College of Education Mission Statement

The mission of the College of Education Community is to collaboratively transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators and advancing professional practices. We are committed to diversity, educational equity, and social justice, exemplified through reflective teaching, life-long learning, innovative research and on-going service. Our practices demonstrate a commitment to student-centered education, diversity, collaboration, professionalism, and shared governance. (Adopted by COE Governance Community, October, 1997).

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course addresses the needs of high school teachers faced with the growing diversity that exists in today's classrooms. As such it will focus on bilingual sociolinguistic/sociocultural competence and implications for learning and instruction, application of effective alternative instructional practices, cultural aspects of English learners, as well as effective and appropriate English language development (ELD) techniques and successful bilingual, multilingual education for language minority students.

Course Objectives

- Explain the basic terms, philosophies, problems, issues, history, and practices related to the education of language minority persons in California and the US.
- Demonstrate understanding of the most important goals of bilingual/multicultural education.
- Explain the theoretical framework upon which bilingual education is founded.
- Demonstrate understanding of existing student identification, assessment, and language re-designation requirements for the state of California.
- Explain the connections between bilingual education, English as a second language, and SDAIE methodologies.
- Demonstrate understanding of the five models of multicultural education and their implications for curriculum, instruction, and educational policy.
- Explain the meaning of culture, differentiated index, and the necessity for cultural convergence in schools.
- Use confluent education techniques to develop understand of each individual student, create a more just and humane learning environment, and help students in their growth and development as human beings.

Authorization to Teach English Learners

This credential program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the credential program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing this program receive a credential with authorization to teach English learners.

(approved by CCTC in SB 2042 Program Standards, August 02)

Teacher Performance Expectation (TPE) Competencies

The course objectives, assignments, and assessments have been aligned with the CTC standards for Single Subject Credential. This course is designed to help teachers seeking the Single Subject Credential to develop the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to assist schools and district in implementing effective programs for all students. The successful candidate will be able to merge theory and practice in order to realize a comprehensive and extensive educational program for all students. The following TPE's are addressed in this course:

Primary Emphasis:

TPE 7: Teaching English Learners

TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity

Secondary Emphasis:

TPE 1: Specific Pedagogical Skills for Subject Instruction

TPE 3: Interpretation and Use of Assessments

TPE 4: Making Content Accessible

TPE 5: Student Engagement

TPE 6: Developmentally Appropriate Teaching Practices

TPE 11: Social Environment

College of Education Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. In the case of being tardy to class, a student will lose participation points if a tardy occurs more than once or is of a significant amount of the teaching time. (Adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997).

Students with Disabilities Requiring Reasonable Accommodations

Students are approved for services through the Disabled Student Services Office (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 5205, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

Course Requirements

All students are expected to participate in class activities and demonstrate reflective learning. Students who do not attend a class session, or do not participate in class activities will not receive attendance and participation points for that session. Three (3) points will be deducted for each missed class session. It is important that students are well prepared for course sessions by completing the readings and assignments scheduled before the class meeting. Unless otherwise negotiated with the instructor, all assignments are to be handed in on the due date. Assignments not handed-in on due date will lose 10% of earned credit per day. Assignments should be typed and double-spaced (yes, including the class journal). Students who wish to revise an assignment must negotiate the requirements of the revision with the instructor.

- Attendance and participation 25 points
- ELD / SDAIE Lesson Observation 10 points
- Multicultural Resources / Lesson Plan 10 points
- SDAIE "Unit" Plan 40points
- TPE Reflective Statements 15 points

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

Reading Reflections & ELD Standards

Will be assigned in class

Reflections based on the readings will cover the following topics, and are due during the following class sessions:

Reading reflections will be discussed at the beginning of the class session on which they are due, and will include:

- A written summary and/or analysis of the assigned topic that reflects understanding of the key concepts, including comments / analysis from the required readings.
- A reflection of the topic including connections that can be made between the topics and teaching English language learners, with specific examples from student teaching experiences, school observations, or other personal experiences in diverse settings.

Your reading reflections must address TPE 7 (see rubric).

