Authorization to Teach English Learners

This credential program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the credential program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing the program receive a credential with authorization to teach English learners. (Approved by CCTC in SB2042 Program Standards – August 2002).

Student Learning Outcomes

Teacher Performance Expectation (TPE) Competencies:

The course objectives, assignments, and assessments have been aligned with the CTC standards for the Multiple and Single Subject(s) Credential. This course is designed to help teachers develop the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to assist schools and district in implementing effective programs for all students. The successful candidate will be able to merge theory and practice in order to realize a comprehensive and extensive educational program for all students. The following TPE is addressed in this course:

TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity

- Valuing socially equitable teaching, learning, and schooling in a variety of organizational settings
- Incorporating pluralism and divergent perspectives on educating diverse students
- Democratizing public education to achieve social justice and equity

California Teacher Performance Assessment (CalTPA):

Beginning July 1, 2008 all California credential candidates must successfully complete a state-approved system of teacher performance assessment (TPA), to be embedded in the credential program of preparation. At CSUSM this assessment system is called the CalTPA or the TPA for short.

Course: Elementary Level Multilingual Education, EDMS 555

To assist your successful completion of the TPA a series of informational seminars are offered over the course of the program. TPA related questions and logistical concerns are to be addressed during the seminars. Your attendance to TPA seminars will greatly contribute to your success on the assessment.

Additionally, COE classes use common pedagogical language, lesson plans (lesson designs), and unit plans (unit designs) in order to support and ensure your success on the TPA and more importantly in your credential program.

The CalTPA Candidate Handbook, TPA seminar schedule, and other TPA support materials can be found on the COE website provided at the website provided:

<http://lynx.csusm.edu/coe/CalTPA/CalTPAdocuments.asp>

College of Education Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. (Adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997).

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations:

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

1. Attendance, Professional Disposition, and Class Participation 10 points

First is the expectation that you will attend all class sessions prepared to actively participate in class activities, group and individual sharing, and discussions on various topics and assigned reading. Professional, credentialed educators are evaluated on “performance of non-instructional duties and responsibilities” by their administrators. Punctuality, attendance, collaboration with colleagues, and professionalism fall under this category. Your Professional Disposition is related to how you conduct yourself in class and at a school site. Please communicate any attendance issues directly with the instructor. Please see the description below and the CSUSM College of Education’s Mission Statement for guidelines.

Course: Elementary Level Multilingual Education, EDMS 555

2. ELL/Immigrant Interview

15 points

The purpose of this assignment is to better understand the life of an English language learner and/or immigrant living in our country. You will interview an individual who has learned or is learning English as a second language. This adult person can be a fellow student, someone you know, or someone you seek out. Through the interview process, you will find out how the person acquired/is acquiring English and any challenges/successes faced by immigrants as they learn a new language and culture. Guideline for the interview questions and a rubric for scoring this assignment will be shared in class. Assignment will be submitted in class; length 2-3 pages maximum. More information on the criteria and expectations of this assignment will be explained in detail in class.

3. ELD / SDAIE Lesson Observation & Write-up

15 points

The purpose of this assignment is for you to see instruction for English Language Learners in action and to observe the strategies teachers implement during instruction, as well as the engagement and interaction of all the students.

Part 1 – You will observe a lesson at a school site in a class that has an observable number of English Language Learners. Please consult with the classroom teacher first. You will collect and document evidence of any instructional modifications made during the lesson to provide comprehensible input, build background knowledge, scaffold instruction, address content & language objectives, build vocabulary, adapt the materials/curriculum, and provide student interaction for English language learners (ELLs) in the class. Please copy & use the checklist in your SIOP Textbook on pages 228-230 to guide you as you observe the lesson.

Part 2 - In your write-up explain your observations and discuss how (no lesson is perfect) you would modify the lesson and/or activities observed in light of the information and knowledge gained in the course and your SIOP Textbook.

Use SIOP checklist during your observation and attach to your write-up.

Course: Elementary Level Multilingual Education, EDMS 555

Please structure your 2-3 page write-up as follows:

- Set the scene: Use descriptive language to help me visualize the classroom and instruction you observed. Identify the program (Structured English Immersion “SEI”, Mainstream English Cluster “MEC” etc.), grade level, content/subject, standards/objectives addressed in lesson, and number of ELL students and their proficiency levels.
- Describe how the teacher engaged, grouped and promoted interaction throughout the lesson.
- Describe how the teacher used SDAIE strategies (choose only 3 to discuss)
- Determine if the lesson observed used effective SDAIE strategies and rationalize their effectiveness.
- Explain how you would modify the lesson/activities to better serve the needs of the ELLs.

Information on the criteria and expectations of this assignment will be explained in detail in class.

4. Reading Lesson Plan_Multicultural Literature 25 points

This assignment addresses TPEs 7 & 15. In your cohort, this is a shared assignment between the EDMS 521 and EDMS 555 course. For this assignment, you can work with a partner to collect and analyze multicultural children’s literature and write a lesson plan focused on reading comprehension and concepts of social justice and equity.

