opinions. Students demonstrating negative attitudes and /or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated under any circumstances and will be referred immediately to the University Dean of Student Affairs and/or the CoEHHS Associate Dean. Grades and course credit may be affected by inappropriate professional dispositions and/or behavior. See Self-Evaluation for criteria of professional disposition, to be completed at the beginning and end of the semester.

Outcomes and Standards: This course is aligned with the standards for the Cross-cultural Language and Academic Development (CLAD) endorsement, as articulated by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing, and as approved by the faculty of the SCHOOL OF EDUCATION. (Note: As of 2002, the CLAD competencies are collectively referred to as an authorization to teach English Learners. Further consideration has been given to the alignment of standards for multicultural education as articulated by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), and the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS). Emphasis is placed on learning outcomes (what you know and can demonstrate) rather than on inputs (putting in "seat time", meeting minimum criteria for assignments, checking off tasks and activities), and how these outcomes correspond to your potential to enhance student learning as a new teacher.

Academic Honesty: It is expected that each student will do his or her own work, and contribute equitably to group processes and projects. If there is any question about academic honesty, consult the University Catalog.

Appeals: Every student has the right to appeal grades, or appeal for redress of grievances incurred in the context of any course. Disputes may be resolved informally with the professor, or through the formal appeal process. For the latter, consult Dr. Patricia Prado-Olmos, Associate Dean, CoEHHS.

Ability: Every student has the right to an equitable education and appropriate accommodations. Students having differing ability (mobility, sight, hearing, documented learning challenges, first language/English as a second language) are requested to contact the professor at the earliest opportunity. Every effort will be made to accommodate special needs. Students are reminded of the availability of Disabled Student Services, the Writing Center, technology assistance in the computer labs, and other student support services available as part of appropriate accommodations for special needs students. Students may be required to use the Writing Center or similar resource for all written assignments, based on performance on the first writing assignment.

(300 points) Attendance; preparedness with readings and leading a discussion prior to class; as well as active, engaged discussions and participation in class all fall into this category. Students will post comments on readings and current issues (optional) as they relate to each session's topic on Moodle PRIOR TO class. Your comments need to directly quote, reflect on, and analyze your readings.

Β. Discussion Leader (50 points). For each discussion topic (some sessions will have more than one topic), one or two students will be responsible for posing critical thinking questions to the class, and reviewing and summarizing the other students' comments **prior to** the session in which the topic will be discussed.

C. PORTFOLIO

1. Self-Evaluation (Beginning/20 pts, end of term/20 pts) 40 points Due Session 3, 15

2. Guided Moodle Task: The Irish in America 0 points Due Session 3 First, watch any volume of the Irish in America film series at the Media Library or on Moodle via Video on Demand. Then, write a short (one or two paragraphs) response to the following question: What does this film reveal about the social, historical and psychological construction of the white racial or ethnic group in the U.S.?

Personal History Narrative. 3. Write a narrative essay about your own life, describing the experiences that have shaped your views of race, culture, and issues of diversity.

Reflect on and describe your own experiences in terms of the following: a.

*your family background;

*your positionality / membership: i.e., your reference points & identity in terms of gender/sexuality, culture, ethnicity/race, class, language, religion, etc.;

*your exposure to and interactions with others unlike yourself; and

*other factors you would like to include, as determined by your unique circumstances and upbringing.

In addition, explore and describe b.

*your identity as a learner (a confident student; had trouble with writing; etc.)

*how this may affect your potential as a teacher (will have high expectations of students; etc.)

Include SPECIFIC examples of events and situations that you feel shaped your views on these issues. Be sure to situate your examples, i.e., provide context and explicitly detail any assumptions about schooling and education. To the extent possible, relate your experiences to anticipated course topics, readings and discussions. Be prepared to discuss your assignment with the class (small and/or whole group).

Family Tree Assignment: 4.

By researching and studying one's own background, it is possible to gain an appreciation of our unique heritage as an American, and also prepare to discuss the unique heritage and history of other Americans. First, construct a genealogical family 'tree' covering e.g., grandson to grandfather levels. Second, for each person on the tree, write a few descriptors (bulleted outlines are also acceptable), including as much information as you can gather (e.g., vocation, religious affiliation, ethnicity, culture, language(s), country of origin, education/occupation and any other information that may be of interest and value). Third, write a response to the following questions: How does your family fit into mainstream U.S. culture? (**Note: You MUST use Ogbu's terms such as primary and secondary cultural characteristics, voluntary and involuntary immigration, etc.) What processes of change and assimilation or acculturation do you notice through the generations in your family's history? Has your family's status or identity changed over the generations? Why? What are some positive and negative experiences your family has had related to your family's role or status in the U.S.?

