COLLEGE OF EDUCATION MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the College of Education Community is to collaboratively transform public education by preparing thoughtful educators and advancing professional practices. We are committed to *diversity, *educational equity, and *social justice, exemplified through *reflective teaching, *life-long learning, *innovative research, and *ongoing service. Our practices demonstrate a commitment to *student-centered education, *diversity, *collaboration, *professionalism, and *shared governance. (adopted by COE Governance Community October, 1997)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Required of all credential candidates. This course explores cultural and linguistic diversity as critical variables in achieving educational equity for all students. Major units include intensive theoretical and practical articulation of culture and cultural pluralism; educational issues of race, class, gender, language, ethnicity, sexual orientation and exceptionality; social, structural, programmatic and curricular issues; and effective teaching for diverse populations.

Strong oral and written communication skills, information literacy, and technology are required of professional educators; therefore, these components are emphasized as methods to be used in completing course requirements.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students completing EDUC 364 will be able to demonstrate the following:

- developing competencies in TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity (see below);
- understanding of various concepts of culture and cultural contact, and their applicability to learning and teaching;
- understanding of cultural diversity in the United States and California;
- general familiarity with culturally responsive pedagogy;
- understanding of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender students, teachers and families.

AUTHORIZATION TO TEACH ENGLISH LEARNERS

In 1992, the College of Education voted to infuse Cross-cultural, Language and Academic Development (CLAD) competencies across the curriculum. The CLAD competencies are attached to the syllabus and the competencies covered in this course are highlighted. As of 2002, the CLAD competencies are collectively referred to as an authorization to teach English Learners.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES REQUIRING REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Students with disabilities requiring reasonable accommodations must be approved for services through the Disabled Student Services Office (DSS). This office is located at Craven Hall 5205, and the contact numbers are 760-750-4905 (tel) and 760-750-4909 (TTY). Students authorized by DSS to receive reasonable accommodations should meet with their instructor on or before the first week of class.

TEACHER PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION (TPE) COMPETENCIES

This course is designed to help teachers seeking the Multiple or Single Subject(s) Credential to develop the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to assist schools and districts in implementing an effective program for all students. The successful candidate will be able to merge theory and practice in order to realize a comprehensive and extensive educational program for all students. The course objectives, assignments, and assessments have been aligned with the CCTC standards for the Multiple and Single Subject(s) Credential. You can incorporate artifacts from this class into your final comprehensive portfolio.

The following TPE is addressed in this course: TPE 15: Social Justice and Equity Teacher candidates will be able to identify issues of social justice and equity in the classroom and apply appropriate instructional strategies to ensure equal outcomes for diverse students. They will be familiar with ideas, definitions, and major theorists in the fields of multicultural education, social reconstruction, and democratic education. Pluralism and divergent perspectives on educating students will be the foundation of designing effective lessons and instructional practices for diverse students. Candidates will understand when and how to collaborate with others, especially curriculum specialists, community leaders, and parents on preparing relevant and appropriate instructional activities, curricular units, and school structures that would provide equitable outcomes for students from different linguistic, cultural, and social economic backgrounds.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Governance Community of the College of Education adopted the following policy on 12/19/1997:

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or s/he may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Individual instructors may adopt more stringent attendance requirements. Should the student have extenuating circumstances, s/he should contact the instructor as soon as possible.

This course deals with complex material processed in a variety of ways. Structured interactions, group processes, oral presentations, guided discussion of readings, and self-disclosure exercises are the norm. Given the fast-paced and highly interactive nature of the course, and given that teaching and learning is difficult (if not impossible) without regular attendance and full engagement in class, the above College Policy is amplified as follows:

Your attendance and participation are basic to your learning and my evaluation of your learning in this class. You are expected to establish appropriate personal, academic and career priorities to facilitate said attendance and participation in this class.

Your grade will be negatively affected by absences and positively affected by regular attendance. You will lose 10 points for each tardy or early departure, and 50 points for each absence, explained or unexplained. One absence may be made up with approval.

*Illness and emergency circumstances will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis.

These measures are intended to encourage responsibility for one's own learning in a democratic, collaborative and reciprocal-learning environment.

GRADING

Grading Scale: A=930-100, A-=900-929, B+=870-899, B=830-869, B- = 800-829, C+=770-799, C=730-769, C-=700-729, D+=670-699, D=630-669, D-=600-629, F=599 or lower. Students taking EDUC 364 as a prerequisite for teacher credential and graduate programs are reminded that the College of Education requires completion of this course with a C+ or higher for these purposes.

Attendance & Participation: You are expected to read course materials prior to class meetings and participate in group and class discussions both on WebCT prior to class and in face-to-face class sessions.

