1. Attendance, Disposition, and Class Participation (Reflection Due: 10/16)

30 points

First is the expectation that you will attend all class sessions and participate actively in class activities, group and individual sharing, and discussions.

Disposition is related to your attitude. Please see Mission Statement for guidelines. Of note, remember, if you miss three class sessions (or more), you will automatically lose between 30 and 40 points, dropping your grade to the C range, based on the COE attendance policy.

You will be asked to reflect on your attendance, disposition and class participation in 2 paragraphs on WebCt Assignments by October 16.

2. Discussion Board Interactive Journal Entries/ Responses (3 @ 5 pts each) (Due: 9/11, 9/25, & 10/9)

Interactive electronic discussions using WebCT 6 are a way for learning communities to entertain and respond to questions, reflections, insights, or concerns regarding course content. They also facilitate relationships between students and professors. Your peers or course professor will respond to your entries with clarifying questions to further your thinking process.

These 2 paragraph responses will be maintained on the identified due dates and may include the following:

- Summaries, descriptions, or reactions to the topics discussed in class or from readings reflecting understanding of key concepts. Both comments from professor and other students may be reflected on the discussion board.
- Meta-reflections and/or analysis of key concepts, particularly in terms of the connections that can be made between class discussions and teaching English language learners, with specific examples from student teaching experiences, school observations, or other personal experiences in diverse settings. It is critical that direct connections are made with teaching experiences in the form of anecdotes, case studies, or narratives.

Entries will be graded according to comprehensiveness, insightful connections, and “deep understanding” of the issues. The class discussion board should address instructional concerns, school structures, teaching strategies, and school environments related to social justice and equity in diverse settings. In addition to grading each entry, I will personally respond to several random entries per due date.

All University Writing Requirement

Writing requirements for this class will be met as described in the assignments above. Every course at the university, including this one, must have a writing requirement of at least 2500 words. TPA Assessment will count toward this requirement.

CSUSM Academic Honesty Policy

“Students will be expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty and integrity, as outlined in the Student Academic Honesty Policy. All written work and oral presentation assignments must be original work. All ideas/materials that are borrowed from other sources must have appropriate references to the original sources. Any quoted material should give credit to the source and be punctuated with quotation marks.

Students are responsible for honest completion of their work including examinations. There will be no tolerance for infractions. If you believe there has been an infraction by someone in the class, please bring it to the instructor’s attention. The instructor reserves the right to discipline any student for academic dishonesty in accordance with the general rules and regulations of the university. Disciplinary action may include the lowering of grades and/or the assignment of a failing grade for an exam, assignment, or the class as a whole.”

Incidents of Academic Dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students. Sanctions at the University level may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

As an educator, it is expected that each student will do his/her own work, and contribute equally to group projects and processes. Plagiarism or cheating is unacceptable under any circumstances. If you are in doubt about whether your work is paraphrased or plagiarized see the Plagiarism Prevention for Students website <http://library.csusm.edu/plagiarism/index.html>. If there are questions about academic honesty, please consult the University catalog.

Electronic Communication Protocol:

Electronic correspondence is a part of your professional interactions. If you need to contact the instructor, WebCT e-mail is often the easiest way to do so. It is my intention to respond to all received e-mails in a timely manner. Please be reminded that e-mail and on-line discussions are a very specific form of communication, with their own nuances and etiquette. For instance, electronic messages sent in all upper case (or lower case) letters, major typos, or slang, often communicate more than the sender originally intended. With that said, please be mindful of all e-mail and on-line discussion messages you send to your colleagues, to faculty members in the College of Education, or to persons within the greater educational community. All electronic messages should be crafted with professionalism and care.

Things to consider:

- Would I say in person what this electronic message specifically says?
- How could this message be misconstrued?
- Does this message represent my highest self?
- Am I sending this electronic message to avoid a face-to-face conversation?

In addition, if there is ever a concern with an electronic message sent to you, please talk with the author in person in order to correct any confusion.