Format: tree graphic + info on about 10 people in at least three generations + a paragraph for each of the final series of questions above.

5. Moodle Task: Video, Smoke Signals or In the White Man's Image 40 points Due Session 6

Watch either of these two films. Then, write a short (one or two paragraphs) response to the following questions: What does this film reveal about the social and historical construction of the white vs. nonwhite (in this case, Native American) racial or ethnic groups in the U.S.? How were premises about the inferiority of Native Americans used to justify racist policies (give specific examples from the Spring book reading.)

Due Session 3

Due Session 5

1. Today's task consists of two activities, a web search on religious institutions in your neighborhood of choice and watching a film on a religion that you are unfamiliar with.

** Activity A. Using yahoo or other search engine, map out the various religious buildings and organizations (churches, temples, mosques, etc.) in your neighborhood. The map needs to be done on a regular size sheet of paper, and not on a giant poster board. Yahoo.com will map out the neighborhood religious buildings for you -- you do a search for the terms, "[city of choice] + churches, temples, etc." and hit return, and mapping out your results will be one of your choices. Save the vahoo or similar web page as an html. document and upload. If this does NOT work, do not panic. Just include your religious buildings in your writeup.

** Activity B. Watch any film of your choice that addresses a religion that you are not familiar with. The film can be a Hollywood piece or a documentary. There is a film on reserve at the Media Library, "Islam Today," for your convenience.

2. Writeup. Respond to the following two questions. You can either outline your responses or compose a paragraph for each question response.

** Question 1. Discuss the ways in which these various religions might effect public education. For example, how might religions impact the school calendar and schedule, menu, curriculum, activities, etc.? On a related note, what can be done if different religions have conflicting views about holidays, schedules, etc.? Give specific examples as much as possible. **Incorporate the neighborhood map you worked on AND your film of choice on religion into your writeup. E.g., if you see a Jewish temple on either your website or in the film you chose, you might reflect that Christmas is not celebrated by Jews, and that public schools might teach students about a variety of celebrations such as Hanukkah, Kwaanza, Christmas, and Ramadan; and further, that the winter break be called just that, Winter Break, not Christmas vacation.

**Question 2. What is the difference between proselytizing and educating about various religions? To your knowledge and/or in your experience, what types of lessons on religion are reflected in the standards across different content areas, and to what extent are non-Christian religions adequately and fairly represented in the curriculum?

7. Moodle Task: Class: CBEDS / DataQuest 40 points Due Session 7 Look up a school of your choice on the CBEDS or DataQuest web site, located at http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/. Examine and analyze the languages spoken in the district, the test scores, the number of gualified teachers, the types of programs the school offers, etc. In your writeup, consider... How does class or socioeconomic status interact with the foregoing factors? Tutor Connection Participants: This writeup needs to relate to your foster student as appropriate, i.e., to the extent possible.

8. World Language TV Assignment 40 points Due Session 8 Watch an hour of a film in a language that you have no knowledge of. In your writeup describe the following. A. How did you feel? (Frustrated, engaged, etc.) B. What helped you comprehend this new language? (Visuals, facial expressions, music, background knowledge - familiar genre or familiar words, etc.) C. Based on part B. consider....what type of instructional strategies can teachers use that English learners might benefit from and make subject matter comprehensible?

9. Moodle Task: Exceptionality (Parts I, 30 pts and II, 30 pts) 60 points Due Session 9 Moodle tasks should take about the equivalent of class time. Accordingly, you should spend about 90 minutes on this task (review of websites and response to each question below) + 30 to 60 minutes on the video. Tutor Connection Participants: This writeup needs to relate to your foster student as appropriate, i.e., to the extent possible.

PART I – SPECIAL EDUCATION CATEGORIES - Go to the state DataQuest website (search under google.com for cde DataQuest and it will show up or go to http://dg.cde.ca.gov/ dataguest/. Then, investigate the following: 1. What categories of special education services are there? Read the various categories of services and consider the following questions. You can also refer to the How Difficult Can This Be? FAT City video for disability categories. 1a. What do you think are some pros and cons of mainstreaming (placing students of special education in mainstream classes)? 1b. Have you seen any mainstreaming firsthand? What kind of anti-bias education issues might be necessary for both the mainstream students and the students receiving special education services for mainstreaming to be successful? 2. The state has data on special education and ethnicity. Click on this category. What do you notice about the proportion of particular ethnicities in special education services relative to the proportion of these ethnicities in the general student population? In other words, which groups are "overrepresented"? Why might these groups be overrepresented?

