ASSIGNMENTS

Reading Response/Interactive Journal (20 points)

For each set of readings you must write a response. You may respond in a variety of ways that reflect multiple ways of demonstrating knowledge. Possible formats such as “found poems,” graphic organizers, double entry, sketches, K-W-L charts, etc. will be taught in class. You must connect course content with your teaching experiences and observations and express your ideas, opinions, questions and concerns relative to your teaching experience and/or observations. This assignment is ongoing and begins with readings for the second session and will continue until the last week of class. Journal entries must be at least one page in length. Journals must be completed before each class meeting. Entries will be graded according to their comprehensiveness, insightful connections, and “deep understanding” of the issues.

Due: See syllabus for periodic due dates.

Choice Assignment (25 points)

You will complete one of the following choices:

- RICA study guide
- Book review
- Technology evaluation

- Mini case study

Due: February 16

Reading Strategy Lesson Plan – Critical Assessment Task (25 points)

You will write a standards based reading strategy lesson plan for a small group activity that takes into account student needs. Make your lesson active, interesting, fun, and meaningful. Because lesson planning may be unfamiliar to some of you, but is so important to teaching, we will discuss/model lesson planning in class. Choose a reading standard for your grade level to guide your objectives. Sample strategies include:

- Monitoring Reading
- Comprehension
- Content area reading
- Phonics
- Phonemic Awareness
- Organizing information while you read
- Relating what you are reading to what you already know
- Finding the main idea of a story
- Identifying patterns in a text
- Using graphic organizers for comprehension

Keep in mind when writing your lesson: What is the purpose of your lesson? How does it relate to real reading and/or writing? What are your learning goals? How are they aligned with the CA Reading/Language Arts standards (check the Reading/Language Arts framework for CA public schools)? How will you present the lesson (instructional strategies, resource materials, time frame)? How will you group students for the lesson? How will you assess your students? What accommodations will you provide for students who need additional help?

Important: Your lesson must address the needs of mainstream students, as well as make provisions for second language learners, students presenting difficulty, and accelerated students. How are you going to work with students who are having difficulty? How will you scaffold second language learners' learning during the lesson? How will your lesson provide enrichment for accelerated students? Will you meet with students individually or in a small group while other students work independently?

Due: March 8

Field Observations (20 points)

While observing in your classrooms, look for evidence of the following processes:

- Phonemic awareness
- Concepts about print
- Phonics and word identification
- Spelling
- Vocabulary
- Organization of classroom: Time and physical layout
- Managing groups
- Guided reading
- Comprehension INSTRUCTION (not assessment) of narrative texts
- Oral language development
- Structure of English language

You do not have to observe a separate lesson on each of the above areas. Several concepts may be integrated into one lesson or you might see evidence on bulletin boards or in student work. Document your observations and analyses in whatever mode best fits your learning style.

Due: February 25

Thoughtful Participation (10 points)

Being a teacher involves more than planning lessons and delivering instruction. You must be able to articulate the reasons behind your curricular decisions, to advocate for students, and defend policies about which you feel strongly. Engaging in professional conversations with parents, administrators, other teachers, and the public is imperative for teachers today. To that end, I expect that each student will participate actively in each class session.

COE Attendance Policy

Due to the dynamic and interactive nature of courses in the College of Education, all students are expected to attend all classes and participate actively. At a minimum, students must attend more than 80% of class time, or they may not receive a passing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor.

As professionals, you are expected to adhere to standards of dependability and promptness. If you miss more than two class sessions or are late or leave early by more than 15 minutes for more than three sessions, you cannot receive an A. If you miss more than three class sessions you cannot receive a B. Should you have extenuating circumstances, you should contact me as soon as possible.

Completion of Course Assignments

Readings should be completed before the class meeting listed. All assignments should be handed in on the date due unless previously arranged with the instructor. Late assignments will be penalized by a 5% deduction in points for each weekday late. After one week, late assignments will be given a zero. If you have extraordinary circumstances in your life which will impact your assignments, please let me know. I want you to be able to stay in school and succeed. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to come in and speak with me about them.
