COLLEGE OF EDUCATION MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the College of Education Community is to collaboratively transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators and advancing professional practices. We are committed to diversity, educational equity, and social justice, exemplified through reflective teaching, life-long learning, innovative research and on-going service. Our practices demonstrate a commitment to student-centered education, diversity, collaboration, professionalism, and shared governance. (Adopted by COE Governance Community, October 1997.)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The primary aim of this course is for students to develop an understanding of the theory, methodology and assessment of English language arts and second language learning in integrated and inclusive K-8 school classrooms. This class is aligned with the California 2042 standards.

Course Objectives

(Knowledge) Teacher candidates will:

- Gain an understanding of how a first and second language is acquired
- Gain an understanding of the reading process and its relationship to thought, language, and learning
- Gain an understanding of how people learn to read and write in their first and second language
- Become familiar with current approaches to the teaching of reading and writing, their theoretical bases
- Understand current approaches to reading and writing instruction in culturally, linguistically diverse classes
- Become familiar with classroom diagnostic techniques and evaluation processes
- Become familiar with current approaches to teaching reading and writing to children with special needs.

(Skills) Teacher candidates will:

- Make sensitive observations of children's language using behaviors
- Analyze children's reading and writing behavior as a basis for making instructional decisions
- Translate the results of formal and informal reading/writing assessment into instructional plans
- Select appropriate materials and instructional strategies to meet the needs of students
- Organize the classroom for teaching reading and writing in culturally, linguistically diverse populations.

(Attitudes and Values) Teacher candidates will:

- Develop an appreciation for the natural language abilities children possess for processing and producing print
- Develop an appreciation for the need and value of integrating reading/writing into all areas of the curriculum
- Affirm the importance of a rich environment for developing an effective language arts program
- Develop a sensitivity to and appreciation of culturally and linguistically diverse learners
- Develop a sensitivity to and appreciation of children with special learning needs
- Develop an appreciation for the importance of reading and writing for their own personal and professional growth
- Develop a respect for each student, his/her abilities and background and the student's right to instruction that meets his/her individual needs.

AUTHORIZATION TO TEACH ENGLISH LEARNERS

This credential program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the credential program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing this program receive a credential with authorization to teach English learners. (Approved by CCTC in SB 2042 Program Standards, August 2002.)

TEACHER PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION (TPE) COMPETENCIES

The course objectives, assignments, and assessments have been aligned with the CTC standards for the Multiple Subjects Credential. This course is designed to help teachers seeking a California teaching credential to develop the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to assist schools and districts in implementing effective programs for all students. The successful candidate will be able to merge theory and practice in order to realize a comprehensive and extensive educational program for all students. You will be required to formally address the following TPEs in this course: 1A and 4.

TASK STREAM, TPEs, ASSIGNMENTS

TPE Reflective Writing

This course requires that you address the TPEs listed above for your Task Stream Portfolio. You will address these TPEs by completing course assignments. Completion of the course assignments will include that you have submitted them in the appropriate format to your electronic portfolio. Assessment of your TPEs is directly related to the assessment of your course assignments. You will write summary reflections to be submitted, responded to, and archived via Task Stream.

The following link will take you to the CSUSM COE website where you can get help with how to create your electronic portfolio and information on the required elements: <http://lynx.csusm.edu/coe/eportfolio/index.asp>

This following is the Task Stream home page link where you will register for Task Stream and return to when working on your electronic portfolio: <http://www.taskstream.com>

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION ATTENDANCE POLICY

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible. (Adopted by the COE Governance Community, December, 1997.)

You cannot receive an "A" in this course if you miss more than two class sessions.

- 8 sessions: Miss an entire class session once and you will not receive an "A-". Miss any part of class sessions twice you will not receive an "A-". Your grade will automatically drop to a "C" if you miss an entire class session and any part of another class session. Your grade will automatically drop to a "C" if you miss any part of a class session 3 times. If you miss more than what is needed for a "C", you will receive a failing grade.