PART II – Intelligence & Testing. 1. Also on DataQuest, review the mandatory tests (SAT or STAR) and their test components and testing schedule. 2. Select and review the reporting of these tests for your local school district. What do you notice concerning these test scores along major groups (ethnicity, gender, etc.) ? What in your opinion are the pros and cons of increased testing under No Child Left Behind, the federal legislation enacted by the current administration?

[ NOT DUE THIS SEMESTER - Moodle Task: Gender Assignment ]

Choose two out of the following three options. Option 1: Review a curriculum component (textbook, film, or visual work, etc.) that addresses a diverse (i.e., different from mainstream heterosexual) gender / sexuality / family composition perspective. How is the piece inclusive /exclusive? Be sure to cite appropriate data. E.g., You might cite the number of single parent households as the rationale for reviewing a book about a single parent family. See Moodle/Resources or http://www.census.gov/hhes/income/earnings/earnings.html for Census data. Option 2: Using the White Privilege article as a template, write a list of Heterosexual Privilege. Include privileges that heterosexuals enjoy (e.g., I can read a book required for school and know with certainty that the book will reflect experiences of heterosexual identity.) that students of other sexual orientations or families with nonheterosexual members cannot. Option 3: Describe how your 1. life, 2. education, and 3. occupation would be different if you were of a different gender or sexuality. Be sure to fully address all three questions on how your life and educational / occupational choices may differ as a fe/male? ** This needs to be an expository piece with citations. (E.g., If I were male instead of female, I imagine many things would change. For example, I would earn 25% more [Census, 2000])

10.Film or Book Review: Multicultural / Multiracial Identities40 pointsDue Session 13

Select and watch any film of your choice having to do with either bi/multicultural or bi/multiracial identity. Some options are A Family Thing, The Pursuit of Happyness, Bend It Like Beckham, Come See the Paradise, Joy Luck Club, Mi Familia, Goal! The Dream Begins and Remember the Titans. Or, select a book of your choice, such as Encounters by Jane Yolen, House on Mango Street by Sandra Cisneros, Growing Up Asian American by Maria Hong, Finding My Hat, etc. Then, write a reflection (1 page) connecting the film to Ogbu's notion of primary and secondary cultural characteristics, AND to one or more of the articles read this semester, as appropriate. Tutor Connection Participants: This writeup needs to relate to your foster student as appropriate, i.e., to the extent possible.

11.Reflection on Personal History Narrative50 pointsDue Session 15Suggested length: 2 pages

Consider your first reflective narrative from the beginning of the semester. Are there any changes you would make to the story? Have you remembered or reinterpreted particular events throughout this semester, or have particular events taken place since the beginning of the term that have led you to reflect on some critical themes in this course? In what ways have your voice and perspective changed? Sometimes, the changes will be subtle, as in choosing to use the terms Asian American or Latino rather than Oriental or Hispanic for specific purposes. Or, the changes may be dramatic. In this assignment, you will document your new reflections concerning your personal narrative, as a result of having critically examined the major issues covered in this course.

***The narrative needs to directly address TPE 15, Social Justice and Equity. See first part of this syllabus for more info on TPE 15.***

Tutor Connection Participants: This writeup needs to relate to your foster student as appropriate, i.e., to the extent possible.

12. Outcome Assessment

Suggested length: 2 – 3 pages

Describe the following, *** keeping in mind the focus needs to be on TPE 15, Social Justice and Equity.

a. A select few of the most important things you learned in this class; (continued on next page)

b. How you knew you were learning something of significance (assessing your own learning – cite specific readings, discussions, films, activities, community activities, etc.);

100 points

c. How this will shape your attitudes and demonstrated behaviors as a teacher or in future intercultural interaction;

i.e., how you will demonstrate overall "cultural competence" (as this definition is developed in class). Grading emphasis will be placed on your ability to articulate the select topics of your choice, the depth of reflective analysis, your description of how you knew what you were learning (specific examples from the course: cognitive – facts, knowledge bases, content areas; behavioral – speech and actions; and affective – attitudes), and the connections you make between the topics and plans for your future growth & professional practice. Tutor Connection Participants: This writeup needs to relate to your foster student as appropriate, i.e., to the extent possible.

Other Possible Assignments – Extra Credit or Makeup Work for Emergencies or Catastrophes Only Check with the professor re: doing any of the following as a Makeup Assignment:

Interview with a Parent of an English Learner: Ask about details about this option. An interview protocol is available for you to use.

Community events: Write a critical response to a community event you participated in, or provide a video/visual of the event with a brief analysis.

Article reviews: Write a critical response to current articles related to the topics covered in this course.