Communication: You are expected to use WebCT/coursemail and the web on a regular basis. You must log in regularly to WebCT and obtain a university email address / user ID no later than during the first week of class so that I can add you to my WebCT/coursemail list. Essential and time-sensitive information may be conveyed via WebCT/coursemail, and you are responsible for obtaining this information from each other or from the professor.

Submission of Coursework: All work needs to be submitted on WebCT under the appropriate Assignment module. All work also needs to be submitted in paper format to be graded. Work submitted within one week late will be reduced by one letter grade. Work received over one week late receives no credit (Individual exceptions due to emergencies will be negotiated on an individual basis).

Grading Emphasis: Each written assignment will be graded approximately 80% on content and writing (detail, logic, synthesis of information, depth of analysis, etc.), and up to 20% on mechanics (grammar, syntax, spelling, format, uniformity of citation, etc.). You are expected to write at or above the minimum competency level for writing. All citations need to use APA format.

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Professional Disposition and Behavior at All Times: Respect, professionalism, and when appropriate, charity, are necessary for a positive, healthy learning environment. All students are entitled to their opinions. Students demonstrating negative attitudes and /or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated under any circumstances and will be referred immediately to the University Dean of Student Affairs and/or the College of Education Associate Dean. Grades and course credit may be affected by inappropriate professional dispositions and/or behavior. See Self-Evaluation for criteria of professional disposition, to be completed at the beginning and end of the semester.

Outcomes and Standards: This course is aligned with the standards for the Cross-cultural Language and Academic Development (CLAD) endorsement, as articulated by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing, and as approved by the faculty of the College of Education. (Note: As of 2002, the CLAD competencies are collectively referred to as an authorization to teach English Learners. Further consideration has been given to the alignment of standards for multicultural education as articulated by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), and the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS). Emphasis is placed on learning outcomes (what you know and can demonstrate) rather than on inputs (putting in "seat time", meeting minimum criteria for assignments, checking off tasks and activities), and how these outcomes correspond to your potential to enhance student learning as a new teacher.

Academic Honesty: It is expected that each student will do his or her own work, and contribute equitably to group processes and projects. If there is any question about academic honesty, consult the University Catalog.

Appeals: Every student has the right to appeal grades, or appeal for redress of grievances incurred in the context of any course. Disputes may be resolved informally with the professor, or through the formal appeal process. For the latter, consult Dr. Patricia Prado-Olmos, Associate Dean, College of Education.

Ability: Every student has the right to an equitable education and appropriate accommodations. Students having differing ability (mobility, sight, hearing, documented learning challenges, first language/English as a second language) are requested to contact the professor at the earliest opportunity. Every effort will be made to accommodate special needs. Students are reminded of the availability of Disabled Student Services, the Writing Center, technology assistance in the computer labs, and other student support services available as part of appropriate accommodations for special needs students. Students may be required to use the Writing Center or similar resource for all written assignments, based on performance on the first writing assignment.

(300 points) Attendance; preparedness with readings and leading a discussion prior to class; as well as active, engaged discussions and participation in class all fall into this category. Students will post comments on readings and current issues (optional) as they relate to each session's topic on WebCT PRIOR TO class. Your comments need to directly reflect and quote your readings.

Current educational issues and thoughts on course topics can be found on the following websites:

San Diego Union Tribune www.signonsandiego.com Education Week www.edweek.com

B. Discussion Leader (50 points). For each discussion topic (some sessions will have more than one topic), one or two students will be responsible for posing critical thinking questions to the class, and reviewing and summarizing the other students' comments prior to the session in which the topic will be discussed.

C. PORTFOLIO

1. Self-Evaluation (Beginning/20 pts, end of term/20 pts)40 points Due Session 2, 10

2. WebCT Task: The Irish in America40 points*Due Session 2

First, watch any volume of the Irish in America film series at the Media Library. Then, write a short (one or two paragraphs) response to the following question: What does this film reveal about the social, historical and psychological construction of the white racial or ethnic group in the U.S.?

3. Personal History Narrative.100 points*Due Session 3

Write a narrative essay about your own life, describing the experiences that have shaped your views of race, culture, and issues of diversity.

a. Reflect on and describe your own experiences in terms of the following:

*your family background;

*your positionality / membership: i.e., your reference points & identity in terms of gender/sexuality, culture, ethnicity/race, class, language, religion, etc.;

*your exposure to and interactions with others unlike yourself; and *other factors you would like to include, as determined by your unique circumstances and upbringing.

b. In addition, explore and describe *your identity as a learner (a confident student; had trouble with writing; etc.)

*how this may affect your potential as a teacher (will have high expectations of students; etc.)

