Authorization to Teach English Learners

This credential program has been specifically designed to prepare teachers for the diversity of languages often encountered in California public school classrooms. The authorization to teach English learners is met through the infusion of content and experiences within the credential program, as well as additional coursework. Students successfully completing this program receive a credential with authorization to teach English learners.

(approved by CCTC in SB 2042 Program Standards, August 02)

10 points

For this assignment you will observe an ELD or SDAIE lesson at your student teaching school site. You will collect and document evidence of any instructional modifications made to provide comprehensible academic input for the English learners in the class. As part of your write-up, you are to discuss how (if necessary) you would modify the lesson/activity in light of the information and knowledge gained in the course.

Your lesson observation must address TPEs 4 and 5 (see rubric).

Multicultural Literature Resources / Lesson Plans

20 points

With another person, you will have the opportunity to collect multicultural resources (books, websites, text sets, etc.), and develop lesson plans based the resources and rooted in social justice and equity for high school students. The following questions should help guide your selection of multicultural resources:

- Does this resource help English learners have access to the core curriculum?
- Does this resource help scaffold an equitable classroom?
- Does this resource promote social justice and equity?
- Does this resource help your students feel as if they are part of the culture of the school?

This assignment must address TPEs 7 and 15.

The required elements of the assignment are:

1. With your partner, choose six multicultural resources that address appropriate proficiency and content area knowledge for high school students.
2. For each selection, you will write a brief (one paragraph) annotated bibliography encompassing:
 - a. Appropriate grade level
 - b. Appropriate ELD proficiency level(s)
 - c. Appropriate content area(s)
 - d. Description of the story/text
3. At least two of the resources must be bilingual (English and another language).
4. With your partner, submit a lesson plan that clearly delineates how every student will be a successful learner by providing universal access to diverse students (e.g., gifted, English learners, special needs, non-readers, poor readers).

Poster Sessions (20 minutes each)

Tables will be set up to provide space for the partners to present/display their multicultural resources and lesson plans.

Note: Dr. Alice Quicho’s website has an excellent bibliography of children’s literature and multicultural books (<http://www.csusm.edu/Quiocho>), or the Barahona Center at the CSUSM

Library has an excellent collection of books in Spanish (<http://www.csusm.edu/csb/>). You might also check out Teaching Tolerance’s website of great resources at www.tolerance.org.

Multicultural Resources / Lessons – Scoring Rubric

Criteria	Developing	Nearly Meets	Meets	Exceeds
TPE-7 Teaching English Learners	Multicultural resources are not authentic, do not reflect the diversity in schools, and the primary language of students is not considered. Lessons do not support English learners.	Candidates select some authentic multicultural resources, primary language is not included or not well translated. Lesson reading and writing activities are inappropriate for levels of proficiency in English and primary language, and assessments are non-existent or inappropriate.	Candidates select authentic multicultural resources that reflect diversity of the classroom, to include the primary language of English learners. Lesson plans include instructional activities appropriate for levels of proficiency in English and primary language, and have relevant assessments.	Teaching candidates include justification for the selection and purpose of each resource, taking into account the varying learning and social needs of individual students or groups in their own classroom. Lessons include language activities meet the academic and social needs of all students.
TPE-15 Social Justice and Equity	Multicultural assignment does not address issues of social justice and equity in the classroom. Lesson plans are not designed for students from diverse backgrounds.	Candidates select some multicultural resources that address issues of social justice and equity. Lesson plans do not include instructional practices for diverse students and are not grounded in theories of multicultural education.	Candidates select authentic multicultural resources that address issues of social justice and equity. Lesson plans are designed to include instructional practices that are grounded in theories of multicultural education, and provide equitable outcomes for students from different linguistic, cultural, social and economic backgrounds.	Candidates include justification for each multicultural selection that show how issues of social justice and equity are addressed for all students. Lesson plans apply instructional strategies grounded in theories and principles of multicultural education, ensure equal outcomes for all students from different backgrounds, and are designed with stakeholders representing all students in the classroom.

SDAIE “Unit” Plans / TPE Reflective Statements
– Critical Assessment Task (CAT)

25 points

Applying the SDAIE methodologies and principles discussed in class, create a SDAIE “unit plan” appropriate for English learners at various proficiency levels. Each lesson in the unit should contain the following:

1. Grade level, Content standard(s) / objectives, ELD standard(s) / objectives, requisite background information (i.e. Who are your students? What are your English learners’ proficiency levels? What do your students need to know prior to the lesson?) Materials / resources necessary for the lesson.
2. A plan for assessment
 - How will your students demonstrate mastery of the content and language standards/objectives?
 - What varied authentic products will be produced?
 - What multi-level assessment criteria will be used? Different levels of mastery?
3. Vocabulary and grammatical structures (if applicable) to be learned or reinforced in the lesson – how will you make vocabulary development part of the lesson?
4. How do ALL your students have access to the content you are presenting?
 - Do the activities you have designed for the lesson support the content and ELD standards you have selected?
 - What SDAIE strategies are you using to make the content accessible to all your students?
 - Do the lesson strategies incorporate group collaboration, cooperative learning activities, peer assistance, or other work-group techniques?
 - Does the lesson incorporate the language and culture of language minority students?
 - Do all students have access to academic language?
5. How will you ensure that your lesson provides equitable outcomes for ALL your students (from diverse linguistic, cultural, social and economic backgrounds)?