First, you and your partner need to select 3 multicultural literature pieces (at least one needs to be a bilingual book) and then write up a rationale for your selections. Please use the questions below to guide your selection of multicultural resources. Please write an answer the questions for each literature piece in order to create a paragraph providing your rationale for selecting each book. Feel free to add any news stories, reports or articles that substantiate your rationale.

- Does each literature meet the criteria for quality children’s literature? (including the bilingual literature piece)
- Does each literature promote social justice and equity?
- Does each literature help your students see themselves & feel as if they are part of the culture of the school?
- How well does each literature relate/connect to your chosen multicultural theme?

Next, you and your partner need to develop a lesson plan that teaches reading comprehension and social justice and equity concepts. This lesson will use ONE of the multicultural literature pieces. You will write a lesson plan that teaches reading comprehension along with concepts of social justice and equity.

The lesson should engage the students actively and be meaningful and accessible to diverse students. Your lesson plan MUST be sufficiently detailed so that it describes what the teacher’s actions are during each phase of the lesson. Your lesson must follow the outline of the guide below.

GUIDE for READING LESSON PLAN_Multicultural Literature HEADING

- Consider who your students are: Student Characteristics

Course: Elementary Level Multilingual Education, EDMS 555

Grade level, English proficiency levels (at least 2 levels of EL proficiency), linguistic background, academic language abilities, content knowledge & skills, physical-social-emotional development, cultural background, health, special considerations, interests

- Consider what you want your students to learn: Lesson Objectives

State the overarching goals of the literacy unit that this lesson is a part of and identify where in the unit your reading lesson occurs (beginning, middle, end). You may refer to two ELA standards and/or ELD standards.

State the lesson objective(s) (learning goal) for social justice and equity concepts. (no more than two)

State the lesson objective(s) (learning goal) for reading comprehension strategies. (no more than two)

- Consider how to assess students' learning of objectives: Evidence of Learning

State what student work, resulting from this lesson, you will evaluate and how. (checklist, rubric).

INSTRUCTIONAL PLAN

INTO

For this section of the lesson you need to describe the instructional strategies that you will use PRIOR to direct teaching of the reading comprehension objective(s). Your introduction must include a description of the instructional strategies and student activities that you will do prior to teaching the lesson in order to:

Connect to student's prior knowledge, lived experience and motivation

Build background knowledge (including front loading salient vocabulary)

THROUGH

Write a detailed instructional plan of what you will do when teaching the reading lesson. You must describe both the Instructional Strategies (what the TEACHER does) and also the Student Activities (what the STUDENTS do).

Modeled instruction: What does the teacher do during modeled instruction to demonstrate how to use the comprehension strategy? What are the students doing? Identify any scaffolds (modifications/adaptations) you are using.

Shared instruction: What does the teacher do during shared instruction to lead the students in learning how to use the comprehension strategy? What are the students doing? Identify any scaffolds (modifications/adaptations) you are using.

Guided instruction: What does the teacher do during guided instruction to give students opportunity to practice using the comprehension strategy? What are the students doing? Identify any scaffolds (modifications/adaptations) you are using.

Monitoring Progress: What does the teacher do DURING the lesson to monitor the student's comprehension of instruction and making progress learning the objectives?

BEYOND

State when and how students will apply what they've learned in this lesson.

State how you will review the main concepts of the lesson after teaching the lesson.

5. Critical Assessment Task

Social Justice and Equity Lesson Designs

30 points

The purpose of this assignment is to provide differentiated instruction with the sound methodologies, principles, and strategies appropriate for English language learners at 3 different language proficiency levels using the TPA Lesson Design Template.

Course: Elementary Level Multilingual Education, EDMS 555

You may work in a group of 4 students to create a Collection of Lesson Designs. Together you will collaborate to select a grade level, content area and Social Justice Theme to center your collection around. Each group member will then individually design a lesson using the Lesson Design Template. Submit all 4 Lesson Designs bound together.

The Collection of Lesson Designs must include the following:

1. Rationale

Each group member will submit a Rationale as an introduction to their particular Lesson Design. Why was the following lesson designed? What provided your motivation and inspiration: Student interests? Grade level standards? Current events? How does your lesson design meet the needs of your students and how does it meet the issue of social justice and equity in your classroom? This is one page maximum in length.

2. Lesson Design

3. Appendix

Please include an appendix of any supplementary materials you designed or borrowed including black line masters of graphic organizers, worksheets, or assessments. Remember to give credit where credit is due.

Please submit a well organized Collection of Lesson Designs upon the due date. You will be asked to share your Collections goals and objectives with the class. More information on the criteria, expectations and scoring rubric will be explained in class.

Presentations

Each group will have 15-20 minutes to present their SDAIE and Social Justice and Equity Lesson Designs.

6. TPE Reflective Statement

5 points

In EDSS 555, you are specifically responsible for writing a reflective statement for TPE15 in the TaskStream Electronic Portfolio. You must attach your lesson plan as an artifact to support your ideas for your TPE 15 reflective statement. You may attach other artifacts which also support your ideas.