ALL-UNIVERSITY WRITING REQUIREMENT

Writing in this course will be judged on clarity, detailed support for main points, support from texts and standards. This will include lesson plans, your philosophy, interventions for the mini case study, and RICA materials. Every course at the university must have a writing requirement of at least 2500 words.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES REQUIRING REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Students must be approved for services by providing appropriate and recent documentation to the Office of Disabled Student Services (DSS). This office is located in Craven Hall 5205, and can be contacted by phone at (760) 750-4905, or TTY (760) 750-4909. Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor during office hours or, in order to ensure confidentiality, in a more private setting.

CSUSM ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

“Students will be expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty and integrity, as outlined in the Student Academic Honesty Policy. All written work and oral assignments must be original work. All ideas/materials that are borrowed from other sources must have appropriate references to the original sources. Any quoted material should give credit to the source and be punctuated with quotation marks.

Students are responsible for honest completion of their work including examinations. There will be no tolerance for infractions. If you believe there has been an infraction by someone in the class, please bring it to the instructor’s attention. The instructor reserves the right to discipline any student for academic dishonesty in accordance with the general rules and regulations of the university. Disciplinary action may include the lowering of grades and/or the assignment of a failing grade for an exam, assignment, or the class as a whole.”

Grading/Assignment Policy

All students are expected to participate in class activities and demonstrate reflective learning. It is important that students are well prepared for course sessions by completing the readings and assignments scheduled before the class meeting. Unless otherwise negotiated with the instructor, all assignments are to be handed in on the due date. Assignments not handed in on the due date will lose 10% of earned credit per day. Assignments should be typed and double-spaced. Attendance may also affect your grade. Please see the Attendance Policy on page 2.

The following grading scale will be used:

A	96 – 100	B+	89 – 87	C+	77 – 79	D+	67 – 69
A-	90 – 95	B	86 – 83	C	73 – 76	D	63 – 67
		B-	80 – 82	C-	70 – 73	D-	60 – 62

Assignments

- Quick Writes/Reflections (In-Class) 5 points
- Language Arts Resource Notebook 40 points
- Primary Mini Case Study 20 points
- Field Experience Observations 20 points
- Reading Strategy Lesson Plan 15 points

Quick Writes/Reflections (In Class) 5 points

You will be required to write and reflect upon your learning and thinking as it relates to key ideas from the readings and class discussions. There will no prior notice given for these in-class assignments.

Language Arts Resource Notebook RICA Study Materials – Part I 40 points

Each of you will develop RICA study materials to be used to inform your teaching. The materials have two main objectives.

- Objective 1 To demonstrate your learning and understanding of reading and language arts
- Objective 2 To begin a resource for your own learning

Be creative and thoughtful in the compilation of the materials — they will be a demonstration that you are ready to teach reading and language arts to a diverse student population.

RICA study materials will be organized around the 13 RICA Content Areas (see the RICA Registration Bulletin, p.39-45 and Zarrillo's text, Ready for RICA). Each section of the materials should contain the following:

- (a) explain each content area (put in your own words – 2-4 sentences);
- (b) identify and explain 2 ways to assess this content area (include a rationale);
- (c) describe, step by step, 1 teaching strategy and explain how it supports reading, writing, and/or language arts development (include accommodations);
- (d) A technology-rich assignment that enhances teaching and student learning.

For the first semester you will need to complete the following content areas:

- Planning, Organizing, and Managing Reading Instruction 2
- Phonemic Awareness 3
- Concepts About Print 4
- Systematic, Explicit Phonics and Other Word Identification Strategies 5
- Spelling Instruction 6
- Reading Comprehension – Narrative 7
- Vocabulary Development 12
- Structure of the English Language 13

You MAY (but are not required to) include in your language arts notebook the following: course assignments, course handouts and materials from your classroom/school site, examples from lesson plans and student work, information from internet sources or professional journals, strategies you will use to teach these content areas, pictures of students learning a specific strategy as well as your reflection on what was happening. You can choose how to organize this information.