ELD Standards Requirement

For the 5th class session, you will need to download the ELD standards and print a copy for yourself. Please bring the standards to class. You can download the ELD standards from the CDE website (www.cde.ca.gov) or from WestEd (www.wested.org).

On the WestEd Website, type "ELD Standards" in the "Search WestEd" box. Click on "WestEd: The Map of Standards for English Learners" then "Sample Chapters" then "6-8 PDF Version"

Reading Reflections – Scoring Rubric

Candidates demonstrate in their interactive journals that they know and can apply pedagogical theories, principles, and instructional practices for comprehensive instruction of English learners.	Candidates demonstrate in their interactive journals that they know and can apply pedagogical theories, principles, and instructional practices for comprehensive instruction of ALL English learners.

ELD / SDAIE Lesson Observation Due:

10 points

For this assignment you will observe an ELD or SDAIE lesson at your student teaching school site. You will collect and document evidence of any instructional modifications made to provide comprehensible academic input for the English learners in the class. As part of your write-up, you are to discuss how (if necessary) you would modify the lesson/activity in light of the information and knowledge gained in the course.

Your lesson observation must address TPEs 4 and 5 (see rubric).

Lesson Observation – Scoring Rubric

TPE-4 Making Content Accessible	Teacher candidate is unable to determine if lesson observed is consistent with pedagogical theories and instructional practices for making content accessible to English learners.	Candidates can partially determine if lesson observed is consistent with pedagogical theories, principles, and instructional practices for making content accessible to English learners.	Candidates are able to determine if lesson observed makes content accessible to students with different levels of proficiency in English and primary language.	Candidates can apply pedagogical theories, principles, and instructional practices for making content accessible to all English learners by offering appropriate suggestions.
TPE-5 Student Engagement	Candidates of English learners are unaware if lesson observed engages students or is appropriate for the levels of English proficiency and primary language. Multicultural Literature Resources / Lesson Plans Due: With another person, you will have the opportunity to collect multicultural resources (books, websites, text sets, etc.), and develop lesson plans based the resources and rooted in social justice and equity for middle school students. The following questions should help guide your selection of multicultural resources:

- Does this resource help English learners have access to the core curriculum?
- Does this resource help scaffold an equitable classroom?
- Does this resource promote social justice and equity?
- Does this resource help your students feel as if they are part of the culture of the school?

This assignment must address TPEs 7 and 15.

The required elements of the assignment are:

1. With your partner, choose six multicultural resources that address appropriate proficiency and content area knowledge for middle school students.
2. For each selection, you will write a brief (one paragraph) annotated bibliography encompassing:
 - a. Appropriate grade level
 - b. Appropriate ELD proficiency level(s)
 - c. Appropriate content area(s)
 - d. Description of the story/text
3. At least two of the resources must be bilingual (English and another language).
4. With your partner, submit a lesson plan that clearly delineates how every student will be a successful learner by providing universal access to diverse students (e.g., gifted, English learners, special needs, non-readers, poor readers).

Poster Sessions (20 minutes each)

Tables will be set up to provide space for the partners to present/display their multicultural resources and lesson plans.

Note: Dr. Alice Quioco's website has an excellent bibliography of children's literature and multicultural books (<http://www.csusm.edu/Quiocho>), or the Barahona Center at the CSUSM Library has an excellent collection of books in Spanish (<http://www.csusm.edu/csb/>)