As you write your reflective statement, the goal is to describe your learning as it relates to the TPE, to analyze artifacts (assignments) and explain how they are evidence of your learning, and to reflect on the significance of your learning (the “so what?”) and where you need to go next related to the TPE. Your reflective statement will include:

- Introduction: Introduction to your response that uses the words of the TPE. DO NOT restate the TPE; instead, introduce your reader to the focus of your response as it relates to the TPE. This is basically an extended thesis statement related to the TPE (refer to TPEs-at-a-Glance with Salient Features)
- Evidence: Explain how one attached artifact is evidence of your learning related to the TPE. The key here is “evidence.” How does this artifact prove that you have learned something specific related to the TPE?
- Reflection: Reflect upon and summarize the significance of your learning overall (connected to the TPE) and explain what you still need to learn related to this TPE. This addresses the “so what?” of your learning.

Course: Elementary Level Multilingual Education, EDMS 555

Please be succinct in your writing; more is NOT better. State your ideas clearly and keep them grounded in the evidence of your learning as represented by your artifacts. When you submit your TPE response, you will receive feedback from the instructor that asks for revisions or says that you are done. You will not get full credit for this assignment if you are asked to revise and you do not. Please continue to check your Taskstream portfolio until the instructor says you are done with each TPE response for the course.

Grading Standards

In this class, all students begin with 100 points. Points will be deducted from your total, based on the quality of the work you turn in for each assignment.

In addition, all students are expected to participate in class activities and demonstrate reflective learning. It is important that students are well prepared for course sessions by completing the readings and assignments scheduled before class meetings. Unless otherwise negotiated with the instructor, all assignments are to be submitted as specified in class on the due date.

Assignments not submitted on due date will lose 10% of earned credit per day.

Assignments should be typed and double-spaced. All work needs to be turned in to WebCT Assignments by October 10/15.

The following grading scale will be used with the points students have remaining at the end of class:

A = 93 – 100%	A- = 90 – 92%
B+ = 88 – 89%	B = 83 – 87%	B- = 80 – 82%
C+ = 75 – 79%	C = 72 – 75%	C- = 70 – 71%
D = 60 – 69%
F = 59% and below

Note: Students are reminded that the College requires completion of this course with a C+ or higher.

All University Writing Requirement:

Writing requirements for this class will be met as described in the assignments above. Every course at the university, including this one, must have a writing requirement of at least 2500 words. TPA Assessment will count toward this requirement.

CSUSM Academic Honesty Policy:

“Students will be expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty and integrity, as outlined in the Student Academic Honesty Policy. All written work and oral presentation assignments must be original work. All ideas/materials that are borrowed from other sources must have appropriate references to the original sources. Any quoted material should give credit to the source and be punctuated with quotation marks.

Students are responsible for honest completion of their work including examinations. There will be no tolerance for infractions. If you believe there has been an infraction by someone in the class, please bring it to the instructor’s attention. The instructor reserves the right to discipline any student for academic dishonesty in accordance with the general rules and regulations of the university. Disciplinary action may include the lowering of grades and/or the assignment of a failing grade for an exam, assignment, or the class as a whole.”

Incidents of Academic Dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students. Sanctions at the University level may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Course: Elementary Level Multilingual Education, EDMS 555

Plagiarism:

As an educator, it is expected that each student will do his/her own work, and contribute equally to group projects and processes. Plagiarism or cheating is unacceptable under any circumstances. If you are in doubt about whether your work is paraphrased or plagiarized see the Plagiarism Prevention for Students website <http://library.csusm.edu/plagiarism/index.html>. If there are questions about academic honesty, please consult the University catalog.

Use of Technology:

Students are expected to demonstrate competency in the use of various forms of technology (i.e. word processing, electronic mail, WebCT6, use of the Internet, and/or multimedia presentations). Specific requirements for course assignments with regard to technology are at the discretion of the instructor. Keep a digital copy of all assignments for use in your teaching portfolio. All assignments will be submitted online, and some will be submitted in hard copy as well. Details will be given in class.

Electronic Communication Protocol:

Electronic correspondence is a part of your professional interactions. If you need to contact the instructor, WebCT e-mail is often the easiest way to do so. It is my intention to respond to all received e-mails in a timely manner. Please be reminded that e-mail and on-line discussions are a very specific form of communication, with their own nuances and etiquette. For instance, electronic messages sent in all upper case (or lower case) letters, major typos, or slang, often communicate more than the sender originally intended. With that said, please be mindful of all e-mail and on-line discussion messages you send to your colleagues, to faculty members in the College of Education, or to persons within the greater educational community. All electronic messages should be crafted with professionalism and care.

Things to consider:

- Would I say in person what this electronic message specifically says?
- How could this message be misconstrued?
- Does this message represent my highest self?
- Am I sending this electronic message to avoid a face-to-face conversation?

In addition, if there is ever a concern with an electronic message sent to you, please talk with the author in person in order to correct any confusion.