Besides the course readings, Dr. Alice Quiocho's website can also serve as a resource. The address is: <http://www.csusm.edu/Quiocho>. Click on "reading instruction portfolio." See the section on accommodations for ideas on ways to support second language learners. See www.ed.gov/free/ for free educational materials.

Primary Mini Case Study

20 points

1. Assess
Choose a child between the ages of 3.5 – 6 who is not reading yet. Use John's Appendix A: Early Literacy Assessment to conduct the following assessments of the child's emergent reading behavior:
 - Alphabet Knowledge - Letter Identification (Johns 309-311)
 - Wordless Picture Reading (Johns 314-317)
 - Literacy Knowledge - Concepts About Print (Johns 313)
 - Phoneme Segmentation (Johns 322)
2. Analyze
Look at the information that you have gathered in the assessments and develop a profile of the child as an emergent reader and a qualitative analysis of his/her early literacy behavior and skills. Use the Profile and Qualitative Analysis forms found in Johns 330 and 331.
3. Apply
Apply your analysis of the child's early literacy behaviors to design an instructional reading plan. You may use the RICA data grid to help you with this process. Your analysis must have the following 4 components:
 - Write a well-developed paragraph(s) describing the child's areas of strength, making sure that you use data to support your statements;
 - Write a well-developed paragraph(s) describing the child's areas of need, making sure that you use data to support your statements;
 - Write a well-developed paragraph(s) that both describes what area of need you would focus on first and explains why you would start your instruction there;
 - Write another well-developed paragraph(s) that describes what you would do as a teacher to help him/her in this area and why you think that instructional strategy/approach/activity will help the child progress. (Remember, the instructional strategy should take advantage of the child's strengths).
4. Reflect
Think again about the process of assessing the child. What did you learn from this process?

Field Experience Observations

20 points

You will be required to conduct 8 field experience observations while you are observing/participating in K-12 classrooms. Please look for and write down your observations of lessons related to the RICA content areas taught in this course (see page 4). Jot down brief notes about the kinds of activities teachers and students are engaged in, the room environment, instructional methods and materials, student groupings, etc. Be sure to write observations of the teacher and students in the "activity" section and reserve your judgments for the "reflective notes" section.

For each observation topic, please be sure to include: Topic of Lesson, Date/Time, Place (school/grade/classrooms), Activity, and Reflective Notes. Please read the example below and use the format provided on the following page.

Topic of Lesson: Phonics Instruction

Date/Time: 9/7/98 9:00-10:00

Place: Discovery Elementary, Monolingual 1st Grade

Activity: Teacher taught "B" sound using alphabet cards and the pocket chart. Students wrote words beginning with B then illustrated the following – bird, ball, balloon, and boat.

Reflective Notes: The teacher effectively taught so as to include all students. She did a good job accommodating for second language learners by using some words that were close cognates (ball-bola) to help the students make connections. I noticed that one of the children who had trouble focusing was seated next to the teacher. She selected children to participate in order to ensure that the students did not get out of hand. I would modify this lesson in order to help English learners by using some cognates in Spanish and showing the students how beginning sounds work in their language.

TPE Reflection Information

Please read TPE 1A and write a reflection that elaborates on your learning and mastery of this TPE. The reflection should be at least 2 paragraphs in length and include evidence that you have a grasp of teaching reading-language arts in a multiple subject teaching assignment. In order for the assignment to be complete, you must post your observation and reflections to your Task Stream Account.

TPE 1A: Subject-Specific Pedagogical Skills for Multiple Subject Teaching Assignments
Teaching Reading-Language Arts in a Multiple Subject Assignment

Candidates for a Multiple Subject Teaching Credential demonstrate the ability to teach the state-adopted academic content standards for students in English-Language Arts (K-8). They understand how to deliver a comprehensive program of systematic instruction in word analysis, fluency, and systematic vocabulary development; reading comprehension; literary response and analysis; writing strategies and applications; written and oral English Language conventions; and listening and speaking strategies and applications. They know how to strategically plan and schedule instruction to ensure that students meet or exceed the standards. Candidates create a classroom environment where students learn to read and write, comprehend and compose, appreciate and analyze, and perform and enjoy the language arts. They understand how to make language (e.g., vocabulary, forms, uses) comprehensible to students and the need for students to master foundational skills as a gateway to using all forms of language as tools for thinking, learning, and communicating. They understand how to use instructional materials that include a range of textual, functional and recreational texts and how to teach high quality literature and expository text. They understand that the advanced skills of comprehending narrative and informational texts and literary response and analysis, and the creation of eloquent prose, all depend on a foundation of solid vocabulary, decoding, and word-recognition skills.