Multicultural Resources / Lessons – Scoring Rubric

Criteria	Developing	Nearly Meets	Meets	Exceeds
TPE-7 Teaching English Learners	Multicultural resources are not authentic, do not reflect the diversity in schools, and the primary language of students is not considered. Lessons do not support English learners.	Candidates select some authentic multicultural resources, primary language is not included or not well translated. Lesson reading and writing activities are inappropriate for levels of proficiency in English and primary language, and assessments are non-existent or inappropriate.	Candidates select authentic multicultural resources that reflect diversity of the classroom, to include the primary language of English learners. Lesson plans include instructional activities appropriate for levels of proficiency in English and primary language, and have relevant assessments.	Teaching candidates include justification for the selection and purpose of each resource, taking into account the varying learning and social needs of individual students or groups in their own classroom. Lessons include language activities meet the academic and social needs of all students.
TPE-15 Social Justice and Equity	Multicultural assignment does not address issues of social justice and equity in the classroom. Lesson plans are not designed for students from diverse backgrounds.	Candidates select some multicultural resources that address issues of social justice and equity. Lesson plans do not include instructional practices for diverse students and are not grounded in theories of multicultural education.	Candidates select authentic multicultural resources that address issues of social justice and equity. Lesson plans are designed to include instructional practices that are grounded in theories of multicultural education, and provide equitable outcomes for students from different linguistic, cultural, social and economic backgrounds.	Candidates include justification for each multicultural selection that show how issues of social justice and equity are addressed for all students. Lesson plans apply instructional strategies grounded in theories and principles of multicultural education, ensure equal outcomes for all students from different backgrounds, and are designed with stakeholders representing all students in the classroom.

SDAIE “Unit” Plans / TPE Reflective Statements Due: Oct. 14
Critical Assessment Task (CAT)

40 points –

Applying the SDAIE methodologies and principles discussed in class, create a SDAIE “unit plan” appropriate for English learners at various proficiency levels. Each lesson in the unit should contain the following:

1. Grade level, Content standard(s) / objectives, ELD standard(s) / objectives, requisite background information (i.e. Who are your students? What are your English learners’ proficiency levels? What do your students need to know prior to the lesson?) Materials / resources necessary for the lesson.
2. A plan for assessment
 - How will your students demonstrate mastery of the content and language standards/objectives?
 - What varied authentic products will be produced?

- What multi-level assessment criteria will be used? Different levels of mastery?
3. Vocabulary and grammatical structures (if applicable) to be learned or reinforced in the lesson – how will you make vocabulary development part of the lesson?
 4. How do ALL your students have access to the content you are presenting?
 - Do the activities you have designed for the lesson support the content and ELD standards you have selected?
 - What SDAIE strategies are you using to make the content accessible to all your students?
 - Do the lesson strategies incorporate group collaboration, cooperative learning activities, peer assistance, or other work-group techniques?
 - Does the lesson incorporate the language and culture of language minority students?
 - Do all students have access to academic language?
 5. How will you ensure that your lesson provides equitable outcomes for ALL your students (from diverse linguistic, cultural, social and economic backgrounds)?

You may work in a group of 2-4 students. Each group member will develop his/her own SDAIE lesson plan as part of the “unit.” During several class sessions, students will have the opportunity to work on their unit plan by applying what they have learned from the readings, class discussions, and their classroom experiences.

SDAIE Presentations

Each group will have 15-20 minutes to present their SDAIE Unit Plans.

Grading breakdown, Unit 25 points, Individual Lesson and Reflection 10, Presentation 5 points

This assignment must address TPEs 7 and 15 (see rubric).

TPE Reflective Statements

15 points

You are specifically responsible for writing a reflective statement for TPEs 7 and 15 in the TaskStream Electronic Portfolio. Each reflection (TPE 7 and 15) should be approximately 250-350 words (the goal is to be succinct not to count words) and focus on a description, analysis, reflection sequence. You must attach your SDAIE lesson plan as an artifact to support your ideas in the reflection for both reflective statements (TPEs 7 and 15). You may attach other artifacts which also support your ideas. The same artifact may appear in multiple TPE reflections. When you submit each TPE reflection, you will receive feedback from me. When the reflection is finalized, it will become a permanent record in your TaskStream Portfolio. You may return to the TPE at another point in your program and make modifications as your understanding deepens.

Each TPE reflective statement must include:

1. a description of the teacher candidate’s learning with respect to the specific TPE being addressed (refer to TPEs-at-a-Glance with Salient Features)
2. an analysis of how the attached artifact(s) is (are) evidence of that learning
3. a reflection describing personal significance of this learning and/or next steps in the journey toward continuing to meet this TPE