You may work in a group of 2-4 students. Each group member will develop his/her own SDAIE lesson plan as part of the “unit.” During several class sessions, students will have the opportunity to work on their unit plan by applying what they have learned from the readings, class discussions, and their classroom experiences.

SDAIE Presentations

Each group will have 15-20 minutes to present their SDAIE Unit Plans.

This assignment must address TPEs 7 and 15 (see rubric).

TPE Reflective Statements

Even though we are referencing and seeking to understand several TPEs in this course, you are specifically responsible for writing a reflective statement for TPEs 7 and 15 in the TaskStream Electronic Portfolio. Each assigned reflection should be primarily based on your SDAIE lesson plan. The reflection should be approximately 250-350 words (the goal is to be succinct not to count words) and focus on a description, analysis, reflection sequence. You must attach your SDAIE lesson plan as an artifact to support your ideas in the reflection for both reflective statements (TPEs 7 and 15). You may attach other artifacts which also support your ideas. The same artifact may appear in multiple TPE reflections. When you submit each TPE reflection, you will receive feedback from me. When the reflection is finalized, it will become a permanent record in your TaskStream Portfolio. You may return to the TPE at another point in your program and make modifications as your understanding deepens.

Each TPE reflective statement must include:

1. a description of the teacher candidate’s learning with respect to the specific TPE being addressed
2. an analysis of how the attached artifact(s) is (are) evidence of that learning
3. a reflection describing personal significance of this learning and/or next steps in the journey toward continuing to meet this TPE

SDAIE Strategy Log

15 Points

Our course is designed so that you are able to not only explore the foundations, theories, and history of multilingual education, but that you are able to acquire specific strategies that you can use to support the ELD learners that you will have in your classroom. You will be exposed to these strategies through our readings, through your ELD observation, through your working experience, and through the modeling we will be doing in our class. Your job is to record the specific SDAIE strategies that you will use in your own classroom. You should have at least 5-7 strategies per the categories that are listed below. While the assignment is due at the end of our course, it is essential that you keep strategy log up-dated throughout the course.

Generally Accepted Attributes of Highly Effective Teachers
(as seen in pre-service programs)

(Roberts and Kellough, 2000; Stone, 2002; McEwan, 2002; Baldwin, Keating and Bachman, 2003; Johnson and Johnson, 1994; COE Mission Statement, 1997)

The following will be used as a guideline for defining each attribute:

1. General classroom attendance, promptness, and participation: is on time, respects time boundaries (breaks, etc.), regularly attends class, and actively participates.
2. Attention to classroom discussion protocols (per Epstein's Five Stage Rocket): respects time limitations, recognizes and respects the perspectives of fellow classmates, gives wait time, listens actively, uses non-interruptive skills, mediates disagreements by working to understand others' perspectives and finding common ground, genuinely encourages all to participate.
3. Social and cooperative skills (as illustrated in cooperative projects): assumes responsibility of one's roles, is open to consensus and mediation, effectively communicates ideas, attends group meetings, is dependable, respects others' ideas, expects quality work from self and colleagues, manages time effectively, uses organizational skills and leadership skills, is assertive but not aggressive, uses reflection as a means of evaluation, motivates and offers positive reinforcement to others.
4. Attention to assignments: meets time deadlines, produces quality products, responds cooperatively to constructive criticism, uses rubrics or other stipulated criteria to shape an assignment, prioritizes tasks and performs/supervises several tasks at once.
5. General classroom demeanor: is professional, creative, kind, sensitive, respectful, has a sense of humor, is supportive of fellow classmates and instructors; recognizes others' perspectives as valid and works to include all "voices" in the classroom; is aware of and responsive to issues and behaviors that might marginalize colleagues in the classroom.
6. Flexibility: is responsive when reasonable adjustments to the syllabus, curriculum, schedule, and school site assignments become necessary (common to the educational arena); can work through frustrations by problem-solving with others and not letting emotional responses dominate or impair thinking; "bounces" back easily; can work calmly under stress.
7. Openness to and enthusiasm for learning: can engage with a variety of educational ideas with an open mind and a sense of exploration; demonstrates passion for and metacognition of learning across the curriculum and within discipline areas; takes advantage of learning opportunities and seeks out additional opportunities for learning.