Candidates teach students how to use visual structures such as graphic organizers or outlines to comprehend or produce text, how to comprehend or produce narrative, expository, persuasive and descriptive texts, how to comprehend or produce the complexity of writing forms, purposes, and organizational patterns, and how to have a command of written and oral English-language conventions. They know how to determine the skill level of students through the use of meaningful indicators of reading and language arts proficiency prior to instruction, how to determine whether students are making adequate progress on skills and concepts taught directly, and how to determine the effectiveness of instruction and students' proficiency after instruction.

You will write and present one READING STRATEGY lesson plan that takes into account student needs. (Note: You must clearly comprehend strategies readers use in order to write an effective lesson). Please be advised that in order to obtain full credit, you will have to revise your lesson plan. Make your lesson active, interesting, fun, meaningful, and based on reading standards. The lesson plan must follow specific guidelines provided by the instructor to be handed out in class.

It is important that your lesson address the needs of mainstream students, as well as make provisions for second language learners, students presenting difficulty, and accelerated students. How are you going to work with students who are having difficulty? How will you scaffold for second language learners' learning during the lesson? How will your lesson provide enrichment for accelerated students? Will you meet with students individually or in a small group while other students work independently?

We will examine how lesson plans must start with assessment. Therefore, we will be learning how to assess students and use the assessment information to make informed decisions about instruction that specifically addresses the standards.

You will be responsible for submitting a clean, typed copy for review and grading. Keep the following in mind when writing your lesson:

- What is the purpose of your lesson?
- How does it relate to real reading and/or writing?
- What are your learning goals?
- What language development goals do you have planned for students?
- How are they aligned with the CA Reading/Language Arts standards? (check the Reading/Language Arts framework for CA public schools)
- The ELD Standards?
- How will you present the lesson? (instructional strategies, resource materials, time frame) How will you group students for the lesson? How will you assess your students?
- What scaffolds and accommodations will you provide for students who need additional help?

TPE Reflection Information

Please read TPE 4 and write a reflection that elaborates on your learning and mastery of this TPE. The reflection should be at least 2 paragraphs in length and include evidence that you have a grasp of how to make content accessible. In order for the assignment to be complete, you must post your lesson and reflections to your Task Stream Account after it is returned with the comment: Ready to Post.

TPE 4: Making Content Accessible

Candidates for Teaching Credentials incorporate specific strategies, teaching/instructional activities, procedures and experiences that address state-adopted academic content standards for students in order to provide a balanced and comprehensive curriculum. They use instructional materials to reinforce state adopted academic content standards for students and they prioritize and sequence essential skills and strategies in a logical, coherent manner relative to students' current level of achievement. They vary instructional strategies according to purpose and lesson content. To meet student academic learning needs, candidates explain content clearly and reinforce content in multiple ways, such as the use of written and oral presentation, manipulatives, physical models, visual and performing arts, diagrams, nonverbal communication, and computer technology. They provide opportunities and adequate time for students to practice and apply what they have learned. They distinguish between conversational and academic language, and develop student skills in using and understanding academic language. They teach students strategies to read and comprehend a variety of texts and a variety of information sources, in the subject(s) taught. They model active listening in the classroom. Candidates encourage student creativity and imagination. They motivate students and encourage student effort. When students do not understand content, they take additional steps to foster access and comprehension for all learners. Candidates balance instruction by adjusting lesson designs relative to students' current level of achievement.

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS NOTE: I RESERVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE, ADD TO, OR DELETE ANY MATERIAL OR ASSIGNMENT FROM THE COURSE.