Include SPECIFIC examples of events and situations that you feel shaped your views on these issues. Be sure to situate your examples, i.e., provide context and explicitly detail any assumptions about schooling and education. To the extent possible, relate your experiences to anticipated course topics, readings and discussions. Be prepared to discuss your assignment with the class (small and/or whole group).

4. Family Tree Assignment:100 points*Due Session 6

By researching and studying one's own background, it is possible to gain an appreciation of our unique heritage as an American, and also prepare to discuss the unique heritage and history of other Americans. First, construct a genealogical family 'tree' covering e.g., grandson to grandfather levels. Second, for each person on the tree, write a descriptive paragraph (bulleted outlines are also acceptable), including as much information as you can gather (e.g., vocation, religious affiliation, ethnicity, culture, language(s), country of origin, education/occupation and any other information that may be of interest and value). Third, write a response to the following questions: How does your family fit into mainstream U.S. culture? (Note: You MUST use Ogbu's terms such as primary and secondary cultural characteristics, voluntary and involuntary immigration, etc.) What processes of change and assimilation or acculturation do you notice through the generations in your family's history? Has your family's status or identity changed over the generations? Why? What are some positive and negative experiences your family has had related to your family's role or status in the U.S.?

Format: tree graphic + info on about 10 people in at least three generations + a paragraph for each of the final series of questions above.

5. WebCT Task: Video, Smoke Signals or In the White Man's Image40 points*Due Session 5

Write a short (one or two paragraphs) response to the following questions: What does this film reveal about the social and historical construction of the white vs. nonwhite (in this case, Native American) racial or ethnic groups in the U.S.? How were premises about the inferiority of Native Americans used to justify racist policies (give specific examples from the Spring book reading.)

6. WebCT Task: Religion Map, Video, & Writeup40 points*Due Session 5

1. Today's task consists of two activities, a web search on religious institutions in your neighborhood of choice and watching a film on a religion that you are unfamiliar with.

 Activity A. Using yahoo or other search engine, map out the various religious buildings and organizations (churches, temples, mosques, etc.) in your neighborhood. The map needs to be done on a regular size sheet of paper, and not on a giant poster board. Yahoo.com will map out the neighborhood religious buildings for you -- you do a search for the terms, "[city of choice] + churches, temples, etc." and hit return, and mapping out your results will be one of your choices. Save the yahoo or similar web page as an html. document and upload. If this does NOT work, do not panic. Just include your religious buildings in your writeup.

 Activity B. Watch any film of your choice that addresses a religion that you are not familiar with. The film can be a Hollywood piece or a documentary. There is a film on reserve at the Media Library, "Islam Today," for your convenience.

2. Writeup. Respond to the following two questions. You can either outline your responses or compose a paragraph for each question response.

 Question 1. Discuss the ways in which these various religions might effect public education. For example, how might religions impact the school calendar and schedule, menu, curriculum, activities, etc.? On a related note, what can be done if different religions have conflicting views about holidays, schedules, etc.? Give specific examples as much as possible. Incorporate the neighborhood map you worked on AND your film of choice on religion into your writeup. E.g., if you see a Jewish temple on either your website or in the film you chose, you might reflect that Christmas is not celebrated by Jews, and that public schools might teach students about a variety of celebrations such as Hanukkah, Kwaanza, Christmas, and Ramadan; and further, that the winter break be called just that, Winter Break, not Christmas vacation.

Question 2. What is the difference between proselytizing and educating about various religions? To your knowledge and/or in your experience, what types of lessons on religion are reflected in the standards across different content areas, and to what extent are non-Christian religions adequately and fairly represented in the curriculum?

7. In-Class WebCT Task: Class: CBEDS / DataQuest 0 points Due in class session 6

Look up a school of your choice on the CBEDS or DataQuest web site, located at <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/>. Examine and analyze the languages spoken in the district, the test scores, the number of qualified teachers, the types of programs the school offers, etc. In your writeup, consider... How does class or socioeconomic status interact with the foregoing factors?

8. World Language TV Assignment 40 points Due Session 7

Watch an hour of a film in a language that you have no knowledge of. In your writeup describe the following. A. How did you feel? (Frustrated, engaged, etc.) B. What helped you comprehend this new language? (Visuals, facial expressions, music, background knowledge – familiar genre or familiar words, etc.) C. Based on part B, consider...what type of instructional strategies can teachers use that English learners might benefit from and make subject matter comprehensible?

9. WebCT Task: Exceptionality (Parts I, 30 pts and II, 30 pts) 60 points Due Session 8

WebCT tasks should take about the equivalent of class time. Accordingly, you should spend about 90 minutes on this task (review of websites and response to each question below) + 30 to 60 minutes on the video.

PART I – SPECIAL EDUCATION CATEGORIES - Go to the state DataQuest website (search under google.com for cde DataQuest and it will show up or go to <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/>). Then, investigate the following: 1. What categories of special education services are there? Read the various categories of services and consider the following questions. You can also refer to FAT City video for disability categories. 1a. What do you think are some pros and cons of mainstreaming (placing students of special education in mainstream classes)? 1b. Have you seen any mainstreaming firsthand? What kind of anti-bias education issues might be necessary for both the mainstream students and the students receiving special education services for mainstreaming to be successful? 2. The state has data on special education and ethnicity. Click on this category. What do you notice about the proportion of particular ethnicities in special education services relative to the proportion of these ethnicities in the general student population? In other words, which groups are “overrepresented”? Why might these groups be overrepresented?

PART II – Intelligence & Testing. 1. Also on DataQuest, review the mandatory tests (SAT or STAR) and their test components and testing schedule. 2. Select and review the reporting of these tests for your local school district. What do you notice concerning these test scores along major groups (ethnicity, gender, etc.) ? What in your opinion are the pros and cons of increased testing under No Child Left Behind, the federal legislation enacted by the current administration?

[NOT DUE THIS SEMESTER - WebCT Task: Gender Assignment]

Choose two out of the following three options. Option 1: Review a curriculum component (textbook, film, or visual work, etc.) that addresses a diverse (i.e., different from mainstream heterosexual) gender / sexuality / family composition perspective. How is the piece inclusive /exclusive? Be sure to cite appropriate data. E.g., You might cite the number of single parent households as the rationale for reviewing a book about a single parent family. See WebCT/Resources or <http://www.census.gov/hhes/income/earnings/earnings.html> for Census data. Option 2: Using the White Privilege article as a template, write a list of Heterosexual Privilege. Include privileges that heterosexuals enjoy (e.g., I can read a book required for school and know with certainty that the book will reflect experiences of heterosexual identity.) that students of other sexual orientations or families with nonheterosexual members cannot. Option 3: Describe how your 1. life, 2. education, and 3. occupation would be different if you were of a different gender or sexuality. Be sure to fully address all three questions on how your life and educational / occupational choices may differ as a fe/male?  This needs to be an expository piece with citations. (E.g., If I were male instead of female, I imagine many things would change. For example, I would earn 25% more [Census, 2000])

10. Reflection on Personal History Narrative 90 points Due Session 10
Suggested length: 2 pages

Consider your first reflective narrative from the beginning of the semester. Are there any changes you would make to the story? Have you remembered or reinterpreted particular events throughout this semester, or have particular events taken place since the beginning of the term that have led you to reflect on some critical themes in this course? In what ways have your voice and perspective changed? Sometimes, the changes will be subtle, as in choosing to use the terms Asian American or Latino rather than Oriental or Hispanic for specific purposes. Or, the changes may be dramatic. In this assignment, you will document your new reflections concerning your personal narrative, as a result of having critically examined the major issues covered in this course.

The narrative needs to directly address TPE 15, Social Justice and Equity. See first part of this syllabus for more info on TPE 15.

11. Outcome Assessment 100 points Due Session 10
Suggested length: 2 – 3 pages

Describe the following, keeping in mind the focus needs to be on TPE 15, Social Justice and Equity.

- a. A select few of the most important things you learned in this class; (continued on next page)
- b. How you knew you were learning something of significance (assessing your own learning – cite specific readings, discussions, films, activities, community activities, etc.);
- c. How this will shape your attitudes and demonstrated behaviors as a teacher or in future intercultural interaction;
i.e., how you will demonstrate overall “cultural competence” (as this definition is developed in class).

Grading emphasis will be placed on your ability to articulate the select topics of your choice, the depth of reflective analysis, your description of how you knew what you were learning (specific examples from the course: cognitive – facts, knowledge bases, content areas; behavioral – speech and actions; and affective – attitudes), and the connections you make between the topics and plans for your future growth & professional practice.

(Extra Credit Option: Multiracial Identities 40 points)

Select and watch any film of your choice having to do with either bi/multicultural or bi/multiracial identity. Some options are A Family Thing, Bend It Like Beckham, Come See the Paradise, Joy Luck Club, Mi Familia. Then, write a reflection (1 page) connecting the film to Ogbu’s notion of primary and secondary cultural characteristics, AND to the Lelyveld article, “Getting Under My Skin.”

Check with the professor re: doing any of the following as a Makeup Assignment:

Community events: Write a critical response to a community event you participated in, or provide a video/visual of the event with a brief analysis.

Article reviews: Write a critical response to current articles related to the topics covered in this course.
